Religion and AIDS Treatment in Africa Hansjörg Dilger, Thera Rasing, 2016-04-08 This book critically interrogates emerging interconnections between religion and biomedicine in Africa in the era of antiretroviral treatment for AIDS Highlighting the complex relationships between religious ideologies practices and organizations on the one hand and biomedical treatment programmes and the scientific languages and public health institutions that sustain them on the other this anthology charts largely uncovered terrain in the social science study of the Aids epidemic Spanning different regions of Africa the authors offer unique access to issues at the interface of religion and medical humanitarianism and the manifold therapeutic traditions religious practices and moralities as they co evolve in situations of AIDS treatment This book also sheds new light on how religious spaces are formed in response to the dilemmas people face with the introduction of life prolonging treatment programmes

Turfloop a Conscious Pariah Chris Kanyane Kanyane, 2010-01-06 This book provides reflections on the butterfly effect on how Turfloop brought in the Age of Barack Obama What is the Age of Barack Obama To paraphrase Dr Ineke Van Kessel a prominent historian at the Leiden University in the Netherlands The University of the North also known as Turfloop played a vital role as the center of communication coordination ideological direction the engine of bringing the new South Africa was University of the North We approached this book like detectives Fortunately in our detective work we were not concerned with a particular agenda we were not trying to prove that a certain method of thinking was right or wrong We didnt want this book to be filled with personal opinions and biases We wanted this book to be juice and accessible to every person who reads it in whatever corner of the world We have to back up our story with facts of course and get other people to do practical analysis and later we added our own perspectives When we completed writing this book we passed it around amongst critical people spread across the globe Most of them said that the book is somehow highbrow and at the same time all together lowbrow which came as a compliment A lot of people are somewhere in between We want this book to embody that because there are many people there we want them to appreciate this book

The Road to Democracy in South Africa: 1970-1980 South African Democracy Education Trust, 2004 v 3 The third volume in the series examines the role of anti apartheid movements around the world The global anti apartheid movement was very successful in creating awareness of the liberation struggle in South Africa and in contributing to the downfall of the apartheid government This volume in 2 parts brings together analyses which in the main are written by activist scholars with deep roots in the movements and organizations they are writing about

A People on the Boil Harry Mashabela, 2006 Twenty years after it was first published this edition is being reissued to coincide with the 30th anniversary of the political uprising in South Africa and the ongoing struggle for better education An updated account by a black newspaper journalist it reflects on the tumultuous events of 1976 that became a watershed in South African politics and helped to change the course of the country s history This examination looks both at the background of the uprising and its effects on the people of South Africa Minor Universality / Universalité mineure Markus Messling, Jonas Tinius, 2023-08-21 The circulation and entanglements of human beings data and goods have not necessarily and by themselves generated a universalising consciousness The global and the universal in other words are not the same The idea of a world society remains highly contested Our times are marked by the fragmentation of a double relativistic character the inevitable critique of Western universalism on the one hand and resurgent identitarian and neo nationalistic claims to identity on the other Sources of an argumentation for a strong universalism brought forward by Western traditions such as Christianity Marxism and Liberalism have largely lost their legitimation All the while manifold and situated narratives of a common world that re address the universal are under way of being produced and gain significance This volume tracks the development and relevance of such cultural and social practices that posit forms of what we call minor universality It asks Where and how do contemporary practices open up concrete settings so as to create experiences reflections and agencies of a shared humanity With contributions by Isaac Bazi Anil Bhatti Jean Luc Chappey Elsie Cohen Leyla Dakhli Souleymane Bachir Diagne Nicole Fischer Albert Gouaffo Stefan Helgesson Fatma Hotait Christopher M Hutton Ananya Jahanara Kabir Mario Laarmann Rukmini Bhaya Nair Olivier Remaud Gis le Sapiro B n dicte Savoy Maria Anna Schiffrers Laurens Schlicht Sergio Ugalde Quintana H l ne Thierard Khadija von Zinnenburg Carroll Sub-Saharan Africa Report ,1983 Parcel of Death Gaongalelwe Tiro, 2019-08-01 Parcel of Death recounts the little told life story of Onkgopotse Abram Tiro the first South African freedom fighter the apartheid regime pursued beyond the country s borders to assassinate with a parcel bomb On 29 April 1972 Tiro made one of the most consequential revolutionary addresses in South African history Dubbed the Turfloop Testimony Tiro s anti apartheid speech saw him and many of his fellow student activists expelled igniting a series of strikes in tertiary institutions across the country By the time he went into exile in Botswana Tiro was president of the Southern African Student Movement SASM permanent organiser of the South African Student Organisation SASO and a leading Black Consciousness proponent hailed by many as the godfather of the June 1976 uprisings Parcel of Death uses extensive and exclusive interviews to highlight significant influences and periods in Tiro s life including the lessons learned from his rural upbringing in Dinokana Zeerust the time he spent working on a manganese mine his role as a teacher and the impact of his faith in shaping his outlook It is a compelling portrait of Tiro s story and its lasting significance in South Africa s history Colours of Wildlife Willem van der Merwe, 2019-01-07 The world is full of amazing creatures that swim climb run and fly Perusing this lavishly illustrated book one gets the feeling that the artist knows them all personally There are huge animals like the elephant and savannah buffalo There are tiny ones like the owlet tree frog and four toed elephant shrew And of course there are the mischievous meerkats Some are magnificent others endearing The art is awe inspiring Where photography focuses on the moment painting forces us to look deeper into the nature of these creatures to experience visually the textures of fur and feathers the smoothness of skin Willem s paintings establish connection Colours of Wildlife isn t all about the paintings The artist supplies background knowledge about each species and their relations with humans We learn which species are safe for now and which are endangered Willem lives near many of these animals and he has real stories to tell about them

Bury Me at the Marketplace N. Chabani Manganyi, David Attwell, 2009-11-01 When Chabani Manganyi published the first edition of selected letters twenty five years ago as a companion volume to Exiles and Homecomings A Biography of Esia Mphahlele the idea of Mphahlele's death was remote and poetic The title Bury Me at the Marketplace suggested that immortality of a kind awaited Mphahlele in the very coming and going of those who remember him and whose lives he touched It suggested too the energy and magnanimity of Mphahlele the man whose personality and intellect as a writer and educator would carve an indelible place for him in South Africa's public sphere That death has now come and we mourn it Manganyi's words at the time have acquired a new significance in the symbolic marketplace he noted the drama of life continues relentlessly and the silence of death is unmasked for all time The silence of death is certainly unmasked in this volume in its record of Mphahlele's rich and varied life his private words his passions and obsessions his arguments his loves hopes achievements and yes even some of his failures Here the reader will find many facets of the private man translated back into the marketplace of public memory Despite the personal nature of the letters the further horizons of this volume are the contours of South Africa's literary and cultural history the international affiliations out of which it has been formed particularly in the diaspora that connects South Africa to the rest of the African continent and to the black presence in Europe and the United States This selection of Mphahlele's own letters has been greatly expanded it has also been augmented by the addition of letters from Mphahlele's correspondents among them such luminaries as Langston Hughes and Nadine Gordimer It seeks to illustrate the networks that shaped Mphahlele's personal and intellectual life the circuits of intimacy intellectual inquiry of friendship scholarship and solidarity that he created and nurtured over the years The letters cover the period from November 1943 to April 1987 forty four of Mphahlele's mature years and most of his active professional life The correspondence is supplemented by introductory essays from the two editors by two interviews conducted with Mphahlele by Manganyi and by Attwell's insightful explanatory notes Southern African Liberation
