The creature's whisper was hot on her cheek. She looked up into his eyes seeing at last a familiar mocking expression one that had sat upon a very different brow just this morning atop a certain mountain pass. The witch Feldar gasped. The minotaur smiled with a slight inclination of his head. Salindara: I am called. Though here I am known as Feldar, it appears. The witch continued with a wry smirk: I was so disoriented I nearly tumbled down that damned mountain. The other minotaur stumbled upon me and bound my wounds taking me for one of their own. It took but a few simple spells to conjure up the appropriate memories and mannerisms to make the illusion complete. But why, Feldar's mind reeled. What have you to gain from impersonating me? Why, my pet, I should think you would understand quite well. I plan to avenge myself upon you for ruining my wares, slaying my men, and trying to kill me. And I assure you that the vengeance of a witch is much more severe than what even your savage people are accustomed to. The minotaur leaned in close, his teeth bared in a wicked grin. Now that I have you in my grasp, I won't be letting you go so easily, my pet. Suddenly, Feldar was seized in the minotaur's powerful grasp, her body hefted into the air with effortless ease. She flailed about, but Salindara's hold only tightened around her. I claim this one as my prize, the minotaur called out, though I may be persuaded to share her after I am finished.

A Fae Affair: Bound by Magic Danica Slate, 2014-08-14

Aidan is a brash, arrogant young wizard and heir to his father's impressive legacy. And it's high time he be wedded to a suitable woman to ensure the ancient line of sorcerers continues. But Aidan has a secret: a fae lover, one of the Woolgathers, an ancient race of magical forest creatures. His father would never approve of their union, and thus young Aidan harbors a bitter resentment toward the old man's matchmaking ways. Speaking of which, Kara has by now been whisked off to old wizard's family estate where she awaits the first meeting with her unwilling betrothed. Never mind that she plans to do anything in her power to ruin her own marriage. It's not until she meets the charming, sensitive fae servant of her future husband that she finds a sympathetic ear and starts to wonder if maybe there's something worth sticking around for after all. Wait, she tugged hard on his hand. Terren. He turned back toward her. His expression was wary. The nimble fingers tightened on her hand, warm and smooth. I have to get you back. He lowered his violet eyes. She frowned. She didn't understand this place, but if there was an ally to be found here, it was him. And Kara suspected something in the way he avoided looking directly at her, now and how his fingers were grazing the palm of her hand. Why do you have to, she asked. She stepped closer. Terren stiffened but did not drop her hand. You don't like them, do you? They treat you terribly. The old one does, indeed. Master Aidan is simply having a particularly bad day. Regardless, I don't mind. His mouth quirked in a mysterious smile, but he was tight with nervous energy. She ran her other hand slowly up his chest, and he flinched backward. You're lying. His small smirk faded into a frown. She glared hard at him, their faces so close she could feel his breath on her cheek. His expression softened suddenly. His eyebrows quivered in a look of intrigue as he explored her eyes, nose down to her mouth. Do you want to kiss me, she whispered, and leaned toward him. Terren inhaled sharply but did not move to embrace her. He looked back up into her eyes. Interesting, the word whispered out of him with a confident playfulness that unsettled Kara.

What is Terren's long fingers stroked down her hair He twirled a lock between his fingers You are He took her hand and turned away pulling her after him Follow me

Web of Desire Danica Slate, 2015-01-07 The ancient Sorcerer Demart has found his rebellious son the perfect fertile young bride to carry on his bloodline The only problem is that neither the bride nor the groom want anything to do with one another In secret each of them has taken a fae lover members of the mysterious forest people known as Woolgatherers Together with their magical lovers the betrothed couple hatch a plan to counteract the old wizard's wedding plans There's only one problem in order to fool the powerful sorcerer they're going to need to switch bodies and the wedding ceremony isn't over until the marriage has been consummated Put your arms around me Tyall whispered against her ear Kara did so and nestled into the crook of her neck The woolgatherer continued to murmur A warm wind kicked up around them swirling leaves up from the earth and fluttering against their skin Black and red hair swirled into tangles together The human woman clung tighter as a strange dizziness overtook her She began to lose her sense of balance as her stomach fluttered into her throat All she could hear now was the sound of Tyall murmuring her strange song She gasped as the world lurched around her For several moments it felt like she was falling through the air turning over and over without purchase until suddenly she jolted back to solid ground again Oh she cried out and pulled back from the embrace Her heart was racing and her vision swam The world felt different Sounds were sharper smells clearer A naked figure stood before her that of a short slim muscled woman with black hair and a steely hazel eyed gaze She was staring at herself Kara broke out in amazed laughter Terren smiled wider from his position at the edge of the circle Aidan turned back around annoyed and curious Tyall in Kara's body picked up the discarded nightgown and pulled it back on She stretched acclimating to the new body Hmm she murmured thoughtfully then wagged a long finger at Kara who stood uncertainly in Tara's lithe tanned body It would seem Demart didn't choose an untouched woman for his son What How do you know that Kara's skin turned darker in a blush She looked to Terren who shrugged I see Tyall's laugh was like a bell as she winked at other woolgatherer You worked faster than I expected She walked toward a bewildered Aidan and wrapped her arms around his neck He was still thrown that the woman who had previously hated the sight of him was now in his arms Don't pull away from me my love she laughed We are to be married How How long will this last he asked between kisses You're suddenly so shy It's adorable Don't get too friendly with my body Kara frowned with Tyall's full red lips Well the same goes for you kitten I'm going to have to ask you to keep away from your little lover boy here until this business is finished Though I understand that may be rather difficult for you to manage the disguised woolgatherer winked at her and glared purposefully at Terren who looked so chagrined that Kara almost laughed out loud Kara had never realized her glare was so effective until seeing it in action Maybe she'd go out of her way to make Tyall eat her words

Control and Freedom Wendy Hui Kyong Chun, 2008-09-26 A work that bridges media archaeology and visual culture studies argues that the Internet has emerged as a mass medium by linking control with freedom and democracy How has the Internet a medium that thrives on control been accepted as a medium of freedom Why is freedom increasingly indistinguishable from paranoid control In Control and Freedom Wendy Hui Kyong Chun explores the current political and technological coupling of freedom with control by tracing the emergence of the Internet as a mass medium The parallel and paranoid myths of the Internet as total freedom total control she says stem from our reduction of political problems into technological ones Drawing on the theories of Gilles Deleuze and Michel Foucault and analyzing such phenomena as Webcams and face recognition technology Chun argues that the relationship between control and freedom in networked contact is experienced and negotiated through sexuality and race She traces the desire for cyberspace to cyberpunk fiction and maps the transformation of public private into open closed Analyzing pornocracy she contends that it was through cyberporn and the government's attempts to regulate it that the Internet became a marketplace of ideas and commodities Chun describes the way Internet promoters conflated technological empowerment with racial empowerment and through close examinations of William Gibson's Neuromancer and Mamoru Oshii's Ghost in the Shell she analyzes the management of interactivity in narratives of cyberspace The Internet's potential for democracy stems not from illusory promises of individual empowerment Chun argues but rather from the ways in which it exposes us to others and to other machines in ways we cannot control Using fiber optic networks light coursing through glass tubes as metaphor and reality Control and Freedom engages the rich philosophical tradition of light as a figure for knowledge clarification surveillance and discipline in order to argue that fiber optic networks physically instantiate and thus shatter enlightenment
