The Marxist catastrophe: The decline and fall of Marxism in the social sciences and academia Sujay Rao Mandavilli,2025-08-20 Communism has generally been seen to be in long and gradual retreat all over the world since the 1980 s Unease against communism and its general principles has been known since at least 1968 when the Prague Spring unraveled itself This was a period of liberalization in Eastern Europe but was brutally suppressed by the former Soviet Union and its communist leaders who feared its ripple and cascading effects in the rest of the communist world The Soviet Union itself crumbled less than a quarter of a century later this collapse was precipitated by Mikhail Gorbachev s reforms namely Glasnost or openness and Perestroika or structural reform Gorbachev needs no introduction to most people he was born in 1931 and died in 2022 Gorbachev s began his political career in the Communist Party of the former Soviet Union where gradually he rose through the ranks to assume leadership positions becoming General Secretary in 1985 Gorbachev gradually moved away from orthodox Stalinism Leninism to embrace more democratic ideals He therefore sought to modernize the USSR by saving its stagnant economy which was even being overtaken by newly emerging Asian powers and counter nationalist sentiments in other Soviet Republics The Soviet Union was subsequently formally dissolved on the 26th of December 1991 by a declaration known as 142 N All the Soviet republics declared their independence effectively putting an end to the USSR which vanished into the annals of history Many communist nations of Eastern Europe were dissolved even prior to this with the Berlin wall falling in November 1989 and Nicolae Ceausescu s regime in Romania being toppled a month later

Theater State and the Formation of Early Modern Public Sphere in Iran Babak Rahimi, 2011-11-11 During the Safavid period the Shi i Muharram commemorative rites which had been publically practiced since the 7th century became a manifestation of state power Already during the reign of Shah Abbas I 1587 1629 the Muharram rituals had transformed into an extraordinary rich repertoire of ceremonies and ceremonial spaces that can be defined as theater state Under Shah Safi I 1629 1642 these ceremonies ultimately led to carnivalesque celebrations of misrule and transgression This first systematic study of a wide range of Persian and European archival and primary sources analyzes how the Muharram rites changed from being an originally devotional practice to an ambiguous ritualization that in combination with other public arenas such as the bazaar coffeehouses or travel lodges created distinct spaces of communication whereby the widening gap between state and society gave way to the formation of the early Iranian public sphere Ultimately the Muharram public spaces allowed for a shift in individual and collective identities opening the way to multifaceted living fields of interaction as well as being sites of contestation where innovative expressions of politics were made In particular the construction of the new Isfahan in 1590 is linked with the widespread proliferation of the Muharram mortuary rites by discussing rituals performed in major urban spaces

Revolutionizing a World Mark Altaweel, Andrea Squitieri, 2018-02-15 This book investigates the long term continuity of large scale states and empires and its effect on the Near East's social fabric including the fundamental changes that occurred to major social institutions Its geographical coverage spans from east to west modern day Libya and Egypt to Central Asia and from north to south Anatolia to southern Arabia incorporating modern day Oman and Yemen Its temporal coverage spans from the late eighth century BCE to the seventh century CE during the rise of Islam and collapse of the Sasanian Empire The authors argue that the persistence of large states and empires starting in the eighth seventh centuries BCE which continued for many centuries led to new socio political structures and institutions emerging in the Near East The primary processes that enabled this emergence were large scale and long distance movements or population migrations These patterns of social developments are analysed under different aspects settlement patterns urban structure material culture trade governance language spread and religion all pointing at movement as the main catalyst for social change This book's argument is framed within a larger theoretical framework termed as universalism a theory that explains many of the social transformations that happened to societies in the Near East starting from the Neo Assyrian period and continuing for centuries Among other influences the effects of these transformations are today manifested in modern languages concepts of government universal religions and monetized and globalized economies

Religion and Cooperative Economics Jamin Andreas Hübner, 2025-07-09 This volume looks at the intersection between religion and cooperative economics through the lens of economic justice It covers world religious traditions and gives particular focus to cooperative organization the social and economic problems of capitalism and the earliest Christian tradition of the Jesus movement It also examines religious and theological discourse in contemporary defenses of neoliberal capitalism and contemporary advocates of cooperatives The book serves to unfold both how and why cooperative economics can and should supplant traditional employer employee relationships a pillar of modern capitalism and revive interest in cooperation worker solidarity and significant social and political reforms
