Campus Student Activism, Politics, and Citizenship in the 21st Century Tshishonga, Ndzhakhulu, 2025-04-03 Student activism and citizenship remain an integral part of the governance of academic institutions, democratizing the learning environment and advancing democratic values and societal change. As a result, student activism has become a key aspect of the global higher education landscape. Individually and through the student councils, students have been at the forefront fighting for social justice and equality inside their academic institutions and in larger society by fusing activism with citizenship. Through student activism and citizenship, students demonstrate their power to keep governments responsible and in redirecting the voices of students in higher education's decision-making processes. Further exploration may afford students the opportunity to influence social change by partaking in educational policy reforms and broadening global sociopolitical and economic growth. Campus Student Activism, Politics and Citizenship in the 21st Century examines the dynamics of campus politics through student activism and citizenship perspectives, academia, public, private and civil society sectors. It explores how student leadership engages university society stakeholders including management and governance structures and student welfare and institutional policy reformation in defense of the rights and interests of students. This book covers topics such as higher education, political engagement and social justice and is a useful resource for policymakers, government officials, sociologists, political scientists, academicians and researchers.

Practices and Perspectives of Teaching and Teacher Education in Africa Boadu, Gideon, Odhiambo, George, Marandi, Pegah, 2023-09-25 Teacher education is a known variable that impacts the quality of teaching and schooling, yet while research on practices in teaching and teacher education abound in other contexts, there seems to be no comprehensive reference work on teaching and teacher education in Africa. With Africa and the diaspora boasting rich, diverse political and educational contexts and practices, this gap in knowledge requires that attention be focused on investigating issues that shape the pace, course and direction of teaching and teacher education in these contexts. Practices and Perspectives of Teaching and Teacher Education in Africa facilitates scholarly discussions among scholars and practitioners about practices, innovations and future possibilities for educating the next generation of competent students and teachers in Africa. Covering topics such as educational reforms, equity, career progression and curriculum development, this major reference work is ideal for administrators, industry professionals, researchers, academicians, scholars, practitioners, instructors and students.

Parcel of Death Gaongalelwe Tiro, 2019-08-01 Parcel of Death recounts the little-told life story of Onkgopotse Abram Tiro, the first South African freedom fighter the apartheid regime pursued beyond the country's borders to assassinate with a parcel bomb. On 29 April 1972, Tiro made one of the most consequential revolutionary addresses in South African history Dubbed the Turfloop Testimony Tiro's anti apartheid speech saw him and many of his fellow student activists expelled igniting a series of strikes in tertiary institutions across the country By the time he went into exile in Botswana Tiro was president of the Southern African Student Movement SASM permanent organiser of the South African Student Organisation SASO and a leading Black Consciousness proponent hailed by many as the godfather of the June 1976 uprisings Parcel of Death uses extensive and exclusive interviews to highlight significant influences and periods in Tiro's life including the lessons learned from his rural upbringing in Dinokana Zeerust the time he spent working on a manganese mine his role as a teacher and the impact of his faith in shaping his outlook It is a compelling portrait of Tiro's story and its lasting significance in South Africa's history
