legacy found in the Church of St Anne Hispanic Network Magazine ,2003 Documentality Jacqueline Arthur-Montagne, Scott Jared DiGiulio, Inger Neeltje Irene Kuin, 2022-10-24 This volume unites scholars of classical epigraphy papyrology and literature to analyze the documentary habit in the Roman Empire Texts like inscriptions and letters have gained importance in classical scholarship but there has been limited analysis of the imaginative and sociological dimensions of the ancient document Individual chapters investigate the definition of the document in ancient thought and how modern understandings of documentation may mis shape scholarly approaches to documentary sources in antiquity Contributors reexamine familiar categories of ancient documents through the lenses of perception and function and reveal where the modern understanding of the document departs from ancient conceptions of documentation The boundary between literary genres and documentary genres of writing appears more fluid than prior scholarship had allowed Compared to modern audiences inhabitants of the Roman Empire used a more diverse range of both non textual and textual forms of documentation and they did so with a more active questioning attitude The interdisciplinary approach to the mentality of documentation in this volume advances beyond standard discussions of form genre and style to revisit the document through the eyes of Greco Roman readers and viewers Building Dynamic Faith Jerry Falwell, 2007-07-01 Though perhaps better known for political activism through his creation of the Moral Majority the late Dr Jerry Falwell s personal activities confirmed his passion for being a pastor and a Christian educator Out of this desire to teach and lead he wrote Building Dynamic Faith so that readers would know God better and see their lives radically changed for Him Divided into 31 chapters Building Dynamic Faith is perfect for a month of daily readings but it is more than simply a devotional Readers will progress from a simple understanding of faith to practicing the skills needed to exercise their faith and finally to experiencing the blessing of God through answered prayer A Lucky Child Thomas Buergenthal, 2010-10-01 Thomas Buergenthal is unique Liberated from the death camps of Auschwitz at the age of eleven in adulthood he became a judge at the International Court in The Hague In his honest and heartfelt memoirs he tells the story of his extraordinary journey from the horrors of Nazism to an investigation of modern day genocide Aged ten Thomas Buergenthal arrived at Auschwitz after surviving the Ghetto of Kielce and two labour camps and was soon separated from his parents Using his wits and some remarkable strokes of luck he managed to survive until he was liberated from Sachsenhausen in 1945 After experiencing the turmoil of Europe s post war years from the Battle of Berlin to a Jewish orphanage in Poland Buergenthal went to America in the 1950s at the age of seventeen He eventually became one of the world s leading experts on international law and human rights His story of survival and his determination to use law and justice to prevent further genocide is an epic and inspirational journey through twentieth century history His book is both a special historical document and a great literary achievement comparable only to Primo Levi s masterpieces Half Past Ten in the Afternoon James Budd, Paul Auchterlonie, 2014-05-31 Much of this book is a record of the time the author spent between 1965 and 1970 as an English teacher in Aneiza a provincial town in central

Saudi Arabia In an entertaining series of anecdotes he describes the daily life and customs of its people his relations with colleagues and students at the local secondary school and the events leading up to his removal from the town he had come to regard as home his transfer to Riyadh and final departure from the country In the 1960s Aneiza was still living partly in the age of Charles Doughty the 19th century explorer who stayed there for some weeks in the 1870s and architecturally the town had changed little over the intervening decades On the other hand its mid 20th century inhabitants were very much aware of what was happening in the wider world and felt deeply involved with events in the region This involvement is reflected in a chapter on inter Arab politics the Six Day War of June 1967 and its causes and aftermath The author s story does not end in 1970 In Journey to Makkah he writes of his transition from agnosticism to Islam and gives us an account of his pilgrimage to Makkah in 1996 in the company of one of his old students from Aneiza Finally in Aneiza Revisited he describes the town in its 21st century incarnation during his return visit in 2011 Despite Aneiza s material transformation however with its concrete and glass buildings and fast food outlets he found that despite looking very different it had still managed to retain its intimate social character and essential congeniality

The Bilingual Mind Aneta Pavlenko,2014-02-06 If languages influence the way we think do bilinguals think differently in their respective languages And if languages do not affect thought why do bilinguals often perceive such influence For many years these questions remained unanswered because the research on language and thought had focused solely on the monolingual mind Bilinguals were either excluded from this research as unusual or messy subjects or treated as representative speakers of their first languages Only recently did bi and multilinguals become research participants in their own right Pavlenko considers the socio political circumstances that led to the monolingual status quo and shows how the invisibility of bilingual participants compromised the validity and reliability of findings in the study of language and cognition She then shifts attention to the bilingual turn in the field and examines its contributions to the understanding of the human mind
