Cousin Cari is a strong career woman who isn't unnerved by anything apart from facing the man who left her at the altar and he's on the guest list. As the party brings them all together, can the Brannigans discover the secrets of a happy marriage before it's too late? The Family Gift The greatest gift of all Freya Abalone's life looks perfect from the outside: big family, dream career, and a gorgeous new home. But she can't stop thinking that something is missing, that maybe she's not good enough. And now Freya's happy blended family is about to be turned upside down. For years Freya has raised her husband's daughter as her own, but now her glamorous party-loving birth mother Elisa has crashed back into their lives. If there's one thing that Freya's sure of, it's that her family is the greatest gift of all, and when life gives you lemons, you throw them right back. Departure Lounge Robert Laurence, 2014-02-25 The mid Eighties. No cell phones, no email, no caller ID, no GPS. It was easier then to pass without notice, to be out of touch, to get lost. The Berlin Wall still stood, as did the World Trade Center, and Michael Reid embarks on what even he concedes to be a spate of obsessive travel: Scandinavia, the Persian Gulf, South Asia, back home to the Ozarks, then off again to Greece, Eastern Europe, and Egypt. Along the way, he writes letters about what he's seeing and what he's thinking to three friends: Anna Browning, a mathematician in Tallahassee who thinks of Michael less fondly than he thinks of her; Richard Randolph, Michael's baseball watching pal who leads a comfortable, perhaps too comfortable, life as a law professor in Albuquerque; and Marie Cochran, a middle school social studies teacher in rural New Mexico who is Michael's on-again-off-again lover. These three all know Michael, but they don't know each other. And against the background of Michael's travels and his letters, their lives become curiously, even mysteriously, intertwined, changed in ways that Michael himself can't imagine. Derry Women Series Box Set Two Gerald Hansen, 2018-10-02 The story of the tawdry Floods and the hapless Barnetts continues. The Derry Women Series Box Set was such a hit here's part two. Get set to binge on these three novels of family dysfunction and dark humor that will make you wince, gasp, and fume according to comedian Colin Quinn. In Best Served Frozen, Static Cling, and the spin-off Emergency Exit, all your favorites are here: from hardened matriarch Fionnuala Flood and her hardworking husband Paddy and their clan-ditzy Dymphna player Lorcan, mini-thug Eoin, clever Siofra, and odd toddler Seamus. From the other side of the pond, there is kind-hearted Ursula Barnett and her husband Jed, together with their daughter Gretchen, all still reeling from the lottery win. When these two families meet, sparks always fly. Who will get burned? Real Punks Don't Wear Black Frank Kogan, 2006 More than thirty years of the author's commentary on music and culture is sampled in this collection of contentious and perceptive writings that examine such diverse topics as Mariah Carey, Public Enemy, Disco, hip-hop, The New York Dolls, Europop, metal, and more. Simultaneous This Is My Story, This Is My Song Leonard S. Buxton, 2019-08-20 The first of two volumes to be published in This is my Story, This is my Song, Leonard S. Buxton recounts the first half of his engaging life and his long career in ministry. He has written a very entertaining personal account of his upbringing as the son of a fire and brimstone Evangelical preacher during the Depression, the beginnings of his political consciousness through

WWII his college life and the strict mores of the 1950s and moving from parish to parish with his young family during the turbulent social change of the 1960s and early 1970s As a professor of psychology at Claflin a black university in South Carolina Leonard recalls his activism within the church and literally in his own backyard to break down the resistance to desegregation and to support the civil rights movement This book is filled with evocative photographs and colorful firsthand history its joys and heartbreaks Studebakers and VWs the Red Sox and Yankees teen hang outs in drugstores music dramatic productions and church camping the serious social stigma of divorce the illegality of adultery the scourge of polio the loss of a child group encounter sessions George McGovern Benjamin Spock Kent State burning crosses A man devoted to building congregations as a pastor psychologist parish counselor teacher and activist Leonard depicts characters and narrates events with remarkable acuity This book is a rich reflection on his experiences written with candor and humility and observing people and events through the kind lens of his dedication to serving others and his evolving faith as a Methodist minister To quote one of Leonard s aspirations for this memoir For those still casting around an unclear future this may say Take heart life will be full of surprises
