Harding, 2019-09-16 Understand these Four Unknown Facts of Reality and you will never think the same again These Four Facts of Reality will answer every possible question about life Anything the human mind can ask is clearly delineated in these four magnificent and clear cut truths They will explain the seeming paradox of truth the self contradictions the reason we sabotage ourselves the fears we labor under the emotional pains we keep repeating the unrelenting frustrations of coming and going the inability to have faith in our own true nature and most of all why we cannot comprehend simple obvious truths about us For those ready and ripe individuals these four facts are a great blessing They are simplicity itself and make psychology philosophy metaphysics and all spiritual beliefs so clear that peace and faith are a natural result

The Unknown God Deirdre Carabine, 2015-01-26 This book contains a careful thorough and where necessary skeptical as regards doubtful evidence especially in the case of Plato and the Old Academy of the beginnings in European thought of the negative or apophatic way of thinking and its relations to more positive or kataphatic ways of thinking about God One of its greatest strengths perhaps the greatest is that the author makes clear that none of the persons concerned Hellenic Jewish or Christian was engaged in the pursuit of a philosophical abstraction or the heaping of rhetorical superlatives on God They were rather concerned to present the origin of the universe as an intimately present living reality which infinitely transcends our thought and speech This combined with careful attention to the varieties of negative theology and its relations with positive and the particular difficulties experienced by the members of the various traditions involved makes the book the best introduction to the negative theology available A H Armstrong Emeritus Professor of Greek University of Liverpool England Emeritus Professor of Classics Dalhousie University Halifax Nova Scotia Canada Senior Fellow of the British Academy Irish academic Deirdre Carabine has lived and taught in Uganda for more than twenty years She has recently been founder Vice Chancellor at the Virtual University of Uganda VUU the first fully online university in Sub Saharan Africa Prior to that she set up International Health Sciences University in Kampala She has taught at Queen s Belfast University College Dublin and Uganda Martyrs University Currently she is Director of Programmes at VUU She attended the Queen s University of Belfast where she graduated with a PhD in philosophy and University College Dublin where as one of the first Newman Scholars she gained a second PhD in Classics She is also author of John Scottus Eriugena in the Great Medieval Thinkers Series 2000

Anthropomorphism in Christian Theology William C. Hackett, 2023-12-28 William C Hackett provides a renewed reading of Christian theology by evaluating the role of anthropomorphism in shaping negative theology Through this theological history he addresses the fear of anthropomorphism that prompted early philosophers and theologians to adopt abstract understandings of God Hackett charts the wide ranging importance of anthropomorphism to theology through figures including Balthasar Bultmann Dionysius the Areopagite and Cyril of Alexandria He argues that anthropomorphism highlights the unique conceptual problem between divine presence and absence By exploring the turn away from practical and embodied views of God in Scripture this book focuses on anthropomorphic views of God in symbols images and narratives Emphasising these forms promotes an intellectual vision of Christianity that challenges theoretical and conceptual abstraction Anthropomorphism in Christian Theology further traces the nuances between human and angelic intellect modern philosophy and theology negative theology and the concept of transcendence

Liturgy and the Beauty of the Unknown David Torevell, 2017-03-02 Contemporary culture is rediscovering the importance of beauty for both social transformation and personal happiness Theologians have sought in their varied ways to demonstrate how God s beauty is associated with notions of truth and goodness This book breaks new ground by suggesting that liturgy is the means par excellence by which an experience of beauty is communicated Drawing from both secular and religious understandings in particular the mystical and apophatic tradition the book demonstrates how liturgy has the potential to achieve the one ultimately reliable form of beauty because its embodied components are able to reflect the disturbing beauty of the One to whom worship is always offered Such components rely on understanding the aesthetic dynamics upon which liturgy relies This book draws from a broad range of disciplines concerned with understanding beauty and self transformation and concludes that while secular utopian forms have much to contribute to ethical transformation they ultimately fail since they lack the Christological and eschatological framework needed which liturgy alone provides

Developments in Buddhist Thought Roy C. Amore,2010-10-30 Nine Canadian scholars of Buddhism consider philosophical and cultural issues in Buddhist thought Part I On Being discusses the philosophical problem of Being in the school of the Middle Way M dhyamika Buddhism and in the Tantric School of Mah y na Buddhism Part II On the Indian Milieu surveys Hindu views of Buddhism and explores Buddhism s relationship with other Indian religious and philosophical traditions Part III On the Chinese Milieu analyzes developments in Buddhist thought in China The Unknown Hieronymus Bosch Kurt Falk,2008 The paintings of Hieronymus Bosch 1450 1516 have captivated and confounded observers for centuries leading to wildly varying conclusions on the artist's spirituality Kurt Falk presents the first analysis of Bosch's inner life in light of a hitherto unknown and now lost version of one of his seminal works The Last Judgment found by the author in Cairo in the mid 1930s With an introduction by spiritual psychologist Robert Sardello The Unknown Hieronymus Bosch presents an entirely new way of looking at this art not through the framework of art history or the notion of a school of painting but through the spirit Falk's analysis reveals the ways in which Bosch addresses creation including the exalted and fallen spiritual worlds so prevalent in his work The author's conclusions are startling but persuasive that Bosch had strong links to Rosicrucianism that many of the paintings feature a curious onlooker figure we now understand as a spirit witness and that Bosch had in fact developed the capacity to clairvoyantly know the extraordinary worlds he portrays in such exacting detail The book's high quality reproductions carefully rendered in the paintings' true colors offer powerful visual support for the author's theories That Unknown Country Lyman Abbott, 1888 Religious Inquiry Henry Nelson Wieman, 1968

Reading Byron Bernard Beatty, 2022-11-17 Perhaps no great poet in any language has suffered more than Byron from being merely read about rather than actually read As Bernard Beatty remarks in his introduction to this important collection of essays the popular conception of Byron still often approximates to Rupert Everett with a limp Reading Byron is the product and summation of nearly sixty years devoted to studying and teaching his poetry It argues that far from being mad bad and dangerous to know Byron is serious ethically orientated and rewarding to read The book is in three parts Poems Life Politics Five new essays have been written especially for the first and largest section which provides fresh perspectives on Byron's major works The volume continues with three of Beatty's lively lectures on unappreciated aspects of Byron the man and three pithy essays on Byron as a complex if not systematic political thinker While Beatty does not question the pre eminent status of the bright Don Juan devoting a chapter to an unconventional reading of its final cantos he argues powerfully that nineteenth century readers who responded on an unprecedented scale to the forceful poetic structures of the dark Byron in Childe Harold's Pilgrimage The Tales Manfred and Cain were right to do so Introduced by Jerome McGann editor of the great Clarendon edition of the poet's works and concluded in dialogue with Gavin Hopps co editor of the forthcoming Longman edition Reading Byron is itself essential reading for any student or lover of Romantic poetry The Ministry of the Word, Vol. 24, No. 02 Various Authors, 2020-02-01 This issue of The Ministry of the Word contains the six messages from the Thanksgiving weekend conference held in Houston Texas November 28 December 1 2019 The subject of this series of messages is Know ing and Experiencing the All inclusive Extensive Christ The key statements in the following section embody the crucial truths and the main burden of the conference The Announcements section at the end of this issue contains a list of upcoming conferences and trainings hosted by Living Stream Ministry and a website link for information related to similar events in Europe
