Powers,2018-01-12 The definitive guide to all things related to addiction and its treatments newly revised The updated and revised second edition is a must read for anyone struggling with addiction their families and the professionals who desire to know more about this baffling disease Jason Powers MD approaches addiction from a variety of different angles clearly and carefully attacking myths and misinformation and bringing the reader up to date with the most current scientific and popular literature on addiction Dr Powers illuminates the entire spectrum of addiction related topics from neuroscience to treatment options and guides the reader through the extensive material and to a more humane yet medically driven view of the true meaning of the disease of addiction Written with empathy and compassion by a physician specializing in addiction medicine who is in long term recovery Updated with contemporary neuroscience and state of the art information that includes the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders Fifth Edition DSM 5 Integrates the author s vast clinical experience with a thorough review of related literature into a passionate and compelling guide for patients loved ones and clinicians Jason ZW Powers MD DABAM DABFM is a board certified addictionologist and family medicine physician He is a Fellow of the American Society of Addiction Medicine and a Diplomat of the American Board of Family Practice Dr Powers is the Chief Medical Officer of Chief Medical Officer of TRS Behavioral Inc International Journal of Religious Education ,1927 The Oxford Group and Alcohols Anonymous Dick B.,2011-09-18 Scholarly comprehensive unique A A was an integral part of the Oxford Group in the early 1930 s and this book contains the only study of the Oxford Group s contributions to early A A s Big Book Twelve Steps and Fellowship You will find here the Oxford Group s biblical roots the origin of its ideas details on its beliefs and practices its influence on early AAs and their high success rate and where its concepts can be found in today s A A phrases such as the Four Absolutes the Five C s guidance surrender checking spiritual experience spiritual awakening conscious contact with God restitution amends confession of faults conversion continuance soul surgery inventory prayer meditation Quiet Time Morning Watch fellowship witness and others seemingly unknown in A A and recovery circles today come to light as the very founding principles and practices which Bill W said he had learned from his mentor Rev Sam Shoemaker an American leader of the Oxford Group close friend and rector of Calvary Episcopal Church in New York These were the principles and practices Bill codified into his title Alcoholics Anonymous affectionately known within A A As the Big Book published on April 10 1939 They were a departure from those of the original Akron A A Christian fellowship of 1935 and yet clearly were also grounded in the Bible and hence continued the beginning stress on the relationship of the Bible to A A Jung and his Mystics John P. Dourley,2014-04-03 Jung s psychology describes the origin of the Gods and their religions in terms of the impact of archetypal powers on consciousness For Jung this impact is the basis of the numinous the experience of the divine in nature and in human nature His psychology while possessed of a certain claim to science is based on depths of subjective experience which transcends psychology and science as ordinarily understood Jung and his Mystics In the end it all comes to nothing examines the mythic nature of Jung s psychology and thought and demonstrates the influence of mysticism and certain religious thinkers in formulating his own work John P Dourley explores the influence of Mechthild of Magdeburg and fellow mystics Beguines and traces the mystic impulse and its expression through Meister Eckhart and Jacob Boehme to Hegel in the nineteenth century All of these mystics were of the apophatic school and understood the culmination of their experience to lie in an identity with divinity in a nothingness beyond all form formal expression or immediate activity Dourley shows how this is still of relevance in our lives today The book concludes that Jung s understanding of mysticism could greatly alleviate the conflict between faiths religious or political by drawing attention to their common origin in the depths of the human Jung and his Mystics In the end it all comes to nothing is aimed at scholars and senior research students in Jungian Studies including religionists theologians and philosophers of religion especially those with an interest in mysticism It will also be essential reading for those interested in the connection between religious and psychological experience

Autobiography and the Psychological Study of Religious Lives Jacob Adrianus Belzen, 2008 This volume positions itself on the cutting edge of two fields in psychology that enjoy rapidly increasing attention both the study of human lives and some core domains of such lives as religion and spirituality are high on the agenda of current research and teaching Biographies and autobiographies are being approached in new ways and have become central to the study of human lives as an object of research and a preferred method for obtaining unique data about subjective human experiences Ever since the beginning of the psychology of religion autobiographies have also been pointed out as an important source of information about psychic processes involved in religiosity In this volume a number of leading theoreticians and researchers from Europe and the USA try to bring them back to this field by drawing on new insights and latest developments in psychological theory

Why Do Good People Suffer Bad Things TR Williams, 2018-10-23 You are not alone if you struggle to understand why unwanted unexplainable and inconceivable bad things happen to innocent people Never before have there been so many questions like How could a loving God permit good people to suffer bad things and often make it appear as though the guilty are rewarded or go scot free Why are there so many things in the world that seem unfair or unjust Why does God seemingly hide his face from much of the horrific evil pain and destruction Does God really care Is it fair for humans to be angry with God about their misfortune or suffering Why are there so many good people accused falsely for their suffering What defence mechanisms can I put in place to minimize evil suffering pain misfortune and the devil s influence in my own life What purpose does suffering and pain serve in human life These are some of the most thought provoking spiritually intuitive deeply agitating and most frequent questions asked by countless individuals especially by those who believe that there is a God
