

Social Work Assessment

Patient information
Name: Jonathan Reed
Date of birth: March 15, 1985	Gender: Male
Address: 123 Maple Street, Springfield, IL 62704
Contact number: (555) 123-4567	Email address: john.reed@email.com
Date of consultation: September 20, 2024
Presenting concerns:
Johnathan presented concerns related to anxiety and depression, exacerbated by recent job loss and financial instability. He also expressed feelings of isolation due to limited social interaction and strained family relationships.
Background information/history:
Johnathan has a history of mental health challenges, including a diagnosis of generalized anxiety disorder (GAD) in 2017. He has had intermittent employment since 2020, working in construction before being laid off earlier this year. His family history includes mental health issues, as his father was diagnosed with bipolar disorder.
Support system:
Johnathan reports minimal support from his immediate family, though he maintains occasional contact with his older brother, who lives out of state. He has a few close friends but struggles to rely on them due to his feelings of guilt and fear of being a burden.
Assessment areas
Physical and mental health:	Social and environmental factors:
Johnathan's physical health is generally good, though he has reported increased fatigue and difficulty sleeping due to anxiety. His mental health requires ongoing attention, as he is experiencing heightened symptoms of anxiety and depression, affecting his day-to-day functioning.	Johnathan resides in a one-bedroom apartment in an economically disadvantaged neighborhood. Social isolation is a concern, as he has limited engagement with community resources or social activities.

Program Evaluation for Social Workers Richard M. Grinnell, Peter Gabor (Sociologist), Yvonne A. Unrau, 2016 First published in 1994 this text is designed to be used by graduate level social work students in courses on evaluation and program design Over the course of 20 years and 6 editions the goals of the book have remained the same to prepare students to participate in evaluative activities within their organizations to prepare students to become critical producers and consumers of professional evaluative literature and to prepare students for more advanced evaluation courses and texts Grinnell Gabor and Unrau aim to meet these objectives by presenting a unique approach that is realistic practical applied and user friendly While a majority of textbooks focus on program level evaluation some recent books present case level evaluation methods but rely on inferentially powerful but difficult to implement experimental baseline designs This text assumes that neither of these approaches adequately reflects the realities of the field or the needs of students and beginning practitioners Instead Program Evaluation for Social Workers offers a blend of the two that demonstrates how they can complement one another The integration of case level and program level approaches provides an accessible adaptable and realistic framework for students to more easily grasp and implement in the real world

Clinical Assessment for Social Workers Cathleen Jordan, Cynthia Franklin, 2020-09-15 The fifth edition of Clinical Assessment like earlier editions of this text continues to show how to combine practice wisdom and evidence based methods when formulating assessments and intervention plans This new edition also emphasizes the biopsychosocial spiritual framework and the importance of the strengths perspective in assessment including updates on neuroscience Additionally every chapter in this fifth edition includes new updated information that covers approaches to assessment and how to assess various client populations including clients who experience adverse childhood experiences trauma and clients from under represented minority backgrounds Like the 4th Edition of this text measurement instruments are added in each chapter including measures from the public domain that can be used for pedagogy and clinical practice Social Work Practice Eileen Gambrill,2012-10-31 The first textbook to emphasize the importance of critical thinking skills to practice this third edition of the classic Social Work Practice retains its unique focus on thinking critically about decisions that social workers make daily Organized around the phases of helping this hands on introduction highlights the decision points that social workers encounter during assessment intervention and evaluation This text together with its companion website provides students with a wealth of hands on exercises for developing and assessing their practice skills Most importantly it helps students enhance client well being by becoming critical thinkers and evidence informed practitioners Social Work Practice with Individuals and Families Michael J. Holosko,Catherine N. Dulmus,Karen M.
