

The Social Dilemma Movie Guide -K&N

Part One

- 1) Tristan explains that social media is so unprecedented in human history because "never before have 50 designers had an effect on 5 billion people." (8:53)
- 2) If you are the product being sold to advertisers by social media companies, what is it that they are paying for? (14:18)
Users' attention on the screen, leading to gradual, imperceptible changes in their behavior.
- 3) How do these companies ensure that their advertisers are successful? (15:18)
They can make great predictions of their users' behaviors because they collect a lot of data.
- 4) What are some of the things that are tracked when you go online? (16:18)
What is the purpose of getting this data? (17:51)
What you look at, how long you look at it, how you feel, your personality, etc.
The purpose is to make better predictions of our actions.
- 5) What is the goal of persuasive technology? (24:13)
Use psychology and build it into technology to modify your behavior; to program you at a deeper level.
- 6) Why does Tristan say that social media is not a tool? (30:14) What kind of technology environment do we have now? (30:36)
It is not passive; it demands things from you. We now have an addiction- and manipulation-based technology environment.
- 7) What happens when the girl in the family is asked to put her phone away for an hour? (35:34) Why is she unable to wait one hour?
Because of her addiction to her phone, she cannot wait even one hour to use it. Instead, she breaks the box.
- 8) What happens when she posts a picture of herself to social media? How do the comments that she gets make her feel? (38:32)
She gets some negative comments, which hurt her. She uses social media for connection and validation. Without it, she becomes depressed and unsure of herself and her appearance.
