Symposium of the Whole Jerome Rothenberg, Diane Rothenberg, 2016-04-19 Symposium of the Whole traces a discourse on poetry and culture that has profoundly influenced the art of our time with precedents going back two centuries and more Beginning with a reassertion of the complexity of poetry among peoples long labeled primitive and savage many recent poets have sought to base a new poetics over the fullest range of human cultures The attempt to define an ethno poetics has been significantly connected with the most experimental and future directed side of Romantic and modern poetry both in the Western world and increasingly outside it As a visionary poetics and as a politics this complex redefinition of cultural and intellectual values has involved a rarely acknowledged collaboration between poets and scholars who together have challenged the narrow view of literature that has excluded so many traditions In this gathering the Rothenbergs follow the idea of an ethno poetics from predecessors such as Vico Blake Thoreau and Tzara to more recent essays and manifestos by poets and social thinkers such as Olson Eliade Snyder Turner and Baraka The themes range widely from the divergence of oral and written cultures to the shaman as proto poet and the reemergence of suppressed and rejected forms and images the goddess the trickster and the human universe The book s three ethnographic sections demonstrate how various poetries are structured and composed how they reflect meaning and worldview and how they are performed in cultures where all art may be thought of as art in motion Among the poetries discussed are the language of magic West African drum language and poetry the Huichol Indian language of reversals chance operations in African divination poetry picture writings and action writings from Australia and Africa and American Indian sacred clown dramas and traditional trickster narratives The cumulative effect is a new reading of the poetic past and present in the editors words a changed paradigm of what poetry was or now could come to be

My Life / Inside Out Angelo R. Avila, Jr., 2013-02 My unstructured upbringing and cares to the wind attitude led to my frequent incarceration from childhood to adulthood it s a disturbing story which is primarily aimed at the adult reading audience who enjoy reading about reality situations and crime I have always been a reader and to a large extent that helped me become a self taught person Born on the banks of the Colorado River in Arizona and raised up in the Marcos De Niza barrio projects in South Phoenix I experienced the injustices of the cotton fields Maricopa County Juvenile Detention Home and Arizona State Industrial School at Fort Grant Arizona I wandered the desperate streets of Los Angeles and the forlorn railroad tracks alone like a lost person without a purpose in life I was locked up in the jails of Phoenix and Los Angeles before winding up in the California State penitentiary system Upon my release I struggled to stay out of the pen and took the jobs that society at large would never want to take Through numerous personal tragedies incarcerations and unfortunate circumstances I lost control of my life No one was ever able to change my destructive behavior The changes when they occurred came from within me when I could no longer cope with the situations I had cast my self into Looking back I can now see what I couldn t see during those hopeless time periods I was very fortunate to finally be able to leave that life behind me through relationships that believed in me and successfully worked and built myself a civil service work career from which I retired I now spend my days enjoying life s simple pleasures after all my previous tragic missteps My objective in life now is to become an accomplished writer
