imagine curricula for the changing times Now more than ever in the history of higher education curriculum practices and processes need to be shared the findings of research undertaken on curriculum need to be disseminated to inform curriculum work We hope the book will enable readers to look beyond their contextual difficulties and constraints to find spaces where they can dream and begin to implement innovative and creative solutions to what may seem like intractable challenges or difficulties

Hostile Business and the Sovereign State Michael J. Strauss,2018-12-14 This book describes and assesses an emerging threat to states territorial control and sovereignty the hostile control of companies that carry out privatized aspects of sovereign authority The threat arises from the massive worldwide shift of state activities to the private sector since the late 1970s in conjunction with two other modern trends the globalization of business and the liberalization of international capital flows The work introduces three new concepts firstly the rise of companies that handle privatized activities and the associated advent of post government companies that make such activities their core business Control of them may reside with individual investors other companies or investment funds or it may reside with other states through state owned enterprises or sovereign wealth funds Secondly imperfect privatizations when a state privatizes an activity to another state s public sector The book identifies cases where this is happening It also elaborates on how ownership and influence of companies that perform privatized functions may not be transparent and can pass to inherently hostile actors including criminal or terrorist organizations Thirdly belligerent companies whose conduct is hostile to those of states where they are active The book concludes by assessing the adequacy of existing legal and regulatory regimes and how relevant norms may evolve

European VAT and the Sharing Economy Giorgio Beretta, 2019-10-24 A breadth of new digital platforms has dramatically expanded the range of possibilities for exchanging anything required by business or personal needs from accommodation to rides In the virtual marketplaces shaped and ruled by these novel matchmakers rather than by a single centralized entity value is created through the granular interaction of many dispersed individuals By allowing instantaneous and smooth interaction among millions of individuals platforms have indeed pushed the digital frontier farther and farther so as to include within it even services once not capable of direct delivery from a remote location such as accommodation and passenger transport Legal disruption is also underway with foundational dichotomous categories such as those between suppliers and customers business and private spheres employees and self employed no longer viable as organizational legal structures This is the essential background of the first book to relate what is synthetically captured under the umbrella definition of sharing economy to key features at the core of European Value Added Tax EU VAT and to look at the feasibility of a reformed EU VAT system capable of addressing the main challenges posed by these new models of production distribution and consumption of goods and services Specifically the study analyses five legal propositions underpinning the current EU VAT system as the following taxable persons taxable transactions composite supplies place of supply rules and liability regimes for collection and remittance of VAT Exploration of these five legal propositions is meant to assess the practical feasibility of shoehorning the main sharing economy business models notably those available in the accommodation and passenger transport sectors into the framework of existing EU VAT provisions The author further draws on the normative standards of equality neutrality simplicity flexibility and proportionality to test the reflexes of the current EU VAT system in the sharing economy domain Opportunities for reform of the current EU VAT system are in turn evaluated with each chapter including cogent proposals in the form of incremental and targeted amendments to the current EU VAT provisions As the first comprehensive analysis of the treatment of the sharing economy for VAT purposes the book provides not only a theoretical framework for future studies in the tax field but also indispensable practical guidance for VAT specialists confronting daily with the many challenges ushered in by the sharing economy Moreover the various solutions and recommendations advanced in the book offer valuable insights to international and national policymakers dealing with similar issues under other VAT systems Afrikaans Linguistics WAM Carstens, Nerina Bosman, 2024-10-03 Offering a contemporary exploration of the multifaceted landscape of Afrikaans linguistics Afrikaans Linguistics Contemporary Perspectives marks a seminal contribution to the field This volume for the first time presents accessible insights into diverse linguistics subdisciplines inviting international scholars to familiarise themselves with Afrikaans language studies Throughout much of the late 19th and 20th centuries Afrikaans scholars predominantly communicated in Afrikaans resulting in a significant gap in the dissemination of knowledge about the language The chapters in this book written by prominent South Africans as well as international scholars working in the field of Afrikaans serve as a pivotal bridge by providing essential historical context while also paying attention to the development of Afrikaans linguistics during the 20th century The primary focus remains on illuminating 21st century research trajectories offering a comprehensive snapshot of contemporary scholarship in Afrikaans linguistics Annual Report National Research Foundation (South Africa), 2016 Responsibility of Higher Education Systems, 2020-06-29 The evolving societal political and economic landscape has led to increased demands on higher education institutions to make their contribution and benefits to society more visible and in many cases with fewer public resources This book contributes to the understanding of the responsibilities of Higher Education and the challenges posed to the production and circulation of knowledge It raises questions about the role of higher education in society its responsibility towards students and staff and regarding its intended impact The book brings together a range of topical papers and a diversity of perspectives scientific investigations of reputed scholars critical evidence based papers of third space professionals and policymakers perspectives on the daily practice and management of higher education institutions and systems The variety of both content and contributors elevates the richness of the book and its relevance for a large audience Contributors are Victor M H Borden Lex Borghans Bruno Broucker Hamish Coates Gwilym Croucher Lisa Davidson Mark Engberg Philipp Friedrich Martina Gaisch Solomon Gebreyohans Gebru Ton Kallenberg Kathi A Ketcheson Lu Liu Alfredo Marra Clare Milsom Kenneth Moore Roberto Moscati Marjolein Muskens Daniela N meyer Attila Pausits Svetlana Shenderova Wafa Singh Chuanyi Wang Denyse Webbstock Gregory Wolniak and Jiale Yang See inside the book Routledge Handbook of Public Policy in Africa Gedion Onyango, 2021-12-30 This Handbook provides an authoritative and foundational disciplinary overview of African Public Policy and a comprehensive examination of the practicalities of policy analysis policymaking processes implementation and administration in Africa today The book assembles a multidisciplinary team of distinguished and upcoming Africanist scholars practitioners researchers and policy experts working inside and outside Africa to analyse the historical and emerging policy issues in 21st century Africa While mostly attentive to comparative public policy in Africa this book attempts to address some of the following pertinent questions How can public policy be understood and taught in Africa How does policymaking occur in unstable political contexts or in states under pressure Has the democratisation of governing systems improved policy processes in Africa How have recent transformations such as technological proliferation in Africa impacted public policy processes What are the underlying challenges and potential policy paths for Africa going forward The contributions examine an interplay of prevailing institutional political structural challenges and opportunities for policy effectiveness to discern striking commonalities and trajectories across different African states This is a valuable resource for practitioners politicians researchers university students and academics interested in studying and understanding how African countries are governed

Sustainable Development Goals and Institutions of Higher Education Godwell Nhamo, Vuyo Mjimba, 2019-09-14 This volume brings together both theoretical and case study based contributions to the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs in Institutions of Higher Education IHE presenting an impactful combination of authors from both developing and developed countries While most current publications addressing the SDGs and education focus on sustainable development in general and specific topics such as climate change or energy this book attempts to accelerate the localisation of the SDGs by presenting opportunities and innovations offered in various universities and campuses regarding SDGs localisation The book seeks to provide an important contribution to the global dialogue on IHE and the SDGs and will be of interest to academics and researchers engaged in the SDGs and education as well as government agencies and other interested stakeholders The book focuses on curriculum and learning matters research and development as well as community engagement Case studies detail the integration of SDGs in academic and professional development new approaches to implementing sustainability science instruction improvements in teaching practices to enhance teacher competence and responsible management education Additional focus is placed on the alignment of the SDGs in higher education with the other goals emphasizing technological innovation for improved human health and environmental management and climate change policies and action plans Interdisciplinary solutions for pressing environmental problems are also provided making sure that no one is left behind in realising these global development goals
