The Cities on the Hill Thomas K. Ogorzalek, 2018-05-02

Over the second half of the 20th century American politics was reorganized around race as the tenuous New Deal coalition frayed and eventually collapsed What drove this change In The Cities on the Hill Thomas Ogorzalek argues that the answer lies not in the sectional divide between North and South but in the differences between how cities and rural areas govern themselves and pursue their interests on the national stage Using a wide range of evidence from Congress and an original dataset measuring the urbanicity of districts over time he shows how the trajectory of partisan politics in America today was set in the very beginning of the New Deal Both rural and urban America were riven with local racial conflict but beginning in the 1930s city leaders became increasingly unified in national politics and supportive of civil rights changes that sowed the seeds of modern liberalism As Ogorzalek powerfully demonstrates the red and blue shades of contemporary political geography derive more from rural and urban perspectives than clean state or regional lines but local institutions can help bridges the divides that keep Americans apart

Other chapters reveal the often unacknowledged yet necessary work parents do to meet their children's needs and enable schools to operate. A few chapters focus on challenges and paradoxes of including families and community members in policymaking processes including a case where parents demonstrated a preference for a policy that research demonstrates can be detrimental to their children's future education opportunities. Another set of chapters emphasizes the centrality of policy texts and how language influences the educational experiences and engagement of students and their families. Each chapter concludes with a discussion of implications of the research for educators, families, and other community partners.

Cardiology Board Review Ramdas G. Pai, Padmini Varadarajan, 2023-03-10 Multiple choice question and answer book for cardiologists at all levels now updated to include 100 new questions covering additional topics. Cardiology Board Review Second Edition is a multiple choice question and answer study aid that is written for the primary purpose of helping candidates prepare for the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) subspecialty certification. The questions address all areas of cardiology, some of which include physical examination, ECG, section with high resolution images, non-invasive and invasive imaging, myocardial diseases, and more. Each of the 1,400 questions is followed by four answers to choose from, and the discussions address not only the rationale behind picking the right choice but also fill in information around the topic so that important key concepts are clearly laid out. This helps candidates to prepare for the test while also developing a clear understanding of various aspects of cardiology including diagnosis and management. Written by two highly experienced authors in the field of healthcare, Cardiology Board Review Second Edition covers topics such as History and physical examinations, electrocardiography, chest x-rays in cardiology, stress testing, and risk stratification of asymptomatic subjects, and echocardiography. Cardiac magnetic resonance imaging, cardiac computed tomography, cardiac catheterization, acute coronary syndromes, and chronic coronary artery disease, Heart failure, transplant, left ventricular assist devices, pulmonary hypertension, cardiomyopathies, hypertension, and diabetes mellitus, Lipids, valvular heart disease, adult congenital heart disease, pericardial diseases, aortic diseases, and cardiac arrhythmias, Pacemakers and defibrillators, cardiac masses, systemic disorders affecting the heart, and heart disease and pregnancy. Providing comprehensive coverage of all relevant subjects and offering the easy-to-understand why behind the answer to each question, this second edition of Cardiology Board Review is an essential study resource for fellows in training, practicing cardiologists, and those preparing for ABIM subspecialty board in cardiology.
