Pretoria Student Law Review 2020-14-2 Simon Motshweni, 2020-01-01 About the publication Honoured to present to you the reader the 2020 edition of the Pretoria Student Law Review PSLR an annual publication which is the pride of the best law faculty in Africa according to the Times Higher Education World University Rankings The University of Pretoria s Law Faculty ranks in the top 100 law faculties in the world a feat unequalled in Africa The PSLR is a student driven law review that creates an interactive forum for students academics and legal professionals to discuss topical legal matters that challenge the status quo At the beginning of this year lay the fantasy of newness presenting an opportunity to do great things But as I reflect on the journey leading to this publication I understand that the 2020 edition of the PSLR had an engine that ran on hope faith dedication perseverance commitment and hard work Our predecessors had a vision to create a boldly outlined legacy for the PSLR they spearheaded the setting up of a system that would last the lifespan of the PSLR Today some 13 years after the first edition of the PSLR South Africa the continent and the world at large are on the cusp of a new era socially economically and politically When my journey as Editor in Chief commenced I imagined the PSLR as a ship whose captain was myself Customarily it is easy to be a captain of a ship in calm seas but unlike most of my predecessors I have had to be the captain of a ship through the heftiest of storms The world was not truly prepared to face challenges presented by the Covid 19 let alone the PSLR In the wake of the 4IR and this new age of technology sailing this ship to success was still a heavy task to complete It is therefore with great honour to have been able to successfully complete the task for which we the 14th cohort of the Editorial Board were called for We have upheld the esteemed reputations that have been left by our predecessors Fittingly I wish to applaud my team for their inspiring commitment outstanding contribution and service in maintaining the elevated standard of the PSLR For indeed it is a publication par excellence Amidst the storms we have spearheaded the establishment of a free floating PSLR Collection in the OR Tambo Law Library This collection is dedicated to house all published PSLR editions dating since the inception of the PSLR in 2007 We have established and strengthened relations with other Law Faculties in the country and even beyond We published the very first special edition of the PSLR a focused edition that covers a critical issue brought before the South African Law Deans Association the Decolonisation of Legal Education We have established a system by which all authors who publish with us ought to have an ORCID iD We have adopted internal regulations that outline the principles that govern the Editorial Board We have spearheaded the adoption and implementation of a policy that forces us to comply with DHET Standards in order to be a DHET Accredited Journal so as to encourage and foster a student culture of critical research

Jostina Mtshweni Clayton Mtshweni Lucas Berto Mateus Stephine Mashilo and Lerato Mashilo words cannot begin to express my gratitude for all the support you have given me throughout this journey Thank you for keeping me sane through one of the toughest times of my publishing career Thank you for the endless amount of support and the unconditional love you give me always You are the power oil that kept this engine running all by the sufficient grace of God I hereby pass the baton and entrust the next Editor in Chief with the difficult task of running faster and running a better marathon than myself and my predecessors To you future author I implore you to start writing for the water does not flow until the faucet is turned on To you the reader Jurgen Zwecker was right enjoy the read without fear to question what is in front of you for that is the only way we as scholars grow

Reports of All the Cases Decided by All the Superior Courts Relating to Magistrates, Municipal, and Parochial Law Great Britain. Magistrates' cases, 1916 Friendless or Forsaken? Ruth Lamont, Eloise Moss, Charlotte Wildman, 2024-07-15 Between 1860 and 1935 about 100 000 impoverished children were emigrated from Britain to Canada to seek a new life in the land of plenty Charities religious workers philanthropists and state run institutions such as workhouses and orphanages all sent children abroad claiming that this was the only way to prevent their becoming criminals or joining the masses of working class unemployed Friendless or Forsaken follows the story of child emigration agencies operating in North West England tracing the imperial relationships that enabled agents to send children away from their homes and parents who often lost sight of them forever The book sheds light on public support for the schemes their financial beneficiaries and how parents were persuaded to consent to sending their children across the world frequently without fully realizing what rights they had signed away The story charts the legal measures introduced to maintain and regulate child emigration schemes as well as the way home children were portrayed as both needy and dangerous on each side of the Atlantic and how the children themselves sought to overcome prejudice and isolation in an unfamiliar country Exploring the transnational economy of child emigrations schemes Friendless or Forsaken records the bravery and resilience of those children whose lives were altered by this traumatic and divisive episode in the history of empire Social Work Law Alison Brammer, 2020-03-12 Develop and expand legal skills using knowledge and practice Social Work Law 5th Edition by Alison Brammer is the market leading textbook for social work students and practitioners alike. It serves as a comprehensive practical and accessible guide to the legal framework in the context of good social work practice for any student or social worker. It provides a good understanding of the relevant law and practice essential for social workers operating within tight legal processes to discharge their powers properly. The author provides a balanced account of the law as applied to children, families and vulnerable adults. Social Work Law uses a range of learning tools to help reinforce your understanding of the law in practice. Learning objectives at the start of each chapter help structure your study. Talking points in each chapter identify areas of debate for discussion. Exercises and case studies offer a problem based learning application of the law. End of chapter summaries identify the key points from each topic. Further reading sections and website references encourage you to explore the area further. Legal Skills for working in court and other aspects of the social work role help to demystify the law and encourage students and social workers to embrace law as part of their career long professional development. This edition has been fully updated to take account of new legislation and case law as well as commentary on proposals for reform. Additional cases, self test questions and answers to the exercises are available on a companion website at go.pearson.com.uk. The resources.
