Terrorist Rehabilitation and Community Engagement in Malaysia and Southeast Asia Mohd Mizan Aslam, Rohan Gunaratna, 2019-11-04. The contributors to this book analyse the different approaches and modes of terrorist rehabilitation that have been attempted by Malaysia and other countries in Southeast Asia. With an emphasis on the particular contexts within which they operate, this book examines the factors that determine the relative successes and failure of a wide range of community initiatives in integrating terrorists back into society. These initiatives include using methods based on social psychology, religion and entrepreneurship to develop a comprehensive approach to rehabilitating and deradicalizing terrorists in Malaysia as well as Singapore, Indonesia and the Philippines. As such, it makes an important contribution to the global policy debate coloured by the unique characteristics of the South East Asia region. A valuable resource for researchers and policymakers seeking constructive ways to counter violent extremism.

Transformation and Empowerment through Education Raqib Chowdhury, 2018-11-19. Transformation and Empowerment through Education challenges the normalisation of Western discourses as the optimal choice for empowering education. The book aims to reconstruct our relationship with education and employs contemporary theories in order to understand some of the most persistent phenomena in contemporary education and its role in our lives. Written by professionals with experience of a wide range of academic and institutional conventions and traditions and from diverse ethnocultural backgrounds, this book effectively presents a global perspective on educational practices both inside and outside the classroom. The range of topics covered includes equity, access, inclusivity, social justice, leadership and the internationalisation of teaching. This book, based on empirical studies using key methodologies, is ideal for academics and postgraduate researchers interested in critical pedagogy, educational studies and educational linguistics as well as educators and policymakers around the world.
