The common practice of ability grouped reading in UK schools often termed guided reading influences children s sense of identity feelings and progress as readers Drawing on a rich ethnographic study of three primary classrooms this book reopens a critical inquiry into ability grouped reading that has been quiet since the 1990s when guided reading in literacy education became established practice in the UK and the US Through the lens of children s agency in accommodating resisting and at times transforming such reading pedagogy the book shows how readers are shaped by ability grouped reading and by the more egalitarian reading pedagogies introduced in the study Children s individual and collective experiences are brought to life through extended narratives that attend as closely to gesture posture visage silences and prosody of speech as to spoken words The book ends with a provocation how literacy pedagogy might change if reflexive noticing and dismantling of hierarchies become the compass of pedagogical change This demands attention to structural inequalities around race gender and class and a turn towards deep listening to children As well as being a valuable read for scholars of the sociology of childhood and education it should appeal to anyone concerned with making education more equitable including teachers school leaders parents carers and policymakers Nonlinear Dynamics in Economics and Social Sciences Franco Gori, Lucio Geronazzo, Marcello Galeotti, 2012-12-06 This volume constitutes the Proceedings of the Nonlinear Dynamics in Economics and Social Sciences Meeting held at the Certosa di Pontignano Siena on May 27-30 1991 The Meeting was organized by the National Group Modelli Nonlineari in Economia e Dinamiche Complesse of the Italian Ministry of University and Scientific Research M U R S T The aim of the Conference which followed a previous analogous initiative taking place in the very same Certosa on January 1988 was the one of offering a come together opportunity to economists interested in a new mathematical approach to the modelling of economical processes through the use of more advanced analytical techniques and mathematicians acting in the field of global dynamical systems theory and applications A basic underlying idea drove the organizers the necessity of focusing on the use that recent methods and results as those commonly referred to the overpopularized label of Chaotic Dynamics did find in the social sciences domain and thus to check their actual relevance in the research program of modelling economic phenomena in order to individuate and stress promising perspectives as well as to curb excessive hopes and criticize not infrequent cases where research reduces to mechanical ad hoc applications of a la mode techniques In a word we felt the need of looking about the state of the arts in non linear systems theory applications to economics and social processes hence the title of the workshop and the volume
