Fierce Aly Raisman, 2017-11-14 Discover Aly Raisman's inspiring story of dedication, perseverance, and learning to think positively even in the toughest times on her path to gold medal success in two Olympic Games and beyond. Aly Raisman first stepped onto a gymnastics mat as a toddler in a mommy-me gymnastics class. No one could have predicted then that sixteen years later she'd be standing on an Olympic podium having achieved her dreams. Aly's road to success was full of hard work, perseverance, and victories but not without its hardships. Aly faced many obstacles from naysayers who said she'd never make it in gymnastics to classmates who shamed her for her athletic body to a devastating betrayal of trust. Through it all, Aly surrounded herself with supportive family, friends, and teammates and found the inner strength to remain positive and believe in herself. Now, in her own words, Aly shows what it takes to be a champion on and off the floor and takes readers on a behind-the-scenes journey before, during, and after her remarkable achievements in two Olympic Games through her highest highs, lowest lows, and all the moments in between. Honest and heartfelt, frank and funny, Aly's story is enhanced with never-before-published photos, excerpts from the personal journals she's kept since childhood that chronicle memorable moments with her teammates, and hard-won advice for readers striving to rise above challenges, learn to love themselves, and make their own dreams come true.

Water Polo the Y's Way Chuck Hines, 2008-12-17 CHUCK HINES enjoyed a 40-year career with the YMCA during which he was a strong advocate of the Olympic sport of water polo. He was a three-time All America player and he coached teams at three YMCAs that won national championships. His teams all started out at the beginning level in small pools and with insufficient equipment and fought their way to the top. This book is the story of those teams and their rags to riches achievements. The author has written two instructional texts on water polo and has served as chairman of national committees for the Amateur Athletic Union, American Swimming Coaches Association, and YMCA of the USA. He was an officer of the U.S. Olympic Water Polo Committee for the Games of 1972, which found the American men bringing home the bronze medal. His YMCA girls team won the gold medal at the Junior Olympics and competed at the World Women's Water Polo Club Championships in 1977. In recent years, he has been a historian for the sport, writing numerous articles for the YMCAs national magazine and the Water Polo Planet web site. Now retired and a member of the Western North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame, Mr. Hines and his wife Lee and family members reside in Asheville, North Carolina. Forever Eagles Jim Crowgey, 2011-05-13 In 1958, a dark cloud passed over Stony Ford, Virginia, and it just wouldn't leave. First, the big furniture factory closed down, putting most of the townsfolk out of work. Then, after a tragic car wreck, the Stony Ford High School Eagles wrestling team disbanded. The county, in its naiveté, cast more gloom on the town when it shut down the high school. What else could possibly go wrong? The people of Stony Ford have everything to lose, which is why they band together to save their sleepy town from folding up shop. With the lack of jobs and lack of money, it is time to be neighborly. With the remnant of death and lost youth floating over the rolling hills, it's time to share compassion and hope. But is it possible to bring spirit back
