Sports Illustrated Cover 2014:

Sex Segregation in Sports Adrienne N. Milner, Jomills Henry Braddock II, 2016-02-12 Why isn't segregation based on sex illegal in sports just as race segregation is? This book examines the controversial issue arguing that separate but equal is neither achievable nor constitutional. Will the creation of coed teams help mitigate issues of perceived sex discrimination in sports or will equity among male and female athletes come from better enforcement of the separate but equal ideal? This book examines this highly charged issue specifically challenging the effectiveness of Title IX and arguing that it be ousted in favor of sex integration. This is the first book to present both legal and social arguments for the elimination of sex segregation in sports and provide tangible solutions to address this issue. Authors Adrienne N. Milner and Jomills Henry Braddock II lay out the potential benefits of comingling male and female athletes illustrating how this process may translate to greater sex equality in social, economic, and political contexts. In addition, this forward thinking work offers specific recommendations for facilitating the integration of sexes in sports and discusses the importance of changing attitudes and ideology within the sports community and the general public to achieve this goal.

Running Through the Ages, 2d ed. Edward S. Sears, 2015-06-22 Beginning with prehumans running down prey, this book describes how ancient, medieval, and modern runners have come to run ever faster. Writers of antiquity left few detailed accounts of running, but in the early 1800s detailed accounts of running feats and matches appeared in newspapers, journals, and books. Nineteenth-century pioneers like George Seward, Harry Hutchens, Walter George, and Bernie Wefers are here given long-deserved recognition. The six-day Go as You Please races of the 1870s and 1880s featuring running's first great female performer, Amy Howard, are discussed. Twentieth-century luminaries Helen Stephens, Jesse Owens, Paavo Nurmi, Emil Zatopek, Bob Hayes, Abebe Bikila, and Joan Benoit Samuelson are included along with the Union Derby races of 1928 and 1929. New material for this revised and expanded second edition includes coverage of the 1970s running boom women marathon pioneers the impact of drugs on running and the feats of 21st century runners such as Usain Bolt Paula Radcliffe and Haile Gebrselassie
