Sol Plaatje University Application Forms 2015:

Sol Plaatje's Mhudi Sabata-mpho Mokae, Brian Willan, 2021 Sol Plaatje's Mhudi is the first full length novel in English to have been written by a black South African and is widely regarded as one of South Africa's most important literary works. Set in the 1830s it tells the tale of Mhudi and Ra Thaga a romantic story set against a violent backdrop of war between Barolong and Matebele complicated by the intrusions of Boer trekkers with whom the Barolong form an alliance. It is notable among other things for the way Plaatje uses the past to explore the roots of the oppression and injustice suffered by his people a century later when the book was written. Corrupted Jonathan D Jansen, 2023-02 Through investigatory reports and interviews Jonathan Jansen reveals the structural conditions for chronic dysfunction in a sample of South African universities. He reveals the political economy at work and the intense competition for resources on campuses. He also provides interventions for these fragile institutions. Why do some universities seem to be in a constant state of turmoil and dysfunction? Jonathan Jansen explores the root causes of chronic instability in a sample of South African universities. Through scrutiny of investigatory reports and interviews with more than 100 university managers and government officials Jansen finds that at the heart of the dysfunction in universities is an intense and sometimes deadly competition for resources especially on campuses located in impoverished communities. It is not the lack of institutional resources but their concentration in a university that draws a mix of corrupt actors from local politicians and taxi operators to members of council and management into a never ending run on the material such as money for infrastructure and symbolic namely graduation certificates for sale assets of these institutions Jansen argues that the problem won't be solved through investments in capacity building alone because the combination of institutional capacity and institutional integrity contributes to serial instability in universities Jansen makes an important intervention to understanding the root causes and offers interventions to produce stabilities such as the depoliticisation of university councils and appointing academics of integrity and capacity in the management and leadership of these fragile institutions This groundbreaking and long overdue study will offer a promising way forward for universities to better serve their communities and the country more broadly kinship remains elusive The Cambridge Companion to the Postcolonial Novel Ato Quayson, 2015-12-01 The Cambridge Companion to the Postcolonial Novel provides an engaging account of the postcolonial novel from Joseph Conrad to Jean Rhys Reflecting the development of postcolonial literary studies into a significant and intellectually vibrant field this Companion explores genres and theoretical movements such as magical realism crime fiction ecocriticism and gender and sexuality Written by a host of leading scholars in the field this book offers insight into the representative movements cultural settings and critical reception that define the postcolonial novel Covering subjects from disability and diaspora to the sublime and the city this Companion reveals the myriad traditions that have shaped the postcolonial literary landscape and will serve as a valuable resource to students and established scholars alike Landscapes of Realism Dirk Göttsche, Rosa Mucignat, Robert Weninger, 2021-04-15 Few literary phenomena are as elusive and yet as persistent as realism While it responds to the perennial impulse to use literature to reflect on experience it also designates a specific set of literary and artistic practices that emerged in response to Western modernity Landscapes of Realism is a two volume collaborative interdisciplinary exploration of this vast territory bringing together leading edge new criticism on the realist paradigms that were first articulated in nineteenth century Europe but have since gone on globally to transform the literary landscape Tracing the manifold ways in which these paradigms are developed discussed and contested across time space cultures and media this first volume tackles in its five core essays and twenty five case studies such questions as why realism emerged when it did why and how it developed such a transformative dynamic across languages to what extent realist poetics remain central to art and popular culture after 1900 and how generally to reassess realism from a twenty first century comparative perspective Rethinking African Cultural Production Kenneth W. Harrow, Frieda Ekotto, 2015-05-29 Frieda Ekotto Kenneth W Harrow and an international group of scholars set forth new understandings of the conditions of contemporary African cultural production in this forward looking volume Arguing that it is impossible to understand African cultural productions without knowledge of the structures of production distribution and reception that surround them the essays grapple with the shifting notion of what African means when many African authors and filmmakers no longer live or work in Africa While the arts continue to flourish in Africa addressing questions about marginalization what is center and what periphery what traditional or conservative and what progressive or modern requires an expansive view of creative production Global Shakespeare and Social Injustice Chris Thurman, Sandra Young, 2023-05-04 The chapters in this book constitute a timely response to an important moment for early modern cultural studies the academy has been called to attend to questions of social justice It requires a revision of the critical lexicon to be able to probe the relationship between Shakespeare studies and the intractable forms of social injustice that infuse cultural political and economic life This volume helps us to imagine what radical and transformative pedagogy theatre making and scholarship might look like The contributors both invoke and invert the paradigm of Global Shakespeare building on the vital contributions of this scholarly field over the past few decades but also suggesting ways in which it cannot quite accommodate the various global Shakespeares presented in these pages A focus on social justice and on the many forms of social injustice that demand our attention leads to a consideration of the North South constructions that have tended to shape Global Shakespeare conceptually in the same way the material histories of North and South have shaped global injustice as we recognise it today Such a focus invites us to consider the creative ways in which Shakespeare s imagination has been taken up by theatre makers and scholars alike and marshalled in pursuit of a more just world

A History of the Modernist Novel Gregory Castle,2015-06-25 A History of the Modernist Novel reassesses the modernist canon and produces a wealth of new comparative analyses that radically revise the novel s history It also considers the novel s global reach while suggesting that the epoch of modernism is not yet finished Poverty

Knowledge in South Africa Grace Davie,2015-02-05 Poverty is South Africa s greatest challenge But what is poverty How can it be measured And how can it be reduced if not eliminated In South Africa human science knowledge about the cost of living grew out of colonialism industrialization apartheid and civil resistance campaigns which makes this knowledge far from neutral or apolitical South Africans have used the Poverty Datum Line PDL Gini coefficients and other poverty thresholds to petition the state to chip away at the pillars of white supremacy and more recently to criticize the postapartheid government s failures to deliver on some of its promises Rather than promoting one particular policy solution this book argues that poverty knowledge teaches us about the dynamics of historical change the power of racism in white settler societies and the role of grassroots protest movements in shaping state policies and scientific categories Readers will gain new perspectives on today s debates about social welfare redistribution and human rights and will ultimately find reasons to rethink conventional approaches to advocacy The Modernist World Allana Lindgren,Stephen Ross,2015-06-05 The Modernist

World is an accessible yet cutting edge volume which redraws the boundaries and connections among interdisciplinary and transnational modernisms The 61 new essays address literature visual arts theatre dance architecture music film and intellectual currents The book also examines modernist histories and practices around the globe including East and Southeast Asia South Asia Sub Saharan Africa Australia and Oceania Europe Latin America the Middle East and the Arab World as well as the United States and Canada A detailed introduction provides an overview of the scholarly terrain and highlights different themes and concerns that emerge in the volume The Modernist World is essential reading for those new to the subject as well as more advanced scholars in the area offering clear introductions alongside new and refreshing insights Creative Writing In Prose Macgoye, Marjorie Oludhe,2015-03-16 Creative Writing In Prose is centered on novel writing but touches on other prose forms It covers the process from the germination of the story to the submission of the manuscript for publication Plot narrative methods the recording of dialogue and the subtle relationship between story and theme are all examined State of Peril Lucy Valerie Graham,2015 Considering fiction from the colonial era to the present State of Peril offers the first sustained scholarly examination of rape narratives in the literature of a country that has extremely high levels of sexual violence Lucy Graham demonstrates how despite the fact that most incidents of rape in South Africa are not interracial narratives of interracial rape have dominated the national imaginary Seeking to understand this phenomenon the study draws on Michel Foucault's ideas on sexuality and biopolitics as well as Judith Butler's speculations on race and cultural melancholia Historical analysis of the body politic provides the backdrop for careful close readings of literature by Olive Schreiner Sol Plaatje Sarah Gertrude Millin Njabulo Ndebele J M Coetzee Zo Wicomb and others Ultimately State of Peril argues for ethically responsible interpretations that recognize high levels of sexual violence in South Africa while parsing the racialized inferences and assumptions implicit in literary representations of bodily violation

Grounds of Engagement Stéphane Robolin, 2015-08-30 Part literary history part cultural study Grounds of Engagement examines the relationships and exchanges between black South African and African American writers who sought to create common ground throughout the antiapartheid era St phane Robolin argues that the authors geographic imaginations crucially defined their individual interactions and ultimately the literary traditions on both sides of the Atlantic Subject to the tyranny of segregation authors such as Richard Wright Bessie Head Langston Hughes Gwendolyn Brooks Keorapetse Kgotsile Michelle Cliff and Richard Rive charted their racialized landscapes and invented freer alternative geographies They crafted rich representations of place to challenge the stark social and spatial arrangements that framed their lives Those representations Robolin contends also articulated their desires for black transnational belonging and political solidarity The first book to examine U S and South African literary exchanges in spatial terms Grounds of Engagement identifies key moments in the understudied history of black cross cultural exchange and exposes how geography serves as an indispensable means of shaping and reshaping modern racial meaning Sharing the Earth, 2015-06-15 The first of its kind this anthology of eighty international primary literary texts poems short stories personal essays testimonials activist statements and group authored visions illuminates Environmental Justice as a concept and a movement worldwide in a way that is accessible to students scholars and general readers Also included are historical selections that ground contemporary pieces in a continuum of activist concern for the earth and human justice a much needed but seldom available perspective Arts and humanities are crucial in the ongoing effort to achieve an ecologically sustainable and just world Works of the human imagination provide analyses articulations of experience and positive visions of the future that no amount of statistics data charts or graphs can offer because literature speaks not only to the intellect but also to our emotions Creative literary work which records human experience both past and present has the power to warn to persuade and to inspire Each is critical in the shared struggle for Environmental Justice
