Gerotranscendence Lars Tornstam,2005-06-20 Given the 2006 GREAT GERONTOLOGY AWARD for outstanding contribution to gerontological research by the Swedish Gerontological Society Received a VALUE GROUND AWARD from the journal Aldreomsorg Old Age Care Expanding upon his earlier writings Dr Tornstam s latest book explores the need for new theories in gerontology and sets the stage for the development of his theory of gerotranscendence This theory was developed to address what the author sees as a perpetual mismatch between present theories in social gerontology and existing empirical data The development towards gerotranscendence can involve some overlooked developmental changes that are related to increased life satisfaction as self described by individuals The gerotranscendent individual typically experiences a redefinition of the Self and of relationships to others and a new understanding of fundamental existential questions The individual becomes less self occupied and at the same time more selective in the choice of social and other activities There is an increased feeling of affinity with past generations and a decreased interest in superfluous social interaction The individual might also experience a decrease in interest in material things and a greater need for solitary meditation Positive solitude becomes more important There is also often a feeling of cosmic communion with the spirit of the universe and a redefinition of time space life and death Gerotranscendence does NOT imply any state of withdrawal or disengagement as sometimes erroneously believed It is not the old disengagement theory in new disguise Rather it is a theory that describes a developmental pattern beyond the old dualism of activity and disengagement The author supports his theory with insightful qualitative in depth interviews with older persons and quantitative studies In addition Tornstam illustrates the practical implications of the theory of gerotranscendence for professionals working with older adults in care settings A useful Appendix contains suggestions of how to facilitate personal development toward gerotranscendence For Further Information Please Click Here Global Health Kevin McCracken,David R. Phillips,2017-07-14 Global Health continues to provide readers with a comprehensive up to date and thought provoking outline and understanding of the constantly evolving global health landscape In this new edition the authors have maintained the successful structure and organisation of the previous edition to examine and explain recent health changes and consider likely future patterns New or expanded topics covered include emerging and re emerging infectious disease threats increasing awareness of and interest in antimicrobial resistance and superbugs terrorism global conflict and health the new UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development the drive for Universal Health Coverage UHC the use of information technology in global health substance abuse palliative and end of life care ethical issues in global health Using clear and original explanations of complex issues this text makes extensive use of boxed case studies and international examples with discussion questions posed for readers at the end of each chapter Readers will also be able to take advantage of the new website that was designed to complement this book Global Health is essential reading for students and researchers of global health public health and development studies Health Promotion and Aging David Haber,2013-03-26 Print CourseSmart Essentials of Patient Education Bastable,2016-03-29 Essentials of Patient Education Second Edition prepares nurses for their increasing role in patient teaching health education and health promotion Highly revised the Second Edition focuses on the basic principles of teaching and learning by emphasizing the role of the professional nurse in educating patients and families effectively and efficiently in various healthcare settings The Second Edition explores new topics of motor learning and gender differences in the brain as well as the ethics of patient education and the legal role of the nurse as mandated by state practice The text features completely revised chapter content and updated references that provide evidence from research and theoretical foundations which substantiate content throughout the text Provided by publisher Care Justice Nancy R. Hooyman,2024-08-27 This book develops a care justice framework to critique and disrupt current policies and reframe a policy blueprint for elevating a just organization of care for unpaid family caregivers and underpaid home care workers assisting older adults In doing so Hooyman invites readers to envision a society that fully values the essential work of care The book is distinctive in its analysis of the interrelationships among both types of care laborers who often face structural constraints on their decision to care and whose work is devalued and marginalized Their care work affects every member of society but it is generally invisible to others and its economic value is rarely recognized by policymakers How care work is organized and unrewarded typically has the most financial physical and emotional costs for women people of color and immigrants across the life course Inequities for care workers by race immigrant status class and sexual orientation are rooted in systemic racism sexism classism xenophobia and homophobia In this book policy priorities and change strategies are reframed to attain the six core components of a care justice framework which include fundamental structural changes to elevate care work ensure meaningful choice to care and reduce systemic inequities faced by care workers This framework is informed by feminism Black feminism intersectionality and care theory By conceptualizing care justice the author aims to stimulate new discourse and action related to the care of older adults the most important work in society and make the seemingly unattainable attainable This timely book will be salient to anyone committed to diversity equity and inclusion and with an interest in policy gerontology disability studies ethnic studies feminist studies social justice social work and social welfare National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), User Innovators in the Silver Market Konstantin Wellner, 2015-03-03 In this study among camping tourists of all age groups between 19 and 86 years of age Konstantin Wellner compares key characteristics regarding innovative behavior of different age groups The focus of the analysis is on the so called Silver Market segment consumers of at least 55 years which gains importance to the demographic shift Generally older users are still actively innovating especially if it relates to age specific improvements e g comfort and compatibility to other equipment Analysis by a Structural Equation Model showed that the most important determinant of innovative behavior for older users is technical expertise and that being relatively ahead of trends increases their dissatisfaction with existing products Additional evidence was found that user with high use experience suffer from functional fixedness American Book Publishing Record, 2000 Counseling Individuals Through the Lifespan Daniel W. Wong, Kimberly R.
