students for today and tomorrow Writing for Understanding Donovan R. Walling,2009-08-25 Written specifically for non language arts teachers this resource focuses on using writing as an instructional tool to deepen and expand student understanding in the content areas Resources in Education ,2001-04 Social Studies for Secondary Schools Alan J. Singer,2014-10-08 Now in its 4th edition this popular text for secondary social studies methods courses integrates discussions of educational goals and the nature of history and social studies with ideas for organizing social studies curricula units lessons projects and activities A major theme throughout is that what teachers choose to teach and the way they teach reflect their broader understanding of society history and the purpose of social studies education Advocating an inquiry and activity based view of social studies teaching that respects the points of view of students and teachers and based in practice and experience it offers systematic support and open honest advice for new teachers Each chapter addresses a broad question about social studies education sub chapters begin with narrower questions that direct attention to specific educational issues Lesson ideas and materials in the book and online are especially designed to help new teachers to address common core learning standards to work in inclusive settings and to promote literacy and the use of technology in social studies classrooms Chapters include highlighted Learning Activities Teaching Activities and Classroom Activities designed to provoke discussion and illustrate different approaches to teaching social studies and conclude with recommendations for further reading and links to on line essays about related social studies topics Activities are followed by four categories Think it over Add your voice to the discussion Try it yourself and It s your classroom All of these are supported with online teaching material Designed for undergraduate and graduate pre service social studies methods courses this text is also useful for in service training programs as a reference for new social studies teachers and as a resource for experienced social studies educators who are engaged in rethinking their teaching practice New in the Fourth Edition Provides a number of new lesson ideas paired with online lesson plans and activity sheets in every chapter Takes a new focus on data driven standards based instruction especially in relation to the common core curriculum Addresses the interactive nature of learning in updated technology sections Reflects current trends in history education Includes more of what the author has learned from working teachers Offers a wealth of additional on line material linked to the text Using Literacy Strategies to Enhance Social Studies Education in Elementary Classrooms Kristy A. Brugar,Kathryn L. Roberts,2025-04-01 Elementary teachers often with their students for most or all of the day have the opportunity to creatively integrate instruction across classes In this text we explore meaningful pedagogical cross over that goes beyond the surface level to build strong foundations and deep connections for teaching and learning in interdisciplinary ways Latinization of U.S. Schools Jason Irizarry,2015-12-03 Fueled largely by significant increases in the Latino population the racial ethnic and linguistic texture of the United States is changing rapidly Nowhere is this Latinisation of America more evident than in schools The dramatic population growth among Latinos in the United States has not been accompanied by gains in academic achievement Estimates suggest that approximately half of Latino students fail to complete high school and few enroll in and complete college The Latinization of U S Schools centres on the voices of Latino youth It examines how the students themselves make meaning of the policies and practices within schools The student voices expose an inequitable opportunity structure that results in depressed academic performance for many Latino youth Each chapter concludes with empirically based recommendations for educators seeking to improve their practice with Latino youth stemming from a multiyear participatory action research project conducted by Irizarry and the student contributors to the text Crossroads of the Classroom Vicki Ross, Elaine Chan, Dixie K.

Keyes, 2017-04-28 This book aims to explore and make visible the intersection of subject matter knowledge and teacher knowledge in the narratives of teachers This complicated interaction between these two bodies of knowledge is often studied and little understood Teaching History with Big Ideas S. G. Grant, Jill M. Gradwell, 2010-07-16 In the case studies that make up the bulk of this book middle and high school history teachers describe the decisions and plans and the problems and possibilities they encountered as they ratcheted up their instruction through the use of big ideas Framing a teaching unit around a question such as Why don't we know anything about Africa offers both teacher and students opportunities to explore historical actors ideas and events in ways both rich and engaging Such an approach exemplifies the construct of ambitious teaching whereby teachers demonstrate their ability to marry their deep knowledge of subject matter students and the school context in ways that fundamentally challenge the claim that history is boring The Teacher's Journal Kathleen Adams, Marise Barreiro, 2013-06-06 Teachers begin the professional journey with a treasure chest full of experiences hopes and expectations gathered from early childhood Yet the everyday stresses and challenges of 21st century classrooms often leave teachers with neither time nor energy to recall their initiating dreams and desires In this innovative workbook you'll be expertly guided through a journey of self discovery back to the roots of your story your evolution as a teacher and the rituals and routines that help or hurt You'll take time out to remember the ways that teaching blesses you You'll learn to confront the inner critic and push back against the voice that tells you to do more more more You'll discover the legacy you leave with your students You'll fall in love with teaching all over again Illustrated with 115 actual journal entries by 17 teachers in response to 65 well crafted writing prompts you'll be held in a supportive international community as you rediscover yourself and your innate strengths A facilitator's guide featuring step by step lesson plans prepares you to offer this work as a writing group with peers Testing Student Learning, Evaluating Teaching Effectiveness Williamson F. Evers, Herbert J.
