Social Media Homicide Confessions Elizabeth Yardley, 2017-09-20 The relationship between crime and social media has become an increasingly important topic in a networked world However the use of social media in relation to violent crime is little understood This unique book by an expert in the field addresses this gap by analysing what those involved in homicide do with social media Using three international cases in which perpetrators confessed to homicide

on social media it investigates the practices of those involved providing a groundbreaking conceptual framework of use to criminologists It argues that such confessions convey important insights not only into the individual offender but also the social and cultural context of contemporary homicide Including Voices Richard Rose, Michael Shevlin, 2024-06-07 Through the presentation of research and an examination of exclusionary conditions and the ways in which these are being challenged the editors and authors present an important debate focused upon human rights and practical application of inclusive practices The Journal of Education ,1935 Catholic Schools and the Interests of the Poor Maria Ugonna Rita Igbo, 2023-10-26 The inspiration behind this book emanated from earlier doctoral research that focused on the preferential option for the poor Subsequent reflections focused more on the idea of religious schools subsidizing fees for poor children The question is How can the schools get the funding to offer free education or subsidize fees for the children How does this reflect on each school's mission integrity These questions have preoccupied the thoughts of the author for a long period The Catholic schools in Nigeria are categorized as private schools and are perceived to be expensive However people who have these views can hardly understand that most Catholic schools in Nigeria do not receive subsidies from the government at all levels in contrast to the schools in countries such as Belgium Germany New Zealand the Netherlands England Scotland and Ireland where Catholic schools receive significant support from public funds The argument for the high fees is that lay teachers have to be well paid to enable them to function effectively and selflessly There is also the need for an efficient supply of quality educational facilities and maintenance of school infrastructure Therefore if Catholic schools are expensive the Church will be failing in its duty to offer educational services to the poor and to those who suffer from deprivation These issues have been carefully analysed and dealt with in this book and some suggestions are proffered that can help the schools to maintain their mission integrity in dealing with the principle of the preferential option for the poor This book beseeches Catholic school board members other Christian denominations and religious organizations non governmental organizations philanthropists individuals and other interested parties to come to the aid of the poor by using education as an instrument

Teaching to discern Hernando Arturo, Estévez Cuervo, 2019-11-30 The issue of academic environments involves both research and practice It gathers theoretical and practical pieces of knowledge for a permanent analysis and evaluation of pedagogy content and accomplishments in the educational field Moreover educational practices no longer occur within the boundaries of a specific field in a globalized world those practices must overcome their traditional boundaries in order to expand to different disciplines and to different ways of understanding pedagogy In our time knowledge travels ideas and experiences are shared in educational platforms worldwide while educators and students create novel ways to collectively participate in research projects that contribute to a greater understanding of the universe The anthology Teaching to Discern Forming Connections Decolonizing Perspectives aims to provide a novel context for academic dialogue on globalized pedagogical practices specifically it focuses on what it means to teach abroad which means discussing methodologies

pedagogies and contents used by educators who have had the opportunity of teaching in a foreign country This book is a dialogue that engages academic experiences in a theoretically expansive and encompassing methodological and content driven framework around the topic of teaching abroad
