Représentations sociales et approche thérapeutique en milieu médical Carine Alice Layat Burn, 2007 Cette recherche se situe au carrefour de la psychologie interculturelle et sociale de la psychologie de la santé et de l'éducation médicale Elle vise l'intégration des sciences humaines dans la formation médicale Plus précisément ce travail porte sur les représentations sociales qu'ont des médecins en formation post graduate de patients de différentes cultures et sur l'approche thérapeutique qui en découle Les professionnels de la santé ont des représentations différentes en fonction de la culture des patients Ces représentations sont modulées notamment en fonction de leur expérience professionnelle la nationalité des médecins Par ailleurs l'appartenance culturelle des patients est source de discrimination dans la pratique relationnelle adoptée par les médecins Ces résultats relèvent l'importance d'une part de traiter de la subjectivité de ces professionnels plus particulièrement dans le processus de prise en charge de patients d'autres cultures et d'autre part de les former à l'approche interculturelle des soins

Formation et interculturelité Collectif, 2022-12-05 Comme nous le verrons dans ce numéro 59 de la revue Savoirs portant sur l'interculturalité en formation il ne s'agira pas tant de caractériser un ensemble composite commun à différentes cultures mais de signifier le souci d'une personne ou d'un groupe de s'ouvrir à une autre culture ainsi qu'à celles et ceux qui l'incarnent pour en comprendre les traditions et les valeurs en vue d'instaurer des convergences La Note de synthèse proposée par J. Mbiatong s'intéresse au développement polymorphe de l'interculturalité notamment dans les champs du management humain au sein des organisations internationales des tiers de l'intervention sociale ou médico sociale et de la formation La question est galement traitée sur le plan historique depuis l'après Seconde Guerre mondiale jusqu'à nos jours afin de mieux saisir la compétence interculturelle au sein d'un environnement mondialisé Page 4 de la couverture
