10 Fun Facts About The Declaration of Independence!

The Declaration of Independence, also known as the founding document of the United States, is a document written in 1776 by the Continental Congress of the thirteen British North American colonies. It declared the colonies independence from Great Britain.

It was approved by the Continental Congress on July 4, 1776, and announced the separation of 13 North American British colonies from the British Empire.

The document asserts that all men are created equal and have unalienable rights, including life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

56 delegates signed the Declaration of Independence. The most famous signers of the declaration include John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin, and John Hancock, Samuel Adams, George Washington's cousin, and Elbridge Gerry, who later became the fifth Vice President of the United States.

New York City served as the first capital of the newly independent United States.
