University Of Pretoria S Prospectus 2016:

From #RhodesMustFall Movements to #HumansMustFall Movements Artwell Nhemachena, Jairo Kangira, 2021-05-14 Might it be possible that the world is being migrated into an era where the imperial periphery will be increasingly governed through Artificial Intelligence AI and robotics designed to replace human beings Celebrated as efficient strong unfailing tireless precise and beyond corruption AI and robots are set to replace African leaders who are imperially deemed to be and consistently condemned as corrupt failed weak and inefficient But if these AI and robots are neo imperial tools and machinations the million dollar question is whether empire is not returning to recolonise the supposedly inefficient Africans via the new technologies and machinism Where Africans once celebrated their liberation war movements empire has emplaced what it calls liberation technologies designed to supposedly liberate African youths from their own states and governments led by liberation movements Where Africans once celebrated their liberation war movements empire has placed its own NGOs CSOs spewing liberal ideologies designed to ostensibly liberate African youths from their own supposedly failed and corrupt states and government leaders With African youths citizens allying not with their liberation movements but with the liberation technologies and liberal NGOs CSOs it is not surprising why African citizens oppose their states led Fast Track Land Redistribution Programmes while ironically they happily celebrate Fast Tracked COVID 19 Vaccines Positing the notion of HumansMustFall movements this book underscores ways in which empire is in a process of eternal return to 21st century Africa The book is crucial for scholars and activists in political science government studies sociology anthropology cultural studies history languages and communication studies security studies military studies and development studies Recalibrating teacher training in African higher education institutions Sifiso Sibanda, Gideon (Deon) P. van Tonder, Washington T. Dudu, 2023-03-01 This book critically examines the role of governments in promoting parity during and in post pandemic education This comes from the realisation that the pandemic has deepened the crisis by depleting the meagre resources that African countries might have devoted to normative educational practices where those on the margins would have been pushed further behind while the privileged would have been further initiated into the cultural and capital flows of private schools and historically research intensive institutions of higher learning This has far reaching implications for the education of underprivileged citizens and education particularly modes and modalities of delivery has to be reimagined to subvert the challenges wrought by the pandemic This book significantly bridges the gap between the pre and post COVID 19 pandemic pedagogical practices and the erstwhile modalities that have been resilient over time The book focuses on ways to stave off pedagogical challenges that face countries as the global pandemic makes its mark Uprooting University Apartheid in South Africa Teresa A. Barnes, 2018-12-07 South Africa continues to be an object of fascination for people everywhere interested in social justice issues postcolonial studies and critical race theory as manifested by the enormous worldwide attention given to the RhodesMustFall movement In this book Teresa Barnes examines universities complex positioning in the apartheid era and argues that tracing the institutional legacies left by pro apartheid intellectuals are crucial to understanding the fight to transform South African higher education A work of interpretive social history this book investigates three historical dynamics in the relationship between the apartheid system and South African higher education First it explores how the legitimacy of apartheid was historically reproduced in public higher education Second it looks at ways that academics maneuvered through and influenced national and international discourses of political freedom and legitimacy Third it explores how and where stubborn tendrils of apartheid era knowledge production practices survived into and have been combatted during the democratic era in South African universities

Integrating Predation Risk Across Scales: From Neurons to Ecosystems and Milliseconds to Generations Jacqueline Jeannette Blundell, Evan

Preisser, 2020-06-04 Innovating Counseling for Self- and Career Construction Jacobus Gideon (Kobus)

Maree, 2020-06-29 This book sets out to provide context for innovating counseling for self and career construction It gives readers insight into the theory underlying an innovative integrative qualitative quantitative approach to career counseling Three key ideas recur throughout the book First the idea of not dispensing advice to people instead enabling them to advise themselves Second the idea of listening for instead of to people s stories to help them choose and construct careers and themselves and shape their career identities Third the idea of helping people connect what they know about themselves consciously with what they are aware of subconsciously The book confronts some of the main challenges posed by Work 4 0 on the workplace but also foreshadows the imminent advent of Work 5 0 It endeavors to promote career counselors ability to help people thrive at a time when many speculate that work itself is at risk occupational contexts no longer hold workers in the way they used to and the coronavirus pandemic is disrupting the workplace

Organise or Die? Raphaël Botiveau, 2017-12-01 The story of one of the leading trade unions in South Africa the National Union of Mineworkers and its role in the struggle against white minority rule Organise or Die Democracy and Leadership in South Africa s National Union of Mineworkers NUM is the first in depth study of one of the leading trade unions in the country Founded in 1982 the trade union played a key role in the struggle against white minority rule before turning into a central protagonist of the ruling Tripartite Alliance after apartheid Deftly navigating through workerist social movement and political terrains that shape the South African labour landscape this book sheds light on the path that led to the unprecedented 2012 Marikana massacre the dissolution of the Congress of South African Trade Unions Cosatu federation and to fractures within the African National Congress ANC itself Working with the notions of organisational agency and strategic bureaucratisation Rapha l Botiveau shows how the founding leadership of NUM built their union s structures with a view to mirror those of the multinational mining companies NUM faced Good leadership proved key to the union s success in recruiting and uniting mineworkers and NUM became an impressive school for union and political cadres producing a number of South Africa s top post apartheid leaders An incisive analysis of leadership styles and strategies shows how the fragile balance between an increasingly distant leadership and an increasingly militant membership gradually broke down Botiveau provides a compelling narrative of NUM's powerful history and the legacy of its leadership It will appeal to a broad readership including journalists students and social sciences scholars interested in South Africa's contemporary politics and labour history

Resilience in a VUCA world Annette Potgieter, 2023-03-01 This book sheds light on how humans deal with adversity especially in uncertain and turbulent times as seen during the COVID 19 pandemic Resilience theory has become popular in scholarly discourse and the term is difficult to define as so many opinions exist This book aims to engage critically with resilience theory as a scholarly debate from the unique vantage point of the world of social work as well as theology This specific aspect of originality contributes to the generation of new knowledge in the broad field of social sciences and humanities The inception of the book stems from an interdisciplinary conference held at Hugenote Kollege Wellington where scholars from social work as well as theology engaged in a discourse on resilience Professor Adrian van Breda a specialist in resilience theory and from the social work department of the University of Johannesburg was one of the keynote speakers inspiring scholars to understand what is meant by resilience Professor Yolanda Dreyer from the University of Pretoria and a seasoned theologian and prolific writer on trauma and resilience was also a keynote speaker providing insights from a theological perspective The collaboration between these two fields of thought is unique and rendered new insights into engaging with resilience Different methodologies and perspectives from researchers are prevalent as contributors are from different scholarly fields The book ranges from linguistic liturgical philosophical practical autoethnographical anthropological sociological and online methodological approaches contributing to ways to deal with traumatic turbulent and trying times The book is divided into four main themes that stood out from the results obtained at the conference namely 1 religious imagination and resilience 2 communities and resilience 3 online teaching and resilience and 4 the resilience of philosophical questions Truth, 1883 Identity Construction and Tourism Consumption Erdal Arslan, İnci Oya Coşkun, 2022-10-26 This book explores how identity plays a pivotal role in tourism consumption. Almost all tourism related consumption studies underestimate or refer inadequately to identity's relationship with tourism consumption. As identity phenomenon is considerably a new subject in the tourism literature, this book examines its relationship with the consumption theory. It is of interest to readers curious about how pre during and post consumption activities affect a person's identity and vice versa. This book contains an analysis of consumption theories and a summary of literature identifying the phenomenon's evolution through pre modern, modern and post modern periods. In this context, this book aims to enlighten the interactions between identity construction and tourism consumption. The grounded theory, one of the qualitative research approaches, was applied to accomplish the relevant purpose and in depth interviews were recruited following the method approach stages to enable the researchers to gain new insights into the subject. By presenting the identity tended tourism consumption model, this book provides a set of profound contributions to the relevant literature and insight for practitioners, decision makers and entrepreneurs. This book attempts to clarify the tourists' consumption process and understand how the interactions between identity construction and tourism consumption work. The qualitative methodology, grounded theory, allows in depth analysis and insights of the participants of the study on their definitions of themselves as human beings and as tourists, decisions on their travel plans, their considerations, motivations to travel and destination preferences, interactions with others, vacation activities, evaluations on their travel experiences et cetera. Therefore, this book appeals to readers of marketing, business operations, sociology and economics.
