 been written about the political and economical aspects of regionalism but the legal perspective has been neglected East Asian Regionalism From a Legal Perspective is unique in synthesizing legal economic and political analyses In the first part the book investigates the current features of regionalism from a comparative perspective looking at economic and currency cooperation and comparing Asian regionalism with Europe and Latin America In the second part the contributors go on to look at the present legal features of regionalism covering institutional frameworks trade diversity and regional integration
 The third part of the book is truly unique in proposing an essential groundwork for the institutionalisation of an East Asian Community It conceives a draft East Asian Charter an essential document that distils what East Asian nations have achieved and also includes integral principles and fundamental rules for future cooperation among countries and peoples in the region This book will be of interest to graduates and academics interested in regionalism international relations international law

 Merritt, 2021-05-10 The Outsiders journal unearths 10 beautifully simple stories told over 104 recycled pages of words and images Through an amalgamation of documentary photography and intimate articles each touching on sensitive subjects the project reveals the affinity people have for the outdoors In this specific edition Her Stories challenges the modern archetype of women in outdoor media and sparks a conversation about authenticity and role models in the natural world The edition consists of multidisciplinary interviews and artist collaborations told through 55 photographs and 8 illustrations This is a journal for anyone and everyone who shares a love for journeys and adventure told through a uniquely slow meaningful and authentic style that is often lost in modern journalism The purpose of this publication is to encourage more people to enjoy the outdoors and values everybody interested in the natural world As we look to the future we must envision the power that we have as environmental stewards to reconnect with nature and care for it Australian Books in Print 1995 Thorpe, D.
