In The Poetics of Unremembered Acts Brian McGrath shows that poetry's capacity to address its reader stages an ethical dilemma of continued importance. Situating romantic poems in relation to Enlightenment debate over how to teach reading specifically debate about the role of poetry in the process of learning to read The Poetics of Unremembered Acts develops an alternative understanding of poetry's role in education. McGrath also explores the ways poetry makes ethics possible through its capacity to pass along what we do not remember and cannot know about our reading. End of the Chapter - Book III

- Over the River John Galsworthy, 2014-04-15 The Forsyte Saga is Galsworthy's trilogy about the eponymous family and connected lives. These books as with many of his other works deal with social class upper middle class lives in particular. Although sympathetic to his characters he highlights their insular snobbish and acquisitive attitudes and their suffocating moral codes. He is viewed as one of the first writers of the Edwardian era who challenged some of the ideals of society depicted in the preceding literature of Victorian England. The depiction of a woman in an unhappy marriage furnishes another recurring theme in his work. Save the Cat! Writes a Novel Jessica Brody, 2018-10-09 The first novel writing guide from the best selling Save the Cat story structure series which reveals the 15 essential plot points needed to make any novel a success. Novelist Jessica Brody presents a comprehensive story structure guide for novelists that applies the famed Save the Cat screenwriting methodology to the world of novel writing. Pantaleo, 1999-11 Grade level 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 k p e i t Slavery by Another Name Douglas A. Blackmon, 2012-10-04 A Pulitzer Prize winning history of the mistreatment of black Americans. In this precise and eloquent work as described in its Pulitzer Prize citation Douglas A. Blackmon brings to light one of the most shameful chapters in American history an Age of Neoslavery that thrived in the aftermath of the Civil War through the dawn of World War II. Using a vast record of original documents and personal narratives Blackmon unearths the lost stories of slaves and their descendants who journeyed into freedom after the Emancipation Proclamation and then back into the shadow of involuntary servitude thereafter. By turns moving sobering and shocking this unprecedented account reveals these stories the companies that profited the most from neoslavery and the insidious legacy of racism that reverberates today. The Annual of Psychoanalysis, V. 25 Jerome A. Winer, 2021-02-25 Volume 25 of The Annual is dedicated to the memory of Michael Franz Basch who achieved distinction as both a psychoanalytic theorist of the first rank and an authority on the nature and conduct of dynamic psychotherapy. A wide range of original contributions bear witness to his theoretical clinical and educational interests. A number of papers remind us of Basch's prominence as a self psychological theorist. Elson's self psychological reappraisal of self pity dependence and manipulation as self states Ornstein's developmental perspective on power self esteem and destructive aggression Tolpin's review of sexuality from the standpoint of normal self development and Wolf's discussion of self psychology and the aging self. Basch's life long educational concerns gain expression in Goldberg's discussion of clinical teaching particularly the challenge of leading of case conferences and Ornstein's and Kay's thoughtful consideration of enduring difficulties in American medical education. Additional highlights of the volume include Fawcett's consideration of the role of pharmacotherapy in psychodynamic treatment, Jaffe's consideration of the applicability of hierarchical models to assessment and intervention in brief psychotherapy, Galatzer-Levy's review of the witch metapsychology, Gedo's analysis of mythic themes in the operas Don Giovanni and Der Rosenkavalier, Modell's reflections on metaphor and affects and Kernberg's discussion of a new psychoanalytic mainstream which he compares and contrasts with a parallel convergence of Kohutian and interpersonal analytic approaches. Many of these contributions incorporate reflections on Basch as a teacher and colleague and the entire volume is framed by Goldberg's moving tribute. Analysts and psychotherapists sharing Basch's commitment to academic and clinical excellence and his keen awareness of the pragmatic requirements of doing effective therapy will find in Volume 25 a cornucopia of riches.
