Imprisoned by Fear Kathy Lange, 2020-07-20 Byron Smith moved back to his family home in Little Falls Minnesota to care for his elderly mother and enjoy a quiet retirement from the US State Department On Thanksgiving Day 2012 Byron shot and killed two teens who broke into his home by breaking a bedroom window It was the sixth burglary in less than six months Previous burglaries included over fifty thousand dollars in gold cash jewelry and his Vietnam medals He feared for his life as each burglary became more violent and the fear that he would be killed by his own guns intensified With his training in security he installed cameras and recorders and locked and dead bolted every door and window to his home to prevent entry Prescription drug bottles were found in the teen's car from another home they had broken into the night before Byron was convicted of first degree murder in April of 2014 after an unusual trial and sentenced to life in prison Before the trial he lived with his neighbors John and Kathy Lange and their fifteen year old son Dylan This story is an intimate insight into this family's friendship and support of Byron while this incident became national news A Dateline episode 12 Minutes on Elm Street aired in May of 2014 only depicted a small portion of the real story This book reveals facts that were not allowed in the trial and how the ripple effect of our nation's drug epidemic caused a US veteran to be imprisoned by his own fear
