Hutchison,2020-05-05 This is a custom eBook for Grand Canyon University Gods in the Global Village Lester R. Kurtz,2012 In an era plagued by religious conflict the Third Edition of Gods in the Global Village directly responds to issues of social problems prevalent in the world today Using an engaging thought provoking style author Lester R Kurtz focuses on the relationship among the major faith traditions that inform the thinking and ethical standards of most people in the emerging global social order This book focuses on a central aspect of that common crisis A major assumption of this book is that all knowledge is shaped by the social context of the knower therefore both religious traditions and our studies of them are shaped by the context in which we construct them The author argues that religious pluralism will be a necessary precondition of the global village for the foreseeable future The question that faces us as a human community is not Which religious tradition is true or even Is any religious tradition true but rather How can we enable the various religious and secular traditions to coexist peacefully on the planet The text supports the belief that the sociology of religion itself a pluralistic discipline can provide invaluable insight into the most pressing problems of our time Sociology David M. Newman,2025-05-14 Using vivid prose current examples and fresh data the Fifteenth Edition of Sociology Exploring the Architecture of Everyday Life presents a unique and thought provoking overview of how society is constructed and experienced Author David M Newman shows students how to see the unfamiliar in the familiar to step back and see organization and predictability in their take for granted personal experiences With his approachable writing style and lively anecdotes Newman s goal from the first edition has been the same to write a textbook that reads like a real book Many adopters of this book are fans of Peter Berger s classic works which helped introduce the idea of social constructionism to sociology Newman uses the metaphors of architecture and construction to help students understand that society is not something that exists out there independently of themselves it is a human creation that is planned maintained or altered by individuals The Social Theory of W.E.B. Du Bois Phil Zuckerman,2004-02-20 Karl Marx Max Weber and Emile Durkheim are widely recognized as the trinity of sociological theory While these three sociologists were trailblazing social theorists who enhanced the study of human behavior and its relationship to social institutions other more contemporary scholars were just as innovative one of those scholars being W E B Du Bois W E B Du Bois was a political and literary giant of the 20th century publishing over twenty books and thousand of essays and articles throughout his life In The Social Theory of W E B Du Bois editor Phil Zuckerman assembles Du Bois s work from a wide variety of sources including articles Du Bois published in newspapers speeches he delivered selections from well known classics such as The Souls of Black Folk and Darkwater and lesser known hard to find material written by this revolutionary social theorist W E B Du Bois is arguably one of the most imaginative perceptive and prolific founders of the sociological discipline In addition to leading the Pan African movement and being an activist for civil rights for African Americans Du Bois was a pioneer of urban sociology an innovator of rural sociology a leader in criminology the first American sociologist of religion and most notably the first great social theorist of race The Social Theory of W E B Du Bois is the first book to examine Du Bois s writings from a sociological perspective and emphasize his theoretical contributions This volume covers topics such as the meaning of race race relations international relations economics labor politics religion crime gender and education The Social Theory of W E B Du Bois offers an excellent introduction to the sociological theory of one of the 20th century s intellectual beacons It is a dynamic text for undergraduate and graduate students studying sociological theory African American studies and race and ethnicity Essentials of
