Tales Jonathan Nield,1929 The Christian Book of Lists Randy Petersen,1997 Randy Petersen s latest effort is a book containing hundreds of lists relating to Bible knowledge ranging from the practical to the fascinating to the incredible The book is as humorous as it is informative The Christian Century ,1924 Another Jesus, a Different Spirit, a Different Gospel Steven H. Propp,2011-12-13 Its the Christmas seasonthe most wonderful time of the year for most people in River City California But for Jehovahs Witnesses Lawrence and Brad its a time for them to try to explain the truth about this holiday season to the people of the community Their earnest efforts may earn them ridicule disagreement or a door slammed rudely in their faces but they persistand are sometimes able to find a mind and heart receptive to their urgent message about Jehovahs coming Kingdom Whereas for Elders Skousen and Marshalltwo Latter day Saint Mormon missionariesthe season is another opportunity to share their Churchs distinctive interpretation of the Christian gospel but their efforts are often rebuffed as well In the course of their work these two pairs of men engage in dialogue with traditional Christians as well as members of the Church of Christ the Community of Christ RLDS Seventh day Adventists and Oneness Pentecostalsnot to mention skeptics atheists and the increasing numbers of people who lack any particular religious beliefs But when a local church brings in a researcher to give a series of lectures on Cultsand specifically targeting the Jehovahs Witnesses and Mormonsa confrontation is ensured where theological and biblical concepts collide in a public forum Who if anyone really has the Truth Can one still discover the true meaning of Christmas in the midst of passionate disagreements over the validity of the holiday season Are objections raised about the secularization and rampant commercialism of the modern celebration valid Spend a holiday season or any other season with some interesting and intellectually stimulating characters as they explore these and other challenging questions Readers of the authors earlier novel A Multicultural Christmas will be pleased to see a brief reappearance of two characters from that book A More Radical Gospel Gerhard O. Forde,2017-01-01 Gerhard O Forde has stood at the forefront of Lutheran thought for most of his career This new collection of essays and sermons many previously unpublished makes Forde s powerful theological vision more widely available The book aptly captures Forde s deep Lutheran commitment Here he argues that the most important task of theology is to serve the proclamation of the gospel as discerned on the basis of the doctrine of justification by grace alone through faith alone For Forde the doctrine of justification is not one topic among other theological topics rather it is the criterion that guides all theology and ministry Throughout the book Forde applies this truth to issues of eschatology authority atonement and ecumenism Also included are seven insightful sermons that model the Lutheran approach to proclamation City of Black Souls Kai Parker,2025-05-20 How Black Protestants in Chicago created Ethiopianism a transnational religious movement against Western imperialism City of Black Souls uncovers the history of how from the late nineteenth to the mid twentieth century Black Protestants in Chicago created a transnational religious movement that connected the Black struggle for freedom in the United States to the global Black fight against Western imperialism This was a movement of Ethiopianism

meaning a movement for Black religious and political independence inspired by biblical references to Ethiopia particularly Psalm 68 31 Princes shall come out of Egypt Ethiopia shall soon stretch out her hands unto God Through Ethiopianism Kai Parker argues Black Chicago Protestants drew from Coptic and Ethiopian Orthodox Christian traditions and worked with West African Christians to imagine that Afrodiasporic Christian faith heralded the apocalyptic end of imperialism and white supremacy Parker illuminates the apocalyptic Ethiopianism of famous Black Chicagoans such as Ida B Wells and gospel musician Thomas Dorsey and of lesser known ones such as painter William Edouard Scott and Nigerian immigrant turned anticolonial missionary Samuel Wadiei Martin When John C Robinson a Black Chicagoan led Haile Selassie's air force against Mussolini's invasion of Ethiopia in 1935 1936 this was no coincidence but rather an outgrowth of decades of Ethiopianism in Chicago City of Black Souls shows that Ethiopianism was a dynamic heterogeneous and modern movement through which Black migrants to Chicago engaged the industrial city and influenced the mid twentieth century anticolonial and civil rights movements The book is especially important to Black religious and political studies in its demonstration of how apocalyptic Ethiopianism differed in its contributions to the Black freedom struggle from the canonical prophetic religion grounded in the Exodus notion of moving from slavery to freedom Heresy and Criticism Robert McQueen Grant, 1993-01-01 Robert Grant draws upon his fifty years of experience dealing with the correlation of early Christianity and classical culture to demonstrate that Christian heretics were the first to apply literacy criticism to Christian books He shows that the heretics methods were the same as those of pagan contemporaries and that literary criticism derived from the Hellenistic schools Literary criticism was later used by famous orthodox leaders and as time passed orthodox critics increasingly found that these methods could serve them well Grant supports his argument by focusing on principal figures Origen Dionysius of Alexandria Eusebius and Jerome
