Global Perspectives on Learning Cities Séamus Ó Tuama, Eric Agbessi, Tina Neylon, 2025-09-01 This book examines the social political and economic rationales which lead to the development of learning cities in diverse settings in Africa Australia Asia and Europe Many of the contributors are practitioners who have played an active part in the development of their learning city Some contributors are both practitioners and researchers on learning cities Some are primarily researchers who are focused on understanding learning cities gauging the benefits and potential of learning cities and formulating new theories and approaches The book also includes interviews with and contributions from key founding figures in the learning cities movement and in the development of UNESCO s Global Network of Learning Cities The book explores diverse initiatives that are shaping the lives of people in cities today and into the future fostering inclusivity sustainability and resilience Each chapter offers a unique perspective on the transformative power of lifelong learning and collective commitment Contributors share their insights from grassroots to high level policy discussions shedding light on the challenges and triumphs encountered along the way This is the first major book looking at learning cities across the globe from both theoretical and practical perspectives What sets it apart is the diversity in the material offered and the geographical and cultural spread of contexts Cities are becoming ever more important to the future of humanity learning cities are a vast laboratory of new and innovative ways in which people can learn together to create more fulfilling lives better opportunities and put into practice on a daily basis the four principles outlined in the Delors Report 1996 Learning to know Learning to do Learning to live together Learning to be This book is a valuable resource for policymakers educators and community leaders striving to build more inclusive and sustainable societies Whether embarking on the journey of developing a learning city or seeking inspiration from successful initiatives readers will find practical insights and thought provoking perspectives within these pages Africa and the Sustainable Development Goals Maano Ramutsindela, David Mickler, 2019-06-13 The book draws upon the expertise and international research collaborations forged by the Worldwide Universities Network Global Africa Group to critically engage with the intersection in theory and practice of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and Africa's development agendas and needs Further it argues that and demonstrates how the SDGs should be understood as an aspirational blueprint for development with multiple meanings that are situated in dynamic and contested terrains As the SDGs have substantial implications for development policy and resourcing at both the macro and micro levels their relevance is not only context specific but should also be assessed in terms of the aspirations and needs of ordinary citizens across the continent Drawing on analyses and evidence from both the natural and social sciences the book demonstrates that progress towards the SDGs must meet demands for improving human well being under diverse and challenging socio economic political and environmental conditions Examples include those from the mining industry public health employment and the media In closing it highlights how international collaboration in the form of research networks can enhance the production of critical knowledge on and engagement with the SDGs in Africa OECD Skills Studies OECD Skills Strategy Diagnostic Report: Spain 2015

OECD, 2015-09-22 Spain's economy is showing clear signs of recovery after a protracted recession Despite these positive developments significant challenges remain Spain has amongst the highest unemployment rates in the OECD and the Spanish economy was still smaller in 2014 than it was in 2007 While the Promoting sustainable local economic development initiatives Marius Venter, 2022 This book endeavours to outline case studies that promote sustainable Local Economic Development LED initiatives It is generally believed that local governments are the foot soldiers of LED However this seems to be a myth as local governments in South Africa and elsewhere have not yet fulfilled this mandate and have been struggling for several years to implement LED initiatives The distinctive merit of this book lies in the way it combines the South African context with the wider international development context in ways that there is a flow of information and ideas both ways The book is an essential part of this sequence of ideas development and action at a critical time for strategic action directed at a sustainable future It showcases case studies and responses to the impacts of globalisation as a bridge between urban rural and institutional action and reveals avenues for local government leadership in communities research student engagement and wider interactions Global Perspectives on Recognising Non-formal and Informal Learning Madhu Singh, 2015-06-05 This book deals with the relevance of recognition and validation of non formal and informal learning education and training the workplace and society In an increasing number of countries it is at the top of the policy and research agenda ranking among the possible ways to redress the glaring lack of relevant academic and vocational qualifications and to promote the development of competences and certification procedures which recognise different types of learning including formal non formal and informal learning The aim of the book is therefore to present and share experience expertise and lessons in such a way that enables its effective and immediate use across the full spectrum of country contexts whether in the developing or developed world It examines the importance of meeting institutional and political requirements that give genuine value to the recognition of non formal and informal learning it shows why recognition is important and clarifies its usefulness and the role it serves in education working life and voluntary work it emphasises the importance of the coordination interests motivations trust and acceptance by all stakeholders The volume is also premised on an understanding of a learning society in which all social and cultural groups irrespective of gender race social class ethnicity mental health difficulties are entitled to quality learning throughout their lives Overall the thrust is to see the importance of recognising non formal and informal learning as part of the larger movement for re directing education and training for change This change is one that builds on an equitable society and economy and on sustainable development principles and values such as respect for others respect for difference and diversity exploration and dialogue Re-thinking Adult Education Research. Beyond the Pandemic Vanna Boffo, Regina Egetenmeyer, 2023-08-04 This work is the result of the European INTALL Project International and Comparative Studies for Students and Practitioners in Adult Education and Lifelong Learning 2018 2021 From early September 2018 to the end of August 2021 this project allowed us to build knowhow about some specific issues of adult education The latest meeting of the INTALL project partners led to a conference about the role of Adult Education Research during and after Covid 19 and the importance of re thinking Lifelong and Lifewide Learning for the future Based on four sections Innovation and Future Competences in Adult Education Research Professionalisation in Adult Education Sustainability Inclusion and Wellbeing Topics for Adult Society and Smart Cities and Learning and Teaching in Higher Education in Post Pandemic Time A Digital Transformation the volume represents an opportunity to foster a debate on key issues in the field of Adult Learning and Education across Europe Learning as Development Daniel A. Wagner, 2017-10-04 Learning is the foundation of the human experience It begins at birth and never stops a continuous and malleable link across life stages of human development Disparities in learning access and outcomes around the world have deep consequences for income social mobility health and well being For international development practitioners faced with today s unprecedented environmental and geopolitical pressures learning should be viewed as a touchstone and target for those seeking to truly effect global change This book traces the path of international development work from its pre colonial origins to the emergence of economics as the dominant discipline in the field and lays out a new agenda for policymakers researchers and practitioners from early education through adulthood Learning as Development is an attempt to rethink international education in a changing world Mobile Phones & Literacy Belalcázar, Carolina, UNESCO, 2015-09-03 Despite the advancements made by Information and Communication Technologies in several international development sectors further evidence is needed on how mobile phone technology is reaching women improving their learning and providing them with new opportunities and better living conditions Can mobile phones develop womens literacy and strengthen their capability to choose and benefit from wider educational social and decent work opportunities that can improve their lives Based on a cross analysis of nine mobile learning projects in three world regions this publication sheds light on the extent to which mobile phones can enhance womens literacy and lead to their empowerment The challenges encountered among the nine projects reviewed and the recommendations derived from these experiences provide a way forward for policy makers and practitioners in the conceptualization and implementation of quality mobile learning as part of womens human development The Statesman's Yearbook 2013 B. Turner, 2017-01-12 Now in its 149th edition The Statesman's Yearbook continues to be the reference work of choice for accurate and reliable information on every country in the world Covering political economic social and cultural aspects the Yearbook is also available online for subscribing institutions www.statesmansyearbook.com New Drivers of Division Ya Ping Wang, Keith Kintrea, David Everatt, Debolina Kundu, 2025-09-02 This open access book provides recent trends of urbanization and inequality in Africa and Asia It addresses the inequality challenges of urbanization and large scale rural to urban migration It answers questions around socio economic and spatial inequalities and how serious those are in cities in Africa and Asia under 21st century urbanization Chapters demonstrate how the old neighborhood division in cities based on race ethnicity religion apartheid tribes caste and migrant are replaced by social class through sorting in the housing market The analyses go beyond the normal income inequality consideration and take a broader perspective on inequality by considering these issues at the neighborhood level to reveal the new spatial divisions in cities As such it is essential reading for academics and students in urban studies sociology geography planning and policymakers working on urban development around the world Essential Readings in International and Comparative Adult Education Jost Reischmann, 2021-06-01 Often in international comparative studies it is difficult to refer to older basic texts because they are hidden in old publications difficult to locate This book makes a selection of such old but essential texts available and wants to document the long history of the international comparative perspective Standing on the shoulder of giants allows not only a grounded look back but hopefully also a reliable and experience based look in the future The editor of this book Jost Reischmann Prof em Bamberg University Germany has a long history in international and comparative adult education He presented papers on conferences around the world from San Diego USA to Seoul Korea When the International Society for Comparative Adult Education ISCAE was founded in 1992 he became the first president and developed this society over many years We hope this new book will help old timers and new comers to contribute to the enriching world of international comparative adult education Learning Inclusion in a Digital Age Stephen Dobson,Brit Svoen,Gabriella Agrusti,Pip Hardy,2024-02-22 This open access book considers how inclusive learning wellbeing and active citizenship can be encouraged taught learnt and supported in a digital world The book poses and seeks to address three questions How can governments and intergovernmental organisations support learning inclusion and active citizenship How can the education sector and public private enterprises support learning inclusion and active citizenship How can professionals and communities work with vulnerable adults who are disadvantaged in a participatory empowering manner The Examples discussed in the book draw on the experiences of adult refugees and migrants as well as people who may experience disadvantage and or discrimination as a result of their social economic political cultural religious physical mental age or gender related status One methodological pillar in this work is the development of skills in digital storytelling and digital stories creation for personal community and professional purposes Conceptually and of interest for researcher and policy makers at local national and transnational levels this book brings together a number of related concepts to generate innovative understanding and practices of applied relevance in the age of the pandemic and its aftermath Fresh Perspectives on Later Life Learning Brian Findsen,2018-10-29 Over the last decade there has been a resurgence of interest in what adults learn in their later years often described as beyond 65 and how this learning is linked to current personal social and global issues This learning commonly occurs in informal ways as seniors go about their daily lives This kind of informal learning can be supplemented by non formal education via participation in planned learning as members of organizations and less frequently in formal education structures such as universities This book highlights how older people are learning in a myriad of ways and conditions It covers everything from individualistic learning through to national issues of older adult education Fresh perspectives are provided on biographical insights into retirement and higher education how older people generate know how in the company of others and in cross cultural aspects such as Chinese elders in Hong Kong and M ori seniors in Aotearoa New Zealand In addition the links between health and learning are explored as well as the commitment universities in three countries have made to become age friendly This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Lifelong Education Level-setting and recognition of learning outcomes UNESCO,2015-12-28 Critical Literacies and Gender Studies Inês Amaral,Ana Marta M. Flores,Rita Basílio de Simões,Eduardo Antunes,2025-05-01 Chapters highlight the importance of integrating critical literacies into educational curricula combating misinformation and fostering an inclusive digital environment Topics include European research on digital citizenship and gender equality the regulation of social platforms and mediated intimacies Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations,2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events The

Gender Pay Gap and Social Partnership in Europe Hazel Conley, Donata Gottardi, Geraldine Healy, Barbara Mikołajczyk, Marco Peruzzi, 2018-12-06 The gender pay gap GPG exists in every European country but it varies considerably even in EU member states covered by the same legal principles on pay equality Part of the variation can be explained by different patterns of social partnership With current policy pressure to de centralise collective bargaining and increase the percentage of pay linked to productivity what role can social partnership play in tackling the GPG Reporting on the findings of the European Commission funded research project Close the Deal Fill the Gap this book uses an interdisciplinary analysis involving legal economic and sociological expertise to explore the role of social partnership in GPG in Italy Poland and the UK Selected on the basis of their contrasting profiles in terms of legal regulation industrial relations systems of collective bargaining coverage of collective agreements and differing rates of the GPG the in depth study provides important insights into the main issues underlying the problem of reducing the gender pay gap which have led to guidelines in the negotiation of arrangements on GPG related issues Based on a unique comparative interdisciplinary and action oriented research project it will be of great interest to all researchers and advanced students with an interest in women s representation in the workforce and the gender pay gap as well as practitioners and policy makers in organisations such as trade unions and employers associations

Multilingual Learning and Language Supportive Pedagogies in Sub-Saharan Africa Elizabeth J. Erling, John Clegg, Casmir M. Rubagumya, Colin Reilly, 2021-07-01 This edited collection provides unprecedented insight into the emerging field of multilingual education in Sub Saharan Africa SSA Multilingual education is claimed to have many benefits amongst which are that it can improve both content and language learning especially for learners who may have low ability in the medium of instruction and are consequently struggling to learn The book represents a range of Sub Saharan school contexts and describes how multilingual strategies have been developed and implemented within them to support the learning of content and language It looks at multilingual learning from several points of view including translanguaging or the use of multiple languages and especially African languages for learning and language supportive pedagogy or the implementation of a distinct pedagogy to support learners working through the medium of a second language The book puts forward strategies for creating materials classroom environments and teacher education programmes which support the use of all of a student s languages to improve language and content learning The contexts which the book describes are challenging including low school resourcing poverty and low literacy in the home and school policy which militates against the use of African languages in school The volume also draws on multilingual education approaches which have been successfully carried out in higher resource countries and lend themselves to being adapted for use in SSA It shows how multilingual learning can bring about transformation in education and provides inspiration for how these strategies might spread and be further developed to improve learning in schools in SSA and beyond Chapter 3 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com>
