Portland Heather Arndt Anderson, 2014-11-13 The infant city called The Clearing was a bald patch amid a stuttering wood The Clearing was no booming metropolis no destination for gastrotourists no career changer for ardent chefs just awkward palsied steps toward Victorian gentility In the decades before the remaining trees were scraped from the landscape Portland's wood was still a verdant breadbasket overflowing with huckleberries and chanterelles venison leaping on cloven hoof Today Portland is seen as a quaint village populated by trust fund wunderkinds who run food carts each serving something more precious than the last But Portland's culinary history actually tells a different story the tales of the salmon people the pioneers and immigrants each struggling to make this strange but inviting land between the Pacific and the Cascades feel like home The foods that many people associate with Portland are derived from and defined by its history salmon berries hazelnuts and beer But Portland is more than its ingredients Portland is an eater's paradise and a cook's playground Portland is a gustatory wonderland Full of wry humor and captivating anecdotes Portland A Food Biography chronicles the Rose City's rise from a muddy Wild West village full of fur traders lumberjacks and ne'er do wells to a progressive bustling town of merchants brewers and oyster parlors to the critical darling of the national food scene Heather Arndt Anderson brings to life in lively prose the culinary landscape of Portland then and now

Remarkable Oregon Women Jennifer Chambers, 2015-11-30 Without the efforts of inspiring brave women of the past the progressive and individualistic Oregon we know today might not exist From native tribes and Oregon Trail pioneers to Victorian suffragists and unlikely politicians strong female leaders give profound meaning to the state motto alis volat propriis she flies with her own wings Writer and activist Julia Ruuttila fought for the rights of the citizens of Vanport the largely African American town lost to a disastrous flood in 1948 Others broke stereotypes to serve their communities like women who helped build ships during World War II and the nation's first female police officer Portland's own Lola Baldwin Similarly Laura Stockton Starcher unseated her husband as mayor of Umatilla Author Jennifer Chambers tells these and many more stories of progressive radical women who fought for change within their state 1970 Census of Housing, 1971
