The Globalization of Christianity Gordon L. Heath, Steven M. Studebaker, 2015-01-20 While Christianity appears to be in decline in the West it is growing robustly in the global South What does this mean for the Christianity that was once considered to be the religion of the West The new contexts and trajectories require innovative responses and relevant theological reflection in the church This volume addresses these changes through identifying and analyzing global shifts highlighting practical innovations in the church that attempt to deal with new trajectories and proposing theological positions intended to help face the issues and challenges of the twenty first century Contributors to this volume include Philip Jenkins The Next Christendom The New Faces of Christianity God's Continent Steven M Studebaker Gordon L Heath Bradley K Broadhead Christof Sauer Lee Beach Michael P Knowles Peter Althouse Michael Wilkinson John H Issak David K Taurus and Seongho Kang

Hybridizing Mission Peter T. Lee, 2022-09-27 This qualitative study explores intercultural social dynamics among international Christian workers who are part of multicultural teams engaged in Christian ministries in a North African country It seeks to understand these workers lived realities at intersections of multiple cultural flows Ethnographic methods were used to collect and analyze data and forty nine international Christian workers were interviewed The findings of this study indicate that intercultural Christian workers go through complex intercultural social processes interwoven in the fabric of their everyday life These processes are mediated by their social experiences in the local North African context and their multicultural teams resulting in significant changes in their personal dispositions and social behaviors Based on these findings a working concept of diasporic habitus is developed and the practice of double discourses of culture is further examined This research suggests that some existing missiological concepts need to be revisited and recommends further interdisciplinary conversations involving cultural anthropology and sub fields in psychology about the changes that happen to people in intercultural missions It also calls for a reflexive approach to missiological research that incorporates awareness of one's situatedness and the lasting impact of historical entanglements on contemporary intercultural relations

Changing World, Unchanging Mission M. David Sills, 2015-08-28 The world continues to globalize and urbanize at a rapid pace Technology and social media have transformed how people interact Despite recent advances and innovations countless people groups across the globe still lack access to the gospel of Jesus Christ How should the church mobilize to reach the world Now more than ever before Christians need to be aware of the changing landscape before us Missions expert David Sills shares this one stop shop of key global challenges confronting Christian mission in the twenty first century In ten topical chapters he identifies ways practitioners can be faithful to God s call help without hurting reach oral learners conduct short term missions responsibly engage in business as mission strategically and much more While the world is fluid God s mission endures Discover anew how the eternal gospel can make its way to every tribe and nation Cross-Cultural Missional Partnership Joshua Bowman,2023-03-28 Cross cultural partnerships in today s global environment are both challenging and necessary Misunderstanding and miscommunication often lead to conflict between culturally diverse groups Christians must understand and evaluate their own culture the culture of others and the text of Scripture itself while remaining faithful to Scripture and relevant to culture Unmediated tensions combined with relational isolation lead to a myriad of problems This study proposes cross cultural missional partnership as a relationship that mediates these tensions thereby encouraging mutual faithful engagement in the mission of God Cross cultural tensions may never disappear but within a healthy partnership partners can assist one another in understanding and responding faithfully to Scripture Partners help one another more faithfully interpret and apply Scripture leading to obedience to God s will and engagement in God s mission within unique and diverse contexts Strategy Coordinator R. Bruce Carlton,2011 In 1976 the Southern Baptist Convention adopted its Bold New Thrusts in Foreign Missions with the overarching goal of sharing the gospel with every person in the world by the year 2000 The formation of Cooperative Services International CSI in 1985 and the assigning of the first non residential missionary NRM in 1987 demonstrated the Foreign Mission Board s now International Mission Board commitment to take the gospel message to countries that restricted traditional missionary presence and to people groups identified as having little or no access to the gospel Carlton traces the historical development along with an analysis of the key components of the paradigm and its significant impact on Southern Baptists missiology Dr Carlton has produced an outstanding one of a kind work addressing the influence of the non residential missionary strategy coordinator s role in Southern Baptist missions This well written scholarly text examines the twentieth century global missiological currents that influenced the leadership of the International Mission Board resulting in a new paradigm to assist in taking the gospel to the nations Dr Carlton writes as both a missiologist and a missionary This work reveals the keen eye of a scholar but also the heart of a practitioner who desires to see the multiplication of disciples leaders and churches across the globe This text is a must read for anyone longing to know more about the recent history of the International Mission Board and the theology and missiology behind the SC role and church planting movements J D Payne National Missionary North American Mission Board and Assistant Professor of Church Planting and Evangelism The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary I have enjoyed friendship and partnership in the gospel with Bruce Carlton in different capacities When I served as the Strategy Coordinator for a South Asian city Bruce was my supervisor He helped me understand what I was trying to do and how I should be doing it Since my return to pastoral ministry in America Bruce has been a missiological dialogue partner In both capacities Bruce has been a flame stoker fanning the flames of commitment to make disciples of all nations I m glad that Bruce has taken on the task of explaining and evaluating the development of the Nonresidential Missionary NRM and Strategy Coordinator SC paradigms He writes from three important perspectives Bruce writes as an insider In Cambodia Bruce was a practitioner of what has developed into the SC approach His work was at the wellspring of hundreds of reproducing churches After leaving Cambodia Bruce taught and mentored many men and women in methodologies for planting reproducing churches Bruce has lived through the development of these paradigms as an effective practitioner Bruce writes as an insightful researcher He asks important questions about the NRM SC and Church Planting Movement paradigms and searches for honest answers Finally Bruce writes as a respecer of the relational character of missions On the front lines of gospel advance the Spirit mediates the word through people Grand strategies and paradigms also develop within relational contexts From these three perspectives Bruce helps us understand why the paradigms have developed as they have and equips us to ask key questions as we look forward E Coye Still III PhD R Bruce Carlton served in Asia from 1986 to 2007 as a church planter Strategy Coordinator and trainer in areas and among peoples with little or no access to the gospel He is the author of Acts 29 Practical Training for Facilitating Church Planting Movements Among the Neglected Harvest Fields a manual for training Strategy Coordinators that has been translated into seventeen different languages Presently Carlton serves as the Associate Professor of Missions at Boyce College a school of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville Kentucky USA

Apostolic Function Alan R. Johnson, 2009-06-01 The Paradigm of Missionary Identity In the past we have focused on the why of missions in terms of motives the what of missions in terms of the content of the message and the how of missions in terms of methodologies and strategies but the where question in terms of where we send cross cultural workers has simply been assumed it has meant crossing a geographic boundary In Apostolic Function in 21st Century Missions Alan R Johnson introduces the idea of apostolic function as the paradigm of missionary self identity that reminds us to focus our efforts on where Christ is not named He then examines in detail the where paradigm in missions frontier mission missiology with a sympathetic critique and a review of the major contributions of unreached people group thinking Johnson concludes by illustrating his notion of seeking to integrate missions paradigms and discussing of issues that relate specifically to the where questions of missions today Introduction to Missiological Research Design Edgar J. Elliston, 2011-06-27 Edgar Elliston s Introduction to Missiological Research Design outlines the basic issues of research design for missiological and church related research This book describes the logic of the research process for a wide range of missiological research Whether this research is from a single academic discipline or a multidisciplinary approach this text will provide relevant guidelines for the design Elliston provides instruction examples and exercises for inexperienced but serious researchers as they seek to design research that will serve the Church in mission Elliston also provides experienced researchers with checklists and easy to review tables to further aid in research design This text raises some of the key issues to designing research in a multicultural or cross cultural context and guides researchers toward ethical and effective study Boundary-Breaking Mission Simone Mulieri Twibell, 2023-08-15 How should we bear witness to the gospel in a postmodern world How do we navigate the turbulent waters of social cultural and religious difference in a pluralistic society How can we minister effectively in multicultural contexts and swim against the unconscious currents of ethnocentrism These questions compel the church to thoroughly reconsider its priorities and rethink its strategy of public engagement Amidst the diversity and the complexity of our world such an examination can rekindle our prophetic imagination and equip us ever more fully in God's kingdom purposes This book reexamines the church's mission and makes specific applications in numerous areas of contemporary concern including outreach to the religious unaffiliated digital natives people of other faiths immigrants and the poor

Against the Tide W. Jay Moon, Craig Ott, 2019-09-01 With increased globalization and modernization reaching into the furthest corners of the earth also comes the influence of secularization These three tides of influence impact traditional religious beliefs practices and institutions in significant ways Some modernizing societies see religion on the decline while others find it thriving in surprising ways This collection of essays presents the opportunities and the challenges of secularization for the mission of the Church with hopeful signs and reassurance that God is still at work in a secularizing world Readers will find both analysis and guidance that will assist the Church in an informed missional engagement with secularization in a variety of contexts starting with North America then Europe Asia and Africa Each local church and mission organization must discern the appropriate missional response for evangelism discipleship congregational life and social involvement To be Against the Tide means regaining your voice as a church on mission informed by your context and inspired by the responses of others in theirs
