Sol Plaatjie Application Forms 2016:

Sol Plaatjie's Mhudi Sabata-mpho Mokae, Brian Willan, 2021 Sol Plaatjie's Mhudi is the first full length novel in English to have been written by a black South African and is widely regarded as one of South Africa's most important literary works. Set in the 1830s it tells the tale of Mhudi and Ra Thaga a romantic story set against a violent backdrop of war between Barolong and Matebele complicated by the intrusions of Boer trekkers with whom the Barolong form an alliance. It is notable among other things for the way Plaatjie uses the past to explore the roots of the oppression and injustice suffered by his people a century later when the book was written. Biochar for Environmental Remediation Willis Gwenzi, 2025-01-31 Biochar for Environmental Remediation: Principles, Applications and Prospects synthesizes state of the art knowledge on biochar based systems for environmental remediation. This book examines a wide variety of biochar applications for the remediation of inorganic, organic, microbial and emerging contaminants in various environmental media including drinking water, industrial wastewater, urban stormwater, industrial and indoor air pollution and contaminated lands and soils. An increasing body of evidence shows that biochars have potential applications in environmental remediation of contaminants in soils, aqueous systems and air pollution control. This book uses a systematic approach covering biochar preparation, properties and characteristics, removal mechanisms, industrial applications, regeneration and disposal of spent biochar, life cycle analysis and environmental and human health risks. Researchers, engineers and graduate students will find this to be a valuable reference for understanding opportunities for the use of biochar in environmental remediation as it fills the gaps in existing literature and offers a clear roadmap to guide future research. Addresses the whole biochar cycle from preparation, principles of application, industrial application domains, regeneration, recycling and final disposal, life cycle analysis and environmental and human health risks. Covers a broad range of inorganic, organic, microbial and emerging contaminants providing a one stop source of biochar information. Presents applications of biochar in the remediation of diverse environmental media including drinking water, industrial wastewater, urban stormwater, acid mine drainage, contaminated lands and soils and industrial and indoor air pollution control.

Using African Epistemologies in Shaping Inclusive Education Knowledge Mbulaheni Obert Maguvhe, Mfundo Mandla Masuku, 2023-07-13 This book thus explores the role of African epistemologies in addressing the myriad challenges posed by the inclusive education system in Africa and other contexts. In recent years the shift from special education to inclusive education has had a significant impact on the provision of education and the education system as a whole in Africa. The impact has been felt in all institutions of learning from low to high public and private government and across departments of education. Inclusive education if shaped correctly by using African epistemologies would empower learners to attain the relevant skills, knowledge, values and attitudes for their own intellectual growth and personal development.

Urban Tourism in the Global South Christian M. Rogerson,Jayne M. Rogerson,2021-07-13 This book examines and addresses the particular character of urban tourism occurring in the global South It presents research essays on tourism in urban areas of South Africa a country which is associated with big 5 nature tourism but where urban areas are also major tourism destinations The book contextualizes urban tourism in South Africa as part of the other half of urban tourism an overlooked but energetic scholarship which is emerging on urban places in the global South The volume moves to present a collection of original material variously on national perspectives on urban tourism following by a cluster of city level perspectives The last three contributions turn to the role of tourism in small towns the bottom rung in the urban settlement system Issues of concern include gastronomic tourism VFR travel airportscapes climate change AirBnb and creative tourism Finally as COVID 19 is potentially a defining historical moment for urban tourism the volume incorporates historical research perspectives in order to address the overwhelming present mindedness of mainstream urban tourism writings The book highlights the challenges and opportunities for tourism development in the environment of the urban global South and is relevant to scholars of both tourism and urban studies as well as researchers in development studies The Evolutions of Modernist Epic Václav Paris,2021-01-07 Modernist epic is more interesting and more diverse than we have supposed As a radical form of national fiction it appeared in many parts of the world in the early twentieth century Reading a selection of works from the United States England Ireland Czechoslovakia and Brazil The Evolutions of Modernist Epic develops a comparative theory of this genre and its global development That development was it argues bound up with new ideas about biological evolution During the first decades of the twentieth century a period known in the history of evolutionary science as the eclipse of Darwinism evolution s significance was questioned rethought and ultimately confined to the Neo Darwinist discourse with which we are familiar today Epic fiction participated in and was shaped by this shift Drawing on queer forms of sexuality to cultivate anti heroic and non progressive modes of telling national stories the genre contested reductive and reactionary forms of social Darwinism The book describes how in doing so the genre asks us to revisit our assumptions about ethnolinguistics and organic nationalism It also models how the history of evolutionary thought can provide a new basis for comparing diverse modernisms and their peculiar nativisms Biodiversity Informatics: Building a Lifeboat for High Functionality Data to Decision Pipeline Cang Hui,Nick Isaac,Quentin Groom,Vernon Visser,Sandra MacFadyen,2024-03-06 Hospitalities Merle A. Williams,2020-12-23 This collection of imaginative essays traces notions of hospitality across a sequence of theoretical permutations not only as an urgent challenge for our conflicted present but also as foundational for ethics and resonant within the play of language The plural form of the title highlights the inter implication of hospitality with its exclusive others holding suspicious rejection in tension with the receptiveness that transforms socio cultural relations Geographically the collection traverses the globe from Australia and Africa to Britain Europe and the United States weaving exchanges from south to north as well as south to south and thoughtfully remapping our world Temporally the chapters range from the primordial hospitality offered by the earth through the Middle Ages to contemporary detention centres and the crisis of homelessness Thematically hospitality embraces sites of dwelling and the land humans and animals in their complex embodiment spectres and the dead dolls and art objects This text openly welcomes the reader to participate in shaping fresh critical discourses of the hospitable whether in literary and linguistic studies art and architecture philosophy or politics

Contemporary Military Geosciences in South Africa Hennie Smit,2019-03-31 Contemporary Military Geosciences in South Africa presents the reader with chapters celebrating the scope reach and impact of themes researched by military geoscientists The first topics under investigation ranges from battlefield archaeology and battlefield tourism to military environmental management and the development of a unique South African spatial decision support system for military integrated environmental management This is followed by an in depth look at contemporary maritime factors at play in South Africa The book is concluded by an analysis of the issues surrounding military mobility software and terrain negotiability as well as a comprehensive examination of how geographic factors influence the distribution of natural radionuclides in a military area

Public Intellectuals in South Africa Chris Broodryk, 2021-07-01 This edited collection gives voice to neglected public intellectuals in the arts humanities and journalism in South Africa who gave voice and presence to those who have been marginalized and silenced in South African history Edward Said described a public intellectual as someone who uses accessible language to address a designated public on matters of social and political significance The essays in Public Intellectuals in South Africa apply this interpretive prism and activist principle to a South African context and tell the stories of well known figures as well as some that have been mostly forgotten They include Magera Fuze John Dube Aggrey Klaaste Mewa Ramgobin and Koos Roets alongside marginalized figures such as Elijah Makiwane Mandisi Sindo William Pretorius and Dr Thomas Duncan Greenlees The essays capture the thoughts and opinions of these historical figures who the contributors argue are public intellectuals who spoke out against the corruption of power promoted a progressive politics that challenged the colonial project and its legacies and encouraged a sustained dissent of the political status quo Offering fascinating accounts of the life and work of these writers critics and activists across a range of historical contexts and disciplines from journalism and arts criticism to history and politics it enriches the historical record of South African public intellectual life This volume makes a significant contribution to ongoing debates about the value of research in the arts and humanities and what constitutes public intellectualism in South Africa

Promoting sustainable local economic development initiatives Marius Venter, 2022 This book endeavours to outline case studies that promote sustainable Local Economic Development LED initiatives It is generally believed that local governments are the foot soldiers of LED However this seems to be a myth as local governments in South Africa and elsewhere have not yet fulfilled this mandate and have been struggling for several years to implement LED initiatives The distinctive merit of this book lies in the way it combines the South African context with the wider international development context in ways that there is a flow of information and ideas both ways The book is an essential part of this sequence of ideas development and action at a critical time for strategic action directed at a sustainable future It showcases case studies and responses to the impacts of globalisation as a bridge between urban rural and institutional action and reveals avenues for local government leadership in communities research student engagement and wider interactions

Segregated Species Jules Skotnes-Brown, 2024-07-30 A timely history of the connections between science segregation and species in twentieth century South Africa Winner of the First Book Prize by the Royal Historical Society Throughout the twentieth century rural South Africa was dominated by systems of racial segregation and apartheid that brutally oppressed its Black population At the same time the countryside was defined by a related settler obsession the control of animals that farmers scientists and state officials considered pests Elephants rampaged on farmlands trampling fences crops and occasionally humans Grain eating birds flocked on plantations devouring harvests Bubonic plague crept across the veld in the bodies of burrowing and crop devouring rodents In Segregated Species Jules Skotnes Brown argues that racial segregation and pest control were closely connected in early twentieth century South Africa Strategies for the containment of pests were redeployed for the management of humans and vice versa Settlers blamed racialized populations for the abundance of pests and mobilized metaphors of pestilence to dehumanize them Even knowledge produced about pests was segregated into the binary categories of native and scientific Black South Africans critiqued such injustices and some circulated revolutionary rhetoric through images and metaphors of locusts Ultimately pest control practices played an important role in shaping colonial hierarchies of race and species and in mediating relationships among human groups Skotnes Brown demonstrates that the history of South Africa and colonial history generally cannot be fully understood without analyzing the treatment of both animals and humans

Sustainability of Southern African Ecosystems under Global Change Graham P. von Maltitz, Guy F. Midgley, Jennifer Veitch, Christian Brümmer, Reimund P. Rötter, Finn A. Viehberg, Maik Veste, 2024-01-05 This open access book about the sustainability of marine and terrestrial ecosystems in southern Africa provides a synthesis of the research program Science Partnerships for the Adaptation to Complex Earth System Processes SPACES II 2018 2022 It addresses the scientific social and economic issues related to climate change its potential impacts on the various ecosystems adaptations and management interventions for enhancing systems resilience in Southern Africa It is written by numerous scientists from African states and Germany and summarizes the latest research findings which are of great relevance for a better understanding of climate change impacts adaptations and vulnerabilities as well as for developing management options and policy options to reduce the associated risks This is crucial considering that the projected African population increase is exceptional Furthermore climate change is assumed to hit southern Africa extremely hard with a significant increase in extreme events and the frequency of severe droughts heat waves and flooding Southern Africa hosts a high variety of ecosystems which belongs to important biodiversity hotspots for unique flora and fauna The surrounding oceans form in turn a bottle neck within the ocean s global thermohaline circulation act as a still poorly understood carbon sink and source and play an important role for fisheries as they are highly productive Considering these important aspects the book is an important interdisciplinary contribution to the scientific literature and will find a wide readership The book is aimed at students teachers and scientists in the fields of terrestrial and marine ecology environmental nature and landscape planning agriculture environmental and resource management biodiversity and nature conservation as well as scientists and representatives in specialised authorities and associations nature conservationists and policy makers of related disciplines South African Urban Change Three Decades After Apartheid Anthony Lemon, Ronnie

Donaldson, Gustav Visser, 2021-06-10 This book provides an analysis of South African urban change over the past three decades It draws on a seminal text Homes Apart and revisits conclusions drawn in that collection that marked the final phases of urban apartheid It highlights changes in demography social as well as economic structure and their differential spatial expression across a range of urban sites in South Africa The evidence presented in this book points to a very complex set of narratives in urban South Africa and one that cannot be reduced to a singular statement so the conclusions of the various investigations are in many ways open As urban apartheid represented one clear outcome its post apartheid urban legacies varies greatly from city to city As such this book is a great resource to students and academics focused on urban change in South African cities since the demise of apartheid and scholars of urban policy making in South Africa and Southern urbanists generally Routledge Handbook of African Literature Moradewun Adejunmobi, Carli

Coetzee, 2019-03-13 The turn of the twenty first century has witnessed an expansion of critical approaches to African literature The Routledge Handbook of African Literature is a one stop publication bringing together studies of African literary texts that embody an array of newer approaches applied to a wide range of works This includes frameworks derived from food studies utopian studies network theory eco criticism and examinations of the human animal interface alongside more familiar discussions of postcolonial politics Every chapter is an original research essay written by a broad spectrum of scholars with expertise in the subject providing an application of the most recent insights into analysis of particular topics or application of particular critical frameworks to one or more African literary works The handbook will be a valuable interdisciplinary resource for scholars and students of African literature African culture postcolonial literature and literary analysis Chapter 4 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
