American Impersonal: Essays with Sharon Cameron Branka Arsic,2014-02-27 American Impersonal brings together some of the most influential scholars now working in American literature to explore the impact of one of America s leading literary critics Sharon Cameron It engages directly with certain arguments that Cameron has articulated throughout her career most notably her late work on the question of impersonality In doing so it provides responses to questions fundamental to literary criticism such as the nature of personhood the logic of subjectivity in depersonalized communities the question of the human within the problematic of the impersonal how impersonality relates to the posthuman Additionally some essays respond to the current aesthetic turn in literary scholarship and engage with the lyric currently much debated as well as the larger questions of poetics and the logic of genre These crucial issues are addressed from the perspective of an American literary and philosophical tradition and progress chronologically starting from Melville and Emerson and moving via Dickinson Thoreau and Hawthorne to Henry James and Wallace Stevens This historical perspective adds the appeal of revisiting the American nineteenth century literary and philosophical tradition and even rewriting it Book of Love and Pain, The Juan-David Nasio, 2012-02-01 Addresses the limits in treating pain psychoanalytically and offers a phenomenological description of psychic pain particularly the pain of a lost loved one Personality Disorders and States of Aloneness John G. McGraw, 2012-01-01 This book is the second volume of an interdisciplinary study chiefly one of philosophy and psychology which concerns personality especially the abnormal in terms of states of aloneness primarily that of the negative emotional isolation customarily known as loneliness Other states of aloneness investigated include solitude reclusiveness seclusion desolation isolation and what the author terms aloneliness alonism lonism and lonerism Insofar as this study most explicitly focuses on abnormal personalities it employs the general and specific definitions of personality aberrations as formulated by the American Psychiatric Association in its latest edition of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders DSM IV The author views personality as preeminently comprised of the individual's interpersonal relationships Unlike the DSM IV he proposes that people with personality disorders not only possibly but necessarily manifest deviancy regarding interpersonal functioning via serious shortcomings in shared inwardness paramourly reciprocated intimacy This work also engages in an analysis of five social factors that are conducive to predisposing precipitating and maintaining negative kinds of personality and aloneness The author has formed these factors into an acronym titled SCRAM since when they are present intimacy scurries away and in its absence loneliness and other sorts of unwanted aloneness scamper in and fill the person with unhappiness via for instance sadness and self worthlessness The constituents of SCRAM are the following social illnesses Successitis for example the fixation on fame and fortune Capitalitis greed driven unfettered capitalism Rivalitis competitiveness Atomitis hyper individualism and Materialitis for example the anti spirituality of consumeritis In sum this book provides a different perspective on personality via the lenses of various types of aloneness and their lack of public and private intimacy especially love Cinema, Suffering and

Psychoanalysis Laura Stephenson, 2023-12-14 Cinema Suffering and Psychoanalysis explores psychological disorder as common to the human condition using a unique three angled approach psychoanalysis recognises the inherent suffering encountered by each subject due to developmental phases psychology applies specific categorisation to how this suffering manifests cinema depicts suffering through a combination of video and aural elements Functioning as a culturally reflexive medium the six feature films analysed including Black Swan 2010 and The Machinist 2004 represent some of the most common psychological disorders and lived experiences of the contemporary era This book enters uncharted terrain in cinema scholarship by combining clinical psychology's Diagnostic and Statistical Manual Five DSM V to organise and diagnose each character and psychoanalysis to track the origin mechanism and affect of the psychological disorder within the narrative trajectory of each film Lacan's theories on the infantile mirror phase the Imaginary and the Symbolic and Erikson's theories on the Real the big Other and the Event and Kristeva's theories on abjection and melancholia work in combination with the DSM's classification of symptoms to interpret six contemporary pieces of cinema By taking into consideration that origin mechanism affect and symptomatology are part of an interconnected group this book explores psychological disorder as part of the human condition something which contributes to and informs personal identity More specifically this research refutes the notion that psychological disorder and psychological health exist as a binary instead recognising that what has traditionally been pathologised may instead be viewed as variations on human identity
