

Bullying poem

1. You may think you're cool coz you call me names,
And you may think I'm hurting inside,
You may even choose to get nasty,
But do you really think I'm going to hide?
2. Lots of people look up to you,
They're scared if they don't you'll turn sour,
I bet half of them think you're a bully,
But when you speak to them, they just cower.
3. You have everybody below you,
Obeying your every demand,
But if somebody bigger came along,
You would bury your head in the sand.
4. You're not just a bully, but a coward,
Who's jealous of people like me,
Am I really as bad as you make me feel,
Or the person who you want to be?
5. I know I can talk to my teachers,
My parents, family, and friends,
To tell them how you make me feel,
Please let this bullying end.

The Iliad - the Poem of Zeus Pietro Pucci,2018-09-10 The scholarly tendency has too often weakened the conspicuous novelty and originality that characterizes Zeus in the Iliad This book remedies that tendency and depicts the extraordinary figure of Zeus lord or impersonation of lightning and thunders exclusive master of human destiny and therefore of human history and chief of Olympus This unique personality endowed with polyvalent powers represents itself the conflict between superhuman moral indifference for mortal destiny and anthropomorphic feelings for human beings he both preordains the death of his son and weeps on his demise Zeus embodies the Mysterium tremendum This new Zeus cannot glance at the past image that the tradition painted of him without smiling at its simplicity and disrespect a parodic or amusing tone surrounds him as he refers or is referred to aspects of his traditional image The great characters of the Poem give two wise responses to Zeus lord of destiny heroic death or serene acceptance We the readers are expected to react in the same way Poems on Bishops by Gregory of Nazianzus and Ephrem the Syrian Giovanni Colpani, 2025-06-16 Gregory of Nazianzus and Ephrem the Syrian are both regarded as foundational poets for their respective literary traditions They wrote in the same period the 4th Century and they both devoted a cycle of poems to a debated theme of the time bishops Aim of this work is enhancing the appreciation of these cycles Gregory's carmina II 1 10 12 13 17 and Ephrem's carmina nisibena 13 21 as works of literature embedded in the performance and reading practices of the time in theological debates on the episcopal office and in their respective communities The book compares performance and transmission methods of the two corpora the word choice and imagery describing the episcopal office and how portraits of real life bishops are influenced by theological expectations on what a bishop should be Two chapters are devoted to literary phenomena peculiar to each author This book the first extensive comparison of these two authors from a literary point of view will interest scholars of Late Antique poetry and literature Church history and Patristic theology A new English translation of both corpora constitutes the appendix
