Question

Focus

Type of Response Expected

Common Pitfalls

Share a significant aspect of your identity

A personal narrative that showcases a unique aspect of the applicant's values, experiences, and personality

Avoid clichés and superficial descriptions. Be introspective and reflective. Keep the focus on how the experience shaped who you are.

Describe a challenge & how you overcame it

An essay that shows how the applicant handled adversity and grew from the experience

Avoid presenting yourself as a victim or blaming others for your setbacks. Focus on your growth and development.

Discuss a time you challenged an idea or belief

An essay that demonstrates critical thinking and intellectual curiosity

Avoid controversial or offensive topics that could alienate your reader. Be respectful and open-minded.

Reflect on a moment of gratitude

A personal narrative that shows how someone else's actions impacted the applicant

Avoid being too general or clichéd. Be specific and thoughtful.

Describe a personal growth experience

An essay that showcases how the applicant learned about themselves or others

Avoid bragging or presenting yourself as perfect. Be honest about your flaws and challenges.

Discuss an intellectual passion

An essay that reveals the applicant's interests and curiosity

Avoid being too obscure or abstract. Make sure your passion is something you can explain in detail.

Share an essay on any topic

An opportunity for the applicant to showcase their writing and creativity

Avoid clichés or writing on a topic that does not showcase your unique voice and perspective. Be thoughtful and original.

writing procedure Brody's guide is short, easy to use, and focuses on the most important issues. Special attention is paid to choosing a topic, making the essay interesting, distinguishing yourself as an applicant, and injecting passion into your writing. Additionally, the book includes and discusses seven first-rate and successful admissions essays. The authors, both of whom work full time with applicants, have spent countless hours helping with admissions essays and speaking with current and former college admissions officers. Here they've taken everything they know about the process and distilled it into one insightful and surprisingly usable guide. Acing the College Application Michele Hernandez, 2007-08-28 With so many qualified applicants, competition for college admissions is fiercer than ever. Now you can put yourself ahead of the pack by making your application flawless. When applying for college, good grades and high standardized test scores are not always enough to guarantee admission. What sets you apart, argues Michele Hernandez, is the way you describe yourself in your application. But how do you present yourself with flair and highlight all your talents, skills, and passions in just a few pages? A former assistant director of admissions at Dartmouth College, Dr. Hernandez takes you step by step through the entire application process, revealing the details that make or break an applicant. From the multitude of short and longer essays to the myriad of charts, lists, and personal data sections, she offers essential advice, useful anecdotes, and vivid examples. Included are: A line-by-line look at the common application. The truth about the essays, with samples of those that made the grade. The best way to ask for teacher and guidance counselor recommendations. When to provide colleges with optional essays and peer evaluations. The ten common myths and misconceptions of the on-campus interview. The most meaningful academic subjects, work experience, and extracurricular activities to mention. Early action versus early decision: the trade-offs. With this helpful, savvy book, prospective college students and their parents and counselors can now vastly improve their chances of getting into the college of their choice. Want to scale the Ivy wall? Michele Hernandez gives you the tools to do it. This brisk, no-nonsense book is built on inside dope, and Hernandez's experience allows her to challenge conventional admissions thinking.
