

Kensington Valley Hockey Association
Pee Wee AA Hockey Club

THANK YOU for trying out for the Kensington Valley Pee Wee AA 2007-2008 Fall Travel Hockey Team!

Unfortunately, we are faced with the tough decision of picking only a handful of players. The coaching staff has made every effort to make the tryouts a fair and enjoyable experience for every child and parent. We understand that not making a team is a disappointing time in our lives. It is also a time to hold your head high and to be proud of your accomplishments. Every child worked very hard and displayed great admiration for this outstanding sport!

Though you have not been selected for this Fall team, we encourage you to try again in the Spring. We want to remain friends and would like to see how your upcoming season progresses. If you see one of the coaches, other players or parents, let them know how you are doing. We honestly do care for all of these fine kids!

Please continue to practice and play to the best of your abilities. Work on the things that will make you a better hockey player. The coaches had some difficult decisions this tryout and it is your job to put them to the test in the Spring!

We appreciate all of the parents who have helped us out and have become our friends, thank you very much!

Best of Luck,

Tom Miller
Head Coach

Softball Tryout Rejection Letter:

Gender and Genre in Sports Documentaries Zachary Ingle, David M. Sutera, 2013 Nonfiction films about sports have been around for decades but the previously neglected subgenre of the documentary has become increasingly popular in the last several years. Despite such recent successes as Senna, Undeclared, and ESPN's 30 for 30 series, however, few scholarly articles have been published on these works. In Gender and Genre in Sports Documentaries, editors Zachary Ingle and David M. Sutera have assembled essays that examine the various aspects of this art form. Some address questions of gender and sexuality, specifically how masculinity and homosexuality are represented in sports documentaries. Others focus on the characteristics of these films, exploring aspects of aesthetics and narrative. In addition to chapters on basketball, football, baseball, boxing, tennis, and auto racing, this collection features marginalized sports like quad rugby, pro wrestling, live action role playing, LARPing, and bodybuilding. Some of the films described will be familiar to readers, such as Murderball and Bigger Stronger Faster; others are less well known yet important works worthy of scrutiny. Questions about gender, sexuality, and masculinity remain hot topics in sports discourse, and this collection tackles those subjects, making Gender and Genre in Sports Documentaries an intriguing read for scholars, students, and the general public alike.

Identity and Myth in Sports Documentaries Zachary Ingle, David M. Sutera, 2013 Nonfiction films about sports have been around for decades, yet few scholarly articles have been published on these works. In Identity and Myth in Sports Documentaries, editors Zachary Ingle and David M. Sutera have assembled a collection of essays that show how myth and identity—national, religious, ethnic, and racial—are constructed, perpetuated, or questioned in documentaries produced in the United States, France, Australia, Germany, and Japan. This collection is divided into three sections. American Identity and Myth contains essays on consumerism, religion in sports, and post-9/11 America. Race and Ethnicity examines the ways in which African American, Mexican American, and Jewish identity are portrayed in the documentaries under discussion. Global Perspectives features films and TV series produced outside the United States or those that provide perspectives on the international sport scene. Spanning several decades, the landmark documentaries discussed in this volume include Hoop Dreams, The Endless Summer, The Life and Times of Hank Greenberg, Olympia, and Tokyo Olympiad, and address such subjects as baseball, football, basketball, boxing, soccer, surfing, and the Olympics. The essays pose such questions as: How are notions of the American dream involved in athletes' aspirations? How do media texts from Australia or France construct Australian and French identity, respectively? How did filmmakers such as Leni Riefenstahl, Kon Ichikawa, and Bud Greenspan infuse their Olympic documentaries with national ideology, despite being intended for an international audience? By tackling these subjects, Identity and Myth in Sports Documentaries is an intriguing read for scholars, students, and the general public alike.
