All of This Music Belongs to the Nation Kenneth J. Bindas, 2016-08-23 Established in 1935 under the aegis of the Works Progress Administration the Federal Music Project FMP was designed to employ musicians who were hard hit by the economic devastation of the Great Depression All of This Music Belongs to the Nation is the first book length study of the FMP and the many paradoxes and conflicts that marked its four year existence As Kenneth J Bindas points out the FMP leadership was more conservative than that of the sister projects in art theater and writing Its stated aim of raising the taste of musicians and citizens alike created a particular problem Although many unemployed musicians came from the sphere of popular music such as jazz and Tin Pan Alley the FMP chose to emphasize cultured music particularly the orchestral works of composers in the European classical tradition Inevitably this created tension within the project as those musicians deemed popular received second class treatment and in the case of racial and ethnic minorities were segregated and stereotyped Despite these troubles Bindas demonstrates the FMP succeeded in bringing music to millions of listeners across the country
