Analysis

1. During 1906 and 1907, what two methods did the Forest Service use to protect the Kaibab deer?

Theodore Roosevelt created a national game reserve and they exterminated the predators of the Kaibab deer.

1. Why did you expect the population of deer to increase after 1905?

Because the predators of the deer were gone.

1. Why did you expect the population of deer to decline after 1925, although the extermination of predators occurred?

The deer were overpopulated and many of the deer starved because the overpopulation caused them to starve.

1. Why did you think the deer population was in 1925 was 100,000 when the extermination of predators had occurred in 1906?

There was overpopulation because the deer were left alone for the extermination of the predators.

1. Why did the deer population decline after 1925?

The overpopulation decreased. The population was getting too big and many of the deer were starving.
