Re-Envisioning and Restructuring Blended Learning for Underprivileged Communities Bosch, Chantelle, Laubscher, Dorothy Joy, Kyei-Blankson, Lydia, 2021-05-14 Challenges in the educational arena are not new phenomena However with the recent outbreak of the COVID 19 pandemic researchers and educators have been made even more aware of the need for a paradigm shift in education Blended learning as opposed to fully online learning or traditional face to face teaching has been well researched and has been found to have the potential to provide better educational solutions in challenging contexts These contexts range from pandemic situations where social distancing is the order of the day to financial and time constraints regarding full time study as well as limited physical capacity at institutions Blended learning solutions are often designed for resourceful institutions and cannot be easily implemented in developing countries and in communities where resources are limited Typical issues like connectivity accessibility lack of suitable devices and affordability need to be taken into consideration and in cognizance of blended learning interventions These challenges are often neglected in blended learning research but are critical discussions to be had Re Envisioning and Restructuring Blended Learning for Underprivileged Communities shares how institutions in the developing world and less privileged communities have re imagined and restructured blended education to enhance teaching and learning for underprivileged communities This book aims to address blended learning solutions across institutional program course and activity levels The chapters will cover a variety of learning environments from rural settings to less developed countries and more and explore the programs and courses designed to improve student success and accessibility in diverse student populations This book is ideally intended for teachers administrators teacher educators practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students who are interested in blended learning opportunities in less privileged settings and to underserved and marginalized populations

From #RhodesMustFall Movements to #HumansMustFall Movements Artwell Nhemachena, Jairo Kangira, 2021-05-14 Might it be possible that the world is being migrated into an era where the imperial periphery will be increasingly governed through Artificial Intelligence AI and robotics designed to replace human beings Celebrated as efficient strong unfailing tireless precise and beyond corruption AI and robots are set to replace African leaders who are imperially deemed to be and consistently condemned as corrupt failed weak and inefficient But if these AI and robots are neo imperial tools and machinations the million dollar question is whether empire is not returning to recolonise the supposedly inefficient Africans via the new technologies and machinism Where Africans once celebrated their liberation war movements empire has emplaced what it calls liberation technologies designed to supposedly liberate African youths from their own states and governments led by liberation movements Where Africans once celebrated their liberation war movements empire has placed its own NGOs CSOs spewing liberal ideologies designed to ostensibly liberate African youths from their own supposedly failed and corrupt states and government leaders With African youths citizens allying not with their liberation movements but with the liberation technologies and liberal NGOs CSOs it is not surprising why African citizens oppose their states led Fast Track Land Redistribution Programmes while ironically they happily celebrate Fast Tracked COVID 19 Vaccines Posing the notion of HumansMustFall movements this book underscores ways in which empire is in a process of eternal return to 21st century Africa The book is crucial for scholars and activists in political science government studies sociology anthropology cultural studies history languages and communication studies security studies military studies and development studies

Digital Public Relations and Marketing Communication Trends in Africa Anne W. Njathi, Brandi Watkins, 2024-06-07 The uptake of digital media platforms necessitates the need to understand how digital cultures of consumers and brands are unfolding Despite the increase in usage and adoption of the internet in Africa there is limited information about digital marketing trends on the continent This book is among the first to present an edited collection of chapters on digital and influencer marketing authored by many who are either from or have close ties to Africa This book showcases digital marketing trends in Africa that are burgeoning at the same speed as the uptake of technology in the continent With this in mind the contributors seek to interrogate digital marketing trends in two stages the status of digital marketing on the African continent including cases from Nigeria Egypt Uganda and Kenya and an analysis of the rise of influencer marketing including cases from Nigeria and Uganda This book will explore factors driving the increase in digital media platforms in Africa as well as an analysis of the implications of the growth in digital marketing using various theoretical and methodological underpinnings to probe trends Digital Public Relations and Marketing Communication Trends in Africa provides significant implications for marketing scholars and researchers and will be relevant to those looking to understand the opportunities and challenges ahead

Recalibrating teacher training in African higher education institutions Sifiso Sibanda, Gideon (Deon) P. van Tonder, Washington T. Dudu, 2023-03-01 This book critically examines the role of governments in promoting parity during and in post pandemic education This comes from the realisation that the pandemic has deepened the crisis by depleting the meagre resources that African countries might have devoted to normative educational practices where those on the margins would have been pushed further behind while the privileged would have been further initiated into the cultural and capital flows of private schools and historically research intensive institutions of higher learning This has far reaching implications for the education of underprivileged citizens and education particularly modes and modalities of delivery has to be reimaged to subvert the challenges wrought by the pandemic This book significantly bridges the gap between the pre and post COVID 19 pandemic pedagogical practices and the erstwhile modalities that have been resilient over time The book focuses on ways to stave off pedagogical challenges that face countries as the global pandemic makes its mark

Unlocking the chains of knowledge Monwabisi K Ralarala, Suren Pillay, Zannie Bock, Russell H. Kaschula, 2025-02-28 Unlocking the chains of knowledge Understanding the challenges remaking pedagogies and curriculum renewal addresses the complex yet imperative task of reshaping the colonial legacy embedded within South African higher education and beyond The book confronts the historical and ideological bindings that have entrenched European centric knowledge within the fabric of academia in Africa propelling a transformative journey within the Arts and Humanities At its core this work presents a tripartite focus firstly understanding the deep seated issues ingrained in the traditional university structure secondly remaking pedagogical practices and lastly renewing the curriculum Recognising the historical dominance of Eurocentric ideas the book explores various movements theories and practices from negritude to postcolonial theory aiming to emancipate and amplify the voices and knowledge of those historically excluded With a commitment to a pluralistic approach the book scrutinises the power dynamics of language the importance of diverse perspectives and the challenging task of inclusion without replicating the divisive structures of the past Prof Christine Winberg Research Chair in Work integrated Learning Cape Peninsula University of Technology In Unlocking the chains of knowledge Understanding the challenges remaking pedagogies and curriculum renewal the editors provide a decisive and detailed reflection and profound understanding of complexities of knowledge generation in Southern Africa Unlike many volumes that address these intricate complexities this volume not only navigates the intricate complexities of the long history of epistemic injustices and intolerance in the Southern African higher education environment but delves deeper into the core of what is required for curriculum transformation and renewal The groundbreaking volume addresses the urgent need for linguistic inclusivity consciousness about decoloniality as well as embedding social justice in South African and Zimbabwean education and by doing so presents strategies that can be used by the rest of the African continent in addressing the scourge of coloniality Prof Pamela Maseko Executive Dean Faculty of Humanities Nelson Mandela University

Uprooting University Apartheid in South Africa Teresa A. Barnes, 2018-12-07 South Africa continues to be an object of fascination for people everywhere interested in social justice issues postcolonial studies and critical race theory as manifested by the enormous worldwide attention given to the RhodesMustFall movement In this book Teresa Barnes examines universities complex positioning in the apartheid era and argues that tracing the institutional legacies left by pro apartheid intellectuals are crucial to understanding the fight to transform South African higher education A work of interpretive social history this book investigates three historical dynamics in the relationship between the apartheid system and South African higher education First it explores how the legitimacy of apartheid was historically reproduced in public higher education Second it looks at ways that academics maneuvered through and influenced national and international discourses of political freedom and legitimacy Third it explores how and where stubborn tendrils of apartheid era knowledge production practices survived into and have been combatted during the democratic era in South African universities

Insights into Policies and Practices on the Right to Development Carol Chi Ngang, Serges Djoyou Kamga, 2020-10-06 As the world continues to grapple with a range of practical development challenges that are directly linked to livelihood concerns about human well being and declining living standards often overlooked is the human right to development which remains largely unfulfilled In the face of successive global initiatives seeking to remedy these challenges it has become urgent to ask what the universal recognition of the right to development implies if it cannot be translated into improved well being for impoverished peoples around the world The contributors in this timely volume argue that setbacks to development are deeply rooted in the failure to implement the right to development which by nature guarantees equality of opportunities and equitable redistribution of the resources that contribute to better living standards Assessing policy and practical measures or the lack thereof they offer practical suggestions for implementation that will make the right to development a reality for everyone

Science, Technology and Innovation Policies for Inclusive Growth in Africa Reuben A. Alabi, Achim Gutowski, Nazar Mohamed Hassan, Tobias Knedlik, Samia Satti Osman Mohamed Nour, Karl Wohlmuth, 2018 The volume analyses how to make Science Technology and Innovation STI Policies relevant for inclusive growth strategies in Africa The base for a transformative STI policy is to link the STI policies to Africa s economic transformation policies In a first part the general issues of introducing effective STI policies are presented In a second part country case studies highlight the new approach Cases such as Sudan and Nigeria are analysed as these two countries have a long history of STI development because of different history size and

structure they need to move in different directions towards a coherent STI policy for inclusive growth

Who Is an African? Roderick R. Hewitt, Chammah J. Kaunda, 2018-09-15 The subject of race and identity is a burning issue which continues to occupy the attention not only of South Africans but also the wider residents of the continent of Africa and those who are Africans in the Diaspora The outburst of xenophobic attacks against foreigners mostly of Black African origins in some communities of Kwa Zulu Natal and areas of Johannesburg during 2008 and 2015 has raised questions about the social cohesion of South African society linked to unresolved structural identity issues bequeathed by the nation's past colonial and apartheid legacy This publication argues that there is an embedded schizophrenic identity crisis within the society that requires scholarly interrogation The chapters assemble scholarly voices from different ethnic groups that examine the central research question of this study Who is an African Within the wider Southern African context identity and ethnicity politics are framing nationalist economic policies and are impacting on social cohesion within many countries Writing from different social and racial locations the authors have critically engaged with the central question and offer some important insights that can serve as a resource for all nations grappling with issues of race ethnicity identity constructed politics and social cohesion
