Holistic Leadership Satinder Dhiman, 2017-01-11 This book suggests that the solution to the current leadership crisis lies in leaders self cultivation process emanating from their deepest values and culminating in their contribution to the common good. Traditional approaches to leadership rarely provide any permeating or systematic framework to garner a sense of higher purpose or nurture deeper moral and spiritual dimensions of leaders. Learning to be an effective leader requires a level of personal transformation on the continuum of self spirit and service. Synthesizing the best of contemporary approaches to leadership in a holistic manner this book presents a unique model of leadership that is built on the sound principles of Self Motivation Personal Mastery Creativity and Flow Emotional Intelligence Optimal Performance Appreciative Inquiry Authentic Leadership Transformational Leadership Positive Psychology Moral Philosophy and Wisdom Traditions of the world. This broad interdisciplinary approach is well suited to effectively address the multifaceted issues faced by contemporary organizations and leaders. It will be of great interest to graduate business and organizational leadership students and faculty as well as corporate leaders.

Creating Enlightened Organizations J. Neal, 2013-12-05 There is a growing movement to incorporate faith and spirituality in the workplace to do things better to utilize all the human capabilities of employees and to truly revolutionize the role of business in the world. Creating Enlightened Organizations is the first book to provide a truly comprehensive approach to creating an organization designed to unleash full human potential in the workplace. Businesses have learned how to involve employees in problem solving improve the emotional intelligence of their leaders reengineer the business processes and create customer delight but they have left out one essential ingredient that makes all the difference the human spirit. There is a hunger for meaning and purpose in our workplaces and in our institutions. This book simplifies and organizes the best of what is going on in organizations at the individual team and systems levels and provides guidance for putting it to practical use. It also offers a radically new view of the purpose of business in society and provides examples of leading edge organizations that make a positive difference in the world Spirituality is the new competitive edge and enlightened organizations know how to integrate the human spirit and spiritual values into their business practices

Servant Leadership, Social Entrepreneurship and the Will to Serve Luk Bouckaert, Steven C. van den Heuvel, 2019-11-28 This book brings together a number of important essays on the intersection of servant leadership and social entrepreneurship examining them through a shared focus on the will to serve This combination bears out the insight that inspiring social and economic leaders are able to transform a conflictual human settlement into a collaborative and caring human community The book seeks to answer the question of whether we can induce from their way of doing things a model of civic entrepreneurship and leadership that can inspire people in profit non profit and public organizations It also examines the extent to which the will to serve is compatible with the will to maximize profit or the will to gain economic political or religious power Furthermore it asks how far different spiritual traditions create different models and examples of servant leadership and social entrepreneurship This book will be of interest to researchers working in the fields of business ethics business spirituality and corporate social responsibility

Spiritually and Developmentally Mature Leadership Daniel E. Harris, Lori Holyfield, Linda Jones, Rhonda Ellis, Judi Neal, 2019-02-21 The book goes beyond theory to offer tools and suggestions for developing emerging leaders Inspired by the pioneering work of leadership scholar Andre Delbecq this book points towards an expanded model of leadership that incorporates an active inner life and posits that such fully human models of leadership will be essential to meet the profound challenges of the 21st Century Without presuming to provide definitive answers the text explores central questions such as What is the added value of spiritual maturity to leadership Would the integration of mature spirituality with well developed intellectual and emotional capacities produce more beneficial leadership outcomes for organizations and individuals What would a spiritually and developmentally mature emerging leader look like in 10 to 20 years How do we prepare emerging leaders for the challenges they may face and how do we model spiritually and developmentally mature leadership in ways that resonate with them Professor Andre Delbecq 1936 2016 of the University of Santa Clara created the heuristic of spiritually and developmentally mature leaders to encapsulate his observation that outstanding leaders often seemed to draw strength and wisdom from sources that are not typically studied or taught in leadership courses Thirty scholars and practitioners accepted Delbecq s heuristic as the starting point to explore spiritual components of leadership that do not easily lend themselves to quantification or clear causal links The analysis of their disciplined engagement with the heuristic forms the foundation of an exploratory fully human understanding of leadership This analysis is supported by literature reviews including an overview of Andre Delbecq s relevant work Ultimately the authors call for further collaboration across disciplines and between research and practice to build on the conceptual constructs offered here and especially to create pedagogies for the training of spiritually and developmentally mature leaders
