Funeral Culture Casey Golomski, 2018-06-04 Contemporary forms of living and dying in Swaziland cannot be understood apart from the global HIV AIDS pandemic according to anthropologist Casey Golomski In Africa's last absolute monarchy the story of 15 years of global collaboration in treatment and intervention is also one of ordinary people facing the work of caring for the sick and dying and burying the dead Golomski's ethnography shows how AIDS posed challenging questions about the value of life culture and materiality to drive new forms and practices for funerals Many of these forms and practices newly catered funeral feasts an expanded market for life insurance and the kingdom's first crematorium are now conspicuous across the landscape and culturally disruptive in a highly traditionalist setting This powerful and original account details how these new matters of death dying and funerals have become entrenched in peoples everyday lives and become part of a quest to create dignity in the wake of a devastating epidemic

A Turbulent South Africa Jérôme Tournadre, 2018-03-01 Frequently praised for its democratic transition South Africa has experienced an almost uninterrupted cycle of social protest since the late 1990s There have been increasing numbers of demonstrations against the often appalling living conditions of millions of South Africans pointing to the fact that they have yet to achieve full citizenship A Turbulent South Africa offers a new look at this historic period in the existence of the young South African democracy far removed from the idealistic portrait of the Rainbow Nation J r me Tournadre draws on interviews and observations to take the reader from the backstreets of the squatters camps to international militant circles and from the immediate infra political level to the worldwide anti capitalist protest movement He investigates the mechanisms and the meaning of social discontent in light of several different phenomena These include the struggle of the poor to gain recognition the persistent memory of the fight against apartheid the developments in the political world since the Mandela Years the coexistence of liberal democracy with a popular politics found in poor and working class districts and many other factors that have played a crucial part in the social and political tensions at the heart of post apartheid South Africa

Positive Youth Development, Mental Health, and Psychological Well-Being in Diverse Youth Nora Wiium, Laura Ferrer-Wreder, Jennifer E. Lansford, Lene Arnett Jensen, 2023-06-15 In this Research Topic our aim is to examine how personal resources related to competencies skills and self perception as well as environmental contextual and relational features of the social contexts of diverse youth directly or indirectly are important to mental health and psychological well being As previous research on young people has mainly focused on youth s weaknesses rather than their strengths our use of Positive Youth Development PYD in working with culturally diverse youth and their well being in this Research Topic is novel We invite contributions from researchers that were initially presented their papers in a meeting that was held by research partners of the Cross National Project on Positive Youth Development CN PYD and who represent an international and multidisciplinary panel of experts on PYD The CN PYD was initiated in 2014 at the University of Bergen and has an ongoing data collection that involves approximately 10 000 minority and majority youth and emerging adults ages 16 to 29 living in Africa Asia Australia Europe New Zealand and South America CN PYD uses a strengths based approach to the conceptualization of youth as resources and agentic which is in opposition to the view of the developmental period of adolescence as being a period inherently fraught with problems and risks The goal of the cross national project is to assess personal strengths and contextual resources considering how these resources come together to facilitate youth thriving and to document how young people make positive and valued contributions to themselves and others We also advance research on the complex interplay between personal and contextual resources and their connections with risk behaviors and problems in essence taking a perspective of the whole child both in terms of strengths and problems
