Biblical Theology of Life in the Old Testament Albert J. Coetsee, Francois P. Viljoen, 2021-11-30 Life is a primary theme in Scripture expressed in the rich diversity of the various books, corpora and genres of Scripture Much has been published on what Scripture teaches about life and death To date however no comprehensive biblical theology in which the concept of life is traced throughout the different books and corpora of the Old and New Testament has been published It is this lacuna that this book aims to fill assuming that such an approach can provide a valuable contribution to the theological discourse on life and related concepts The primary aim of this book is to give an indication of the different nuances of the concept of life in the various books and corpora of the Old and New Testament by providing the reader with a book by book overview of the concept of life in Scripture The secondary aim is to give an indication of the overall use and function of the concept of life in the Old Testament the New Testament and Scripture as a whole The latter is provided by using the findings of the book by book overview of the concept of life in Scripture to draw the lines together

Careers in Southern Africa Hermann Spangenberg, 1980

Race and Reconciliation in South Africa William E. Van Vugt, G. Daan Cloete, 2000-01-01 In the mid 1990s the Truth and Reconciliation Commission disclosed its findings on the awful reality of the apartheid era in South Africa The Commission inspired scholars from Europe North America and South Africa to convene a group of their own to investigate in multicultural scholarly dialogue the history, theology, philosophy and politics of race and reconciliation in South Africa This volume is the product of that important dialogue And while the focus is the particular environment of South Africa the contributors work within a comparative perspective using examples from other nations and cultures to explore that which makes South Africa unique Ultimately the book aims to offer not only a better understanding of the depth of injustice in South Africa's past but also a deeper appreciation for the achievement of the present and the promise of the future in South Africa and in every other multiethnic region in the world

Lynn Preston, Wanda van der Merwe, 2023-11-30 The Six Bricks initiative is a teaching and learning method that encourages focused engagement in the classroom by all learners from the foundation phase to adulthood By using six simple colourful DUPLO bricks an element of play is introduced into a situation that inevitably leads to all individuals focusing and interacting This is one of the major contributions to all teaching and learning disciplines and promotes the audience to learn with enjoyment, enthusiasm and concentration Along with this communication is promoted sparking unimaginable creativity and creation This book provides the reader with an alternative focus to the original educational application of the Six Bricks activities This Six Bricks initiative focuses on the therapeutic application and processes in communities, schools and within individuals themselves As each author has had an intimate connection with Six Bricks initiative they are all more than qualified to provide their autoethnographic reflections on this initiative which holds so much promise and excitement for learning and teaching Therefore each author s contributions were original and personalised providing a new field in the avenues of research in the South African context as South Africa does not have as yet much research on this topic The methodology used in this qualitative research study was primarily from each author s perspective thus their self reflection and anecdotal personal experiences form the core of these chapters Therefore this autoethnographic is a self reflective form of writing which involves self observation and reflective investigation in the context of ethnographic fieldwork and writing
