Chinua Achebe's Legacy Ogude, James, 2015-12-01 Chinua Achebe s novels and essays have always drawn our attention to issues of memory the story history and our own obligation to history as Africans Achebe constantly goes back to the authority of narrative the story and as the subsequent generations of African writers like Chimamanda Adichie keep returning to to celebrate Africa s many stories its moments of failure and triumph Achebe more than any other writer on this continent has inspired many and hopefully the African story tellers of the coming centuries irrespective of their location will continue to be inspired by him This collection of essays is an enduring tribute to this rich legacy of Achebe

White Belongings Scott Burnett, 2022-07-21 White Belongings Race Land and

Property in Post Apartheid South Africa deepens ongoing critical deconstruction of the role of whiteness in maintaining racial order Scott Burnett argues that the protection of white entitlement and cultural connection to the land are intimately interwoven using detailed discourse analysis of campaigns aimed at preventing rhino poaching stopping fracking in the Karoo and advocating for the existence of a poverty crisis which reveal how whites hold on to their belongings in everyday talk White Belongings goes beyond the preoccupation with identity in whiteness studies to elaborate how specific subject roles and institutions are motivated and rationalized in hegemonic discursive regimes

The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature Gigi Adair, Rebecca Fasselt, Carly McLaughlin, 2024-07-30 The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature offers a comprehensive survey of an increasingly important field It demonstrates the influence of the age of migration on literature and showcases the role of literature in shaping socio political debates and creating knowledge about the migratory trajectories lives and experiences that have shaped the post 1989 world The contributors examine a broad range of literary texts and critical approaches that cover the spectrum between voluntary and forced migration In doing so they reflect the shift in recent years from the author centric study of migrant writing to a more inclusive conception of migration literature The book contains sections on key terms and critical approaches in the field important genres of migration literature a range of forms and trajectories of migration with a particular focus on the global South and on migration literature s relevance in social contexts outside the academy Its range of scholarly voices on literature from different geographical contexts and in different languages is central to its call for and contribution to a pluriversal turn in literary migration studies in future scholarship This Companion will be of particular interest to scholars working on contemporary migration literature and it also offers an introduction to new students and scholars from other fields Chapter 15 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Suburbs Marie Bouchet,Nathalie Cochoy,Isabelle Keller-Privat,Mathilde Rogez,2022-02-01 While suburbs provide a rich field of research for sociologists architects urbanists and anthropologists they have not been given much attention in literary and cultural studies The Suburbs New Literary Perspectives sets out to enrich the limited existing body of critical analysis on the subject with a landmark collection of essays offering a far larger perspective than the books or collections published so far on the topic This interdisciplinary and wide ranging approach includes literary and art studies philosophy and cultural comment It examines the suburbs across cultural differences contrasting British South African and North American suburbs The specificity of this book therefore lies in a cross national and cross continental exploration of these unchartered territories The suburbs are redefined as those rebellious margins whose geographical borders are necessarily fuzzy and sketch out a common place where cultural frontiers can be transcended They are to use Sarah Nuttall s terminology places of entanglement where contraries meet and where new ways of being in the world is reborn Seen through the prism of art and literature the suburbs may then be recognized as philosopher Bruce B gout argues as a new way of thinking and making urban space
