Fútbol in the Park David Trouille, 2021-02-02 You know the scene amateur soccer players battling over the ball spectators cheering from the sidelines vendors selling their wares from carts Over the past half century immigration from Latin America has transformed the public landscape in the United States and numerous communities are witnessing one of the hallmarks of this transformation the emergence of park soccer In Fútbol in the Park David Trouille takes us into the world of Latino soccer players who regularly play in an upscale Los Angeles neighborhood where they are not always welcome Together on the soccer field sharing beers after the games and occasionally exchanging taunts or blows the men build relationships and a sense of who they are Through these engrossing revealing and at times immortalizing activities they forge new identities friendships and job opportunities giving themselves a renewed sense of self worth and community As the United States becomes increasingly polarized over issues of immigration and culture Fútbol in the Park offers a close look at the individual lives and experiences of migrants

A Captain's Journey Neil Tovey, Ernest Landheer, 2019-05-01 South Africans of all races remember the moment when Neil Tovey raised the Africa Cup of Nations trophy in 1996 with Nelson Mandela at his side wearing his number 9 jersey It still represents South Africa's greatest success in international football In his long awaited autobiography Tovey tells his fascinating life story describing his modest upbringing in Durban his entry to a mainly black sport in a deeply segregated 1980s South Africa and his time as captain of Kaizer Chiefs and Bafana Bafana He recalls his introduction to muti rituals by team members and his growing popularity among Chiefs supporters who nicknamed him Mokoko boss chicken Tovey also writes about his experiences as a coach and as technical director of the South African Football Association SAFA and shares his insights about the state of the sport today He talks frankly about his family life and about surviving two heart attacks and gives insights into leadership and success This book will appeal to all football fans but it is also a fascinating story of a man who has lived a truly South African life

Just Wondering, Jesus Tom Ehrich, 2005-03 What are the questions that are really on the minds of Christians as they try to live out their faith Author Tom Ehrich challenged readers of his weekly newspaper column and his daily e mail meditations to pose the questions that they would like to ask Jesus from the roadside as blind Bartimaeus did in the gospel He received hundreds of responses not one of them about matters of liturgy church politics or canon law Instead the questions these ordinary Christians longed to ask Jesus were deeper and more basic Will I see my late husband in heaven How can I make my marriage more joyful Will we ever find peace What do you want of me In Just Wondering Jesus Ehrich takes 100 of these questions and answers each in the form of a brief meditation essay and provides a fascinating glimpse of what is truly on people's minds and in their hearts The meditations based on gospel readings are valuable for personal devotion and small group study
