The City The City English Edition:

Valerian & Laureline - Volume 1 - The City of Shifting Waters Jean-Claude Mézières, Pierre

Christin, 2013-01-22T00:00:00+01:00 Galaxy capital of the Terran Empire in the 28th century Valerian and Laureline are agents who protect mankind from rogue time travellers Now they are sent to New York in 1986 to intercept Galaxy's worst megalomaniac Xombul except that in 1986 the world is in ruins and New York is about to be swallowed by the ocean The two agents must navigate the shifting waters of the past to make sure that the future will exist Official Gazette. English

Edition Japan, 1948 The City Besieged Israel Eph'al, 2009-03-16 Exploring the military legal social and literary aspects of ancient warfare this study examines the multifaceted nature of the siege phenomenon in the Ancient Near East The book is based on Akkadian and biblical and to lesser degree Greek Aramaic Egyptian Hittite and Ugaritic sources as well as on the depictions on reliefs from Assyrian palaces and Egyptian temples The analysis incorporates lexical study and military thinking and focuses on the technology of warfare and human behavior in a state of emergency This volume is a co publication between Brill and The Hebrew University Magnes Press this book serves as an excellent overview of siege practices and their result as seen from the biblical and Mesopotamian perspective Michael G Hasel Institute of Archaeology Southern Adventist University Law and the City Andreas Philippopoulos-Mihalopoulos, 2007-05-07 Law and the City offers a lateral critical and often unexpected description of some of the most important cities in the world including Moscow Istanbul Berlin Singapore Athens Mexico City Toronto Sydney Johannesburg each one from a distinctive legal perspective An invaluable guide to adopting a different approach to the city and its history culture and everyday experience Law and the City is not simply an exploration of the relationship between these two spheres It details a flourishing of law's spatiality and urban legal locality an unfolding of both the juridical urban body and the city's legal dreams of both the urban law and the juridical polis Enlightening and at the same time problematizing the reader this volume is an innovative collection of truly global dimensions that will prove compelling reading both for specialists and for critical travellers New York City

English Michael Newman, 2014-10-09 New York City English is one of the most recognizable of US dialects and research on it launched modern sociolinguistics Yet the city's speech has never before received a comprehensive description and analysis In this book Michael Newman examines the differences and similarities among the ways English is spoken by the extraordinarily diverse population living in the NY dialect region He uses data from a variety of sources including older dialectological accounts classic and recent variationist studies and original research on speakers from around the dialect region All levels of language are explored including phonology morphosyntax lexicon and discourse along with a history of English in the region But this book provides far more than a dialectological and historical inventory of linguistic features The forms used by different groups of New Yorkers are discussed in terms of their complex social meanings Furthermore Newman illustrates the varied forms of sociolinguistic significance with examples from the personal experiences of a variety of New Yorkers and includes links to sound files on the publisher's site and videos on YouTube The result is a rigorous but accessible and compelling account of the English spoken in this great city The English Version of the Polyglott Bible,1843 Tourism and the Branded City Stephanie Donald,John G. Gammack,2007-01-01 Comparing the major Pacific Rim cities of Sydney Hong Kong and Shanghai this book examines world city branding Using an interdisciplinary approach it draws in cultural studies and psychology approaches to offer fresh and useful insights to place branding and marketing in general The City of the Saints Sir Richard Francis Burton,1861 Bulletin of the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library,1890 Chaucer and the City Ardis Butterfield,2006 Presenting essays exploring Chaucer's identity as a London poet and the urban context for his writings this volume addresses the centrality of the city in Chaucer's work and the importance of Chaucer to a literature and a language of the city The City of Grace David Wadley,2019-11-29 In this sweeping appraisal of the urban condition David Wadley argues that anything less than high level resolution in modelling the well being of inhabitants is wasting precious time Humanity is encountering rising entropy caused by unsustainable economic and demographic expansion Supported by a strong interdisciplinary backdrop featuring systems and crisis theories The City of Grace tackles these obstacles by picturing gracious function and graceful form in a human scale settlement In an attempt to salvage things lost in the teleology of urban development over the last 100 years the outlook is both heterodox and contrarian How long can we all go on in the present way In addressing grace a more elevated concept than those focusing previous urban analyses this manifesto aims not to placate or please but instead to get humanity to face the encompassing realities it tries so hard to forget The City and the Ocean I-Chun Wang,Jonathan White,2012-01-24 Throughout history cities have been locations of human encounter Equally they have been contexts for the trade of goods and services for the evolution of various forms of urban space and for the production development and enrichment of culture and technology Many cities grew up along shorelines which themselves constitute some of the globe's most important cultural boundaries For above all else it is water that has separated but also connected different communities races religions and nations down through recorded time With the rapid advance in technologies of communication encounters between cultures have multiplied at a rate that no individual can follow or control The present book constitutes a space of memory in its own right one of its chief reasons d tre being that a group of diverse scholars herein maps certain key encounters between peoples past as well as present and the urgent issues generated in consequence No one person could have traced such diversity and made sense of it whereas a scholarly grouping of persons reporting on phenomena from around the world such as is provided here offers its readers a vision of global change and development With the twentieth and twenty first centuries a new set of mega cities in Asia Africa and Latin America has emerged to challenge the primacy of European and North American metropolitan centres This expanded landscape is here interpreted with special attention as already mentioned to cities located at coastlines hence generally speaking more exposed to globalizing trends Migrants exiles and refugees ethnic and racial minorities as well as alternative or countercultural groupings continue to complicate the ways in which cities articulate their now pluralized identities in terms of and by means of literature history architecture social events and other forms of artistic and cultural production The international scholars whose work is assembled in these pages are well placed to engage with the intersecting themes and issues of the volume Contributors have mapped different examples from Homeric narrative through Renaissance drama and its representation of crossways of culture such as Rhodes and Malta to an earlier time in the development of a New World city such as Boston others look at the twentieth and twenty first centuries complexity of great world cities and of oceanic migration or trade between them Shanghai Singapore London Detroit Shantou Macau and Saigon are some that are dealt with in detail Emphasis falls on both the historical reality of those contexts as well as how they have been culturally represented

Shadows in the City of Light Sara R. Horowitz, Amira Bojadzija-Dan, Julia

Crete, 2021-05-01 The essays in Shadows in the City of Light explore the significance of Paris in the writing of five influential French writers Sarah Kofman Patrick Modiano George Perec Henri Raczymow and Irene Nemirovsky whose novels and memoirs capture and probe the absences of deported Paris Jews These writers move their readers through wartime and postwar cityscapes of Paris walking them through streets and arrondissements where Jews once resided looking for traces of the disappeared The city functions as more than a backdrop or setting Its streets and buildings and monuments remind us of the exhilarating promise of the French Revolution and what it meant for Jews dreaming of equality But the dynamic space of Paris also reminds us of the Holocaust and its aftermath The shadowed paths traced by these writers raise complicated questions about ambivalence absence memory secularity and citizenship In their writing the urban landscape itself bears witness to the absent Jews and what happened to them For the writers treated in this volume neither their Frenchness nor their Jewishness is a fixed point Focusing on Paris's dual role as both a cultural hub and a powerful symbol of hope and conflict in Jewish memory the contributors address intersections and departures among these writers Their complexity of thought artistry and depth of vision shape a new understanding of the impact of the Holocaust on Jewish and French identity on literature and literary forms and on the development of Jewish secular culture in Western Europe In the City of the Marabouts Geert Mommersteeg, 2011-09-11 From the opening pages amidst the throes of Ramadan during the hottest and driest season in Mali Dutch ethnographer Geert Mommersteeg welcomes readers into the religious culture of a historic city uniquely filled with Islamic scholars known as marabouts This finely crafted English language translation provides a remarkable contribution to the study of Islamic practices and beliefs observed in local contexts in sub Saharan Africa with a focus on the interrelationship between public and secret knowledge of maraboutage in everyday reality This inviting personal narrative of an anthropologist's long term fieldwork in Djenn for centuries a center of West African culture scholarship and architecture is full of valuable methodological insights Mommersteeg with unassuming honesty becomes absorbed in the knowledge of the Holy Word and slowly enters the closed world of religious practice in which marabouts serve as intermediaries between God and their clients While marabouts do not claim to be all knowing they do know how God can be addressed most effectively which amulets are the most powerful and which alms are best for nudging the future in the right direction Catalogue of the library of the Peabody institute of the city of Baltimore ...
