The Crowthers Of Bankdam:

The Crowthers of Bankdam Thomas Armstrong,1992 The Crowthers of Bankdam Thomas Armstrong,2002 The story of a great Yorkshire wool trade family from 1854 to the First World War and the Russian Revolution The Crowther Chronicles Thomas Armstrong,1961 The Crowthers of Bankdam Thomas ARMSTRONG (Novelist.),1940 The Price of Fame Elaine Parker,2018-04-28 Charming erudite and the very personification of the English gentleman Dennis Price was without doubt also one of the most promising and talented newcomers to the world of theatre and film in the late 1930s and he arguably reached his screen best in the classic Ealing comedy Kind Hearts and Coronets Huge praise was lavished upon him and he was compared alongside theatrical contemporaries Laurence Olivier John Gielgud and Ralph Richardson as being destined for great things Scene stealing performances followed over the next few decades in such differing films as The Dancing Years The Intruder Private's Progress The Naked Truth Tunes of Glory Tamahine and Theatre of Blood to name but a few Though whilst his career was blossoming his private life was going through turmoil when after one of his several affairs was discovered by his wife he faced the shame of divorce separation from his two children and when coupled with significant tax bills it all proved too much and the actor attempted suicide Eventually bouncing back he reinvented himself as a character actor and appeared in scores of notable films and was often the best thing in them Music and Psychology Hans Keller,Christopher Wintle,2003 Keller was among the earliest Freudians in Britain For his case studies he drew on composers performers and listeners and for his general studies he turned to various aspects of music The British Film Catalogue Denis Gifford,2018-10-24 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Film Weekly ,1948 Marian Engel's Notebooks Christl Verduyn,2006-01-01 Marian Engel emerged as a writer during that period in Canada when nationalism increased and new feminism dawned Although she is recognized as a distinguished woman of letters she has not been widely studied consequently we know relatively little about her and her craft The material collected in Marian Engel's Notebooks Ah mon cahier coute is a major step in redressing that neglect Extracts carefully chosen by Christl Verduyn from Marian Engel's forty nine notebooks notebooks Engel began in the late 1940s and which she maintained until her death in 1985 track Engel's creative development illustrate her commitment to the craft of writing and document her growth as a major Canadian writer The notebooks also portray Engel's surprising leaps of logic her fascination with the bizarre the eclecticism of her reading and the depth and variety of her thinking Finally they present moving documentation of a woman facing cancer and early death Christl Verduyn's illuminating introductory discussions to each of the notebooks unobtrusively guide us in the reading of these sometimes difficult writings Marian Engel's Notebooks Ah mon cahier coute leaves readers with a vivid sense of Canadian culture during the 1960s and 1970s It provides insight into the literary life of one of Canada's significant woman writers including her connections with other Canadian writers and will be of special interest to scholars working in the field of literature The Literary Filmography Leonard Mustazza,2006-05-17

From the very infancy of the film industry filmmakers have relied heavily upon literature as the foundation for their movie material Well known literary works such as Dickens's A Christmas Carol and Hawthorne's The Scarlet Letter were adapted to film in the silent era as were such books as Thomas Dixon's Jr's The Klansman basis for the film Birth of a Nation In recent years Nick Hornsby's About a Boy and each of Helen Fielding's Bridget Jones's Diary novels were the basis for popular movies bearing the same names A guide to English language works that have been adapted as theatrical and television films this volume includes books both fiction and non fiction short stories newspaper and magazine articles and poems Entries are arranged alphabetically by literary title with cross listings for films made under different titles Each entry includes the original work's title author year of first publication literary prizes and a brief plot summary Information on film adaptation's of the work including adaptation titles director screenwriter principal cast and the names of the characters they portray major awards and availability in the most common formats DVD VHS is also offered

Walter Forde Geoff Brown, 1977 The Rise and Decline of Small Firms (Routledge Revivals) Jonathan Boswell, 2014-06-27 First published in 1973 this title examines the development patterns of small businesses It considers why people found firms the factors that contribute to entrepreneurial success problems of management succession and inheritance the strengths and weaknesses of family firms the reasons why small firms are taken over and the social economic and managerial context of their growth decline and revival Based on a survey of sixty four firms each employing fewer than five hundred people in engineering hosiery and knitwear and on the records of 370 similar organisations a striking gap in performance and management attitudes emerges as between dynamic mostly founder run firms and stagnant mostly inherited ones Where many books are either minutely specialised or highly abstract and over generalised Jonathan Boswell's work is practical and diagnostic probing the inner recesses of the small firm sector With particular relevance to the difficulties faced by entrepreneurs in today's economic environment this title advances selective measures to deal with old firms and inheritance and a wide range of policies to encourage new entrepreneurship

Steel City Readers Mary Grover, 2023-05-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library Steel City Readers makes available and interprets in detail a large body of new evidence about past cultures and communities of reading Its distinctive method is to listen to readers own voices rather than theorising about them as an undifferentiated group Its cogent and engaging structure traces reading journeys from childhood into education and adulthood and attends to settings from home to school to library It has a distinctive focus on reading for pleasure and its framework of argument situates that type of reading in relation to dimensions of gender and class It is grounded in place and particularly in the context of a specific industrial city Sheffield The men and women featured in the book coming to adulthood in the 1930s and 1940s rarely regarded reading as a means of self improvement It was more usually a compulsive and intensely pleasurable private activity British Film Catalogue Denis Gifford,2016-04-01 First published in 2001 The standard work on its subject this resource includes every traceable British entertainment film from the inception of the silent cinema to the present day Now this new edition includes a wholly original second volume devoted to non fiction and documentary film an area in which the British film industry has particularly excelled All entries throughout this third edition have been revised and coverage has been extended through 1994 Together these two volumes provide a unique authoritative source of information for historians archivists librarians and film scholars Lance Comfort Brian McFarlane,2019-01-04 In the years between 1941 and 1965 Lance Comfort made some of the most entertaining films in Britain There was the striking success of his second feature as director Hatter s Castle 1941 and when he returned to this melodramatic vein in 1945 he made a series of highly proficient and enjoyable studies in obsession including Bedelia 1946 with Margaret Lockwood as a murderess and Temptation Harbour 1947 starring Robert Newton as a decent man in the grip of erotic attraction Comfort s career has never been charted in full that is from the apprenticeship in the 1930s through the melodramas of the 1940s to the often rewarding co features of the following two decades His is in many ways a prototypical career in British cinema his very attractive body of work has been marginalised by critical focus on a few giant figures This is a book that will appeal to all students and researchers in British cinema as well as to anyone with an interest in British films and why they were the way they were in their most productive period Dramatherapy Sue Jennings,2014-04-23 Dramatherapy Theory and Practice 1 introduces the reader to the basic issues of dramatherapy and offers a highly authoritative guide to the clinical practitioner or teacher who wishes to use role play and enactment in the context of therapeutic work With its companion volume Dramatherapy Theory and Practice 2 it provides an invaluable resource for all those whose work can benefit from the use of dramatherapy including counsellors nurses and occupational therapists The Dalesman ,1990 Participant Observer Robin Fox,2017-10-24 Robin Fox one of the preeminent anthropologists of our time takes us on an exuberant personal intellectual and cultural journey through the 1930s to the 1970s This is a personal historical intellectual journey one that is at once intriguing hilarious and moving Like Browning s Sordello who recurs throughout the book Fox is telling the story of the development of a soul Fox s method is to depend entirely on memory to select the people events and ideas that have driven him towards what was called at the time a revolution in the social sciences This revolution was the founding of the biosocial or what came to be called the sociobiological movement in the study of human behavior It was a long road peppered with strange events brain bending ideas odd adventures dangers and sorrows and a cast of lively often eccentric characters Fox describes himself as an observer of a series of endings the last gasps of now extinct ways of life He witnessed the last of the old steam and horse powered northern wool towns of the industrial revolution and the pre industrial Hardy countryside of southern England He saw the ancient grammar schools before their destruction by doctrinaire socialism the old LSE when it was still an international family not just a big college the brave but failed experiment that was Talcott Parsons Social Relations Department In the United States he experienced the innocent but troubled America of the 1950s and the last gasp of traditional Indian life in New Mexico He lived in genteel Jane Austen England in Devon and experienced peasant crofter life in the Irish islands Participant Observer is a report from the cultural and social battlefield seen through the personal lens of a combatant Fox has given us a kind of Cook s Tour through the ideas and intellectual movements of mid century when the world changed and the foundations of the twenty first century were set It is the history of an education by a narrator in love with learning

Boom and Bust in Cotton Manufacturing Tom Holden, 2020-11-02 Tom Holden provides an account of how his family established and ran two weaving mills Rockcliffe and Havelock in Blackburn It is a unique story of success and survival in an economic context where cotton was at one time the leading industry in the UK but which suffered rapid decline in the 1930s Tom s son Richard has edited the book embellishing his father s account with additional family history and photographs and pictures pertinent to the two mills
