America Patricia Reid-Merritt,Michael S. Rodriguez,2020-04-03 This book offers a historical and comparative overview of the evolution of racial classifications in the United States Latin America and the Caribbean The Hispanicization of America is precipitating a paradigm shift in racial thinking in which race is no longer defined by distinct characteristics but rather is becoming synonymous with ethnic cultural identity Traditionally assimilation has been conceived of as a unidirectional and racialized phenomenon Newly arrived immigrant groups or longstanding minority indigenous populations were Americanized

in confining their racial and ethnic natures to the private sphere and adopting in the public sphere the cultural mores norms and values of the dominant cultural racial group In contrast the Hispanicization of America entails the horizontal assimilation of various groups from Spanish speaking countries throughout the Western Hemisphere and Caribbean into a pan ethnic Hispanic Latino identity that also challenges the privileged position of whiteness as the primary and exclusive referent for American identity Instead of focusing on one Hispanic group ethnic identity or region this book chronicles the development of racial identity across the largest Hispanic groups throughout the United States Competition and Cooperation in Social and Political Sciences Isbandi Rukminto Adi,Rochman Achwan,2017-12-01 The book contains essays on current issues in Social and Political Sciences such as the issues of governance and social order social development and community development global challenges and inequality civil society and social movement IT based community and social transformation poverty alleviation and corporate social responsibility and gender issues Asia and the Pacific are the particular regions that the conference focuses on as they have become new centers of social and political development Therefore this book covers areas that have been traditionally known as the social and political areas such as communication studies political studies governance studies criminology sociology social welfare anthropology and international relations
