God's Internationalists David P. King, 2019-05-31 Over the past seventy years World Vision has grown from a small missionary agency to the largest Christian humanitarian organization in the world with 40 000 employees offices in nearly one hundred countries and an annual budget of over 2 billion While founder Bob Pierce was an evangelist with street smarts the most recent World Vision U S presidents move with ease between megachurches the boardrooms of Fortune 500 companies and the corridors of Capitol Hill Though the organization has remained decidedly Christian it has earned the reputation as an elite international nongovernmental organization managed efficiently by professional experts fluent in the language of both marketing and development God's Internationalists is the first comprehensive study of World Vision or any such religious humanitarian agency In chronicling the organization's transformation from 1950 to the present David P King approaches World Vision as a lens through which to explore shifts within post World War II American evangelicalism as well as the complexities of faith based humanitarianism Chronicling the evolution of World Vision's practices theology rhetoric and organizational structure King demonstrates how the organization rearticulated and retained its Christian identity even as it expanded beyond a narrow American evangelical subculture King's pairing of American evangelicals interactions abroad with their own evolving identity at home reframes the traditional narrative of modern American evangelicalism while also providing the historical context for the current explosion of evangelical interest in global social engagement By examining these patterns of change God's Internationalists offers a distinctive angle on the history of religious humanitarianism

Mission Between the Times C. René Padilla, 2010-10-04 This revised version includes a new essay on the contemporary history of integral mission a history that began with the Latin American Theological Fellowship progressed within the Lausanne Movement is bearing fruit globally through the Micah Network and challenges evangelicals to address the major issues of our day By almost any measure a bold and confident use of the Bible is a hallmark of Christianity Underlying such use are a number of assumptions about the origin nature and form of the biblical literature concerning its authority diversity and message However a lack of confidence in the clarity or perspicuity of Scripture is apparent in Western Christianity Despite recent sophisticated analyses the doctrine is ignored or derided by many While there is a contemporary feel to these responses the debate itself is not new In this excellent study Mark Thompson surveys past and present objections to the clarity of Scripture expounds the living God as the Guarantor of his accessible written Word engages with the hermeneutical challenges and restates the doctrine for today Mission as Transformation Vinay Samuel, Chris Sugden, 2009-03-06 Centered on the rule of Christ over the whole of life explores multiple aspects of holistic ministry including proclamation evangelism and social transformation Toward a Public Theology in Myanmar Lal Tin Hre, David Selvaraj, 2023-10-10 The essays in this volume reflect the journey of a team from Myanmar and India listening and learning from each other The intention is for theologians pastors and public intellectuals from Southeast Asia starting from the Association of Theological Education in South East Asia ATESEA to initiate or strengthen discussions on the theme of Public Witness In situations where the discussion has begun we hope this contribution will add to the process At a fundamental level this volume will trigger a rethinking of Mission in Myanmar in the context of re imposed military rule The volume is divided into three parts The first offers an introduction leading up to the book and to the Association of Theological Education in Myanmar ATEM the second a section on theology of Public Witness and broad theoretical formulations concluding with a wide array of the contemporary issues on the ground The articles come out of the five workshops for professional theologians from seminaries social activists from a Christian faith background and pastors Advanced Missiology Kenneth Nehrbass, 2021-04-02 Advanced Missiology draws the connections between the theory and practice of missions Using the metaphor of a river the book shows how theories upstream such as theology education anthropology community development and history have exerted an influence on missiology and missiology in turn has gone back upstream to influence those disciplines What causes these disciplines to converge in missiology is the goal of making disciples across cultures Whereas missiologists are not always explicit about how their abstract theories actually relate to the task of making disciples across cultures each chapter in Advanced Missiology shows how numerous theories sub fields models and strategies of missiology ultimately facilitate the Great Commission The book argues that by using interdisciplinarity for this fundamental purpose missiological studies will be more credible and useful With contributions from Rebecca Burnett Leanne Dzubinski Julie Martinez Journal of Latin American Theology, Volume 16, Number 2 Lindy Scott, 2021-12-02 This issue of the Journal of Latin American Theology is dedicated to the memory of C Ren Padilla 1932 2021 In The Life and Legacy of C Ren Padilla historian Daniel Salinas presents the essential events of Ren s life and ministry In 2008 Darren C Marks published Ren s own account of his theological journey in Shaping a Global Theological Mind We are grateful to reprint My Theological Pilgrimage in which Ren described the factors that contributed to his development as a theologian and practitioner Next the five children Ren had with his late wife Catharine Feser Padilla offer a heartfelt overview of their father s life A sample of tributes from friends and family members then describes not only Ren s writings and mental brilliance but also his humility hospitality courage and gentleness as a mentor And the three poets included herein give testimony to Ren s unflagging dedication to encouraging and publishing other writers across the genres Next historian Dinorah M ndez reviews Ren s last literary venture Ra ces de un evangelio integral misi n en perspectiva hist rica and demonstrates that the primary theological emphasis of Ren s life misi n integral has been practiced by the people of God in their various contexts throughout history Finally with the combined efforts of several scholars we have compiled as complete a bibliography of Ren s published works as possible A Missiology of the Road J Kevin Livingston,2014-09-25 David Bosch 1929 1992 was one of the foremost mission theologians of the twentieth century a prolific scholar committed church leader and active participant in the global conciliar and evangelical mission movements His distinctive role in the South African church s struggle against apartheid is less well known however After reviewing Bosch s background and exploring key themes in his understanding of mission and evangelism Livingston explores Bosch s legacy from the perspective of the missionary nature of the church The church is God s kingdom community acting as a witness to and instrument of the coming reign of God The church is God s alternative community simultaneously set apart from the world but also existing for the sake of the world exemplifying the radical implications of Christ s new community It is also God s reconciled and reconciling community serving as a sign and embodiment of God s love in Christ For those acquainted with Bosch only as the author of his magisterial Transforming Mission A Missiology of the Road shows how Bosch integrated his theology and practice in a faithful contextually relevant way within South Africa and the global church

The Churches and the Development Debate Ignatius Swart,2006-05-01 This book newly addresses the question about the Christian churches participation in development The innovative element of this reflection is the way in which the author finds meaning and significance particularly in the concept of a fourth generation approach to strategic development engagement The book s essential argument is that a fourth generation strategy an approach that makes the contemporary social or people s movements the primary subjects of its development action and theory holds the greatest prospect for authentic participation by the Christian churches in development

Transformation after Lausanne Al Tizon,2008-07-23 Lausanne 74 inspired evangelicals around the world to take seriously the full implications of the Gospel for mission This was especially true of a worldwide network of radical evangelical mission theologians and practitioners whose post Lausanne reflections found harbour in the notion of Mission as Transformation This missiology integrated evangelism and social concern like no other and it lifted up theological voices coming from the Two thirds World to places of prominence This book documents the definitive gatherings theological tensions and social forces within and without evangelicalism that led up to Mission as Transformation And it does so through a global local grid that points the way toward greater holistic mission in the twenty first century

New Directions in Mission and Evangelization 1 Stephen B. Bevans,James A. Scherer,2015-03-11

Mission and the Coming of God Tim Chester,2006-10-01 How does the eschatological future impinge on the present Is the kingdom of God present outside the confession of Christ in movements towards social justice Is Christian hope a stimulus to social involvement or an alternative

And how does the present impinge on the eschatological future? What is the relationship between our actions now and the new creation? Is there eschatological continuity between the two? Jürgen Moltmann, one of our most influential contemporary theologians, has had much to say both on eschatology and its relationship to mission. This book explores his thought along with evangelical responses to it. Eschatology has been central to evangelical debates about social involvement ever since the Lausanne Congress in 1974. The book examines how evangelicals themselves have related hope and mission. The book highlights the important contribution Moltmann has made while offering a critique of his thought from an evangelical perspective. In so doing it touches on pertinent issues for evangelical missiology. The conclusion takes John Calvin as a starting point, proposing an eschatology of the cross which offers a critique of the over-realized eschatologies in liberation theology and triumphalistic forms of evangelicalism. This is a work of major importance engaging with crucial themes and leading Christian thinkers. A must read for all reactive evangelicals. Tim Chester's work is always good, but this is the best yet. Martyn Atkins, Principal, Cliff College, Calver, UK. Despite the attention of Moltmann and despite intra-evangelical debate on the nature of mission over the last three decades, the task of bringing Moltmann and evangelicalism into dialogue has remained on the table for some time. Tim Chester takes up the agenda. His combination of practical experience in mission and theological ability equip him well for this task, and the result is a study which brings academic reasoning to bear on Christian thought about eschatology and its vital connection with the missionary responsibility of the church. It rewards our careful attention. Stephen Williams, Professor of Systemic Theology at Union Theological College, Belfast. Eschatology in relation to mission is often reduced to plans for fulfilling the Great Commission as soon as possible or to lurid end-time scenarios that feed our fantasy more than they fuel biblical mission. So it is refreshing to have this wide-ranging in-depth study of the theme that engages with one of the most well-known theologians of biblical hope, Jürgen Moltmann, alongside a number of renowned evangelical scholars, yet stays rooted in the text and vision of the Bible itself. This is searching theology in the service of biblical mission, as all theology ultimately should be. Chris Wright, International Director, Langham Partnership International.

Holistic Mission Hannes Wiher, 2022-05-16. For the last 50 years, one of the most important discussions in global evangelicalism has concerned the idea of holistic mission, which proposes the integration of verbal evangelism and social engagement within Christian mission. This book examines how key terms such as evangelism and mission have been understood in contemporary evangelical declarations from 1966 to 2011, in the Bible, and in the missiological debate. It adopts an in-depth approach to the historical, biblical, and theological analysis. The main thesis is that the different conceptions of evangelism and mission in general, and that of holistic mission in particular, have their root in the worldview of the various theologians and Christian leaders preparing these statements. The book evaluates the missiological conceptions of evangelism and mission proposed in the various declarations in the light of the Bible, so as to derive a biblical understanding of evangelism and mission. Context and Contextuality Vyacheslav Tsvirinko, 2018-01-31. Since 1988, hundreds of thousands of evangelical Christians have migrated to the United States of America from former Soviet Union countries establishing many Russian speaking immigrant congregations across the country This study analyzes how these immigrant churches function in their new cultural social and religious context Dr Vyacheslav Tsvirinko a Russian who lived in the USA for over twenty five years examines the holism authenticity and contextuality of the mission work done by churches in the Pacific Coast Slavic Baptist Association PCSBA in America He defines authentic mission in light of three major Christian groups the World Council of Churches the Lausanne Movement and Anabaptists and uncovers startling insights on how PCSBA churches engage in mission both back in their homeland and in the USA The findings and conclusions of this work are invaluable to diasporic Christian communities who wish to address their authenticity in the way they do mission both internationally and in their local context creating a path to more fruitful gospel and kingdom work

One Faith James Innell Packer,Thomas C. Oden,2004 Jesus Christ promised a unity for his church Are there now clear evidences of that within evangelicalism Or are evangelicals fragmenting into ever smaller divisions Renowned theologians J I Packer and Thomas C Oden make the case that there is a significant theological consensus holding the evangelical church together With copious citations from statements produced since 1950 that are widely representative of international evangelical faith Packer and Oden let these witnesses speak for themselves Packer and Oden survey several key documents of evangelicalism particularly the Lausanne Covenant 1974 the Manila Manifesto 1989 The Gospel of Jesus Christ An Evangelical Celebration 1999 and The Amsterdam Declaration 2000 Charting sixteen different theological themes they also include references to numerous documents produced by evangelical theological seminaries and societies mission agencies parachurch organizations and assorted special convocations More than informational One Faith arises out of the hope that it may not only edify the evangelical church but also provide a potential foundation for a new ecumenism that gives glory to the God of our Lord Jesus Christ according to the good news of his gospel The Usefulness of Scripture Daniel Castelo, Sara M. Koenig, David R. Nienhuis, 2018-05-04 Robert Wall began his teaching career at Seattle Pacific University in 1978. Now forty years later and in celebration of his seventieth birthday, colleagues and former students have gathered to produce this volume in honor of their friend and teacher. The results are sure to delight all of those who have studied under or been friends of Professor Wall. The essays are grouped under two general themes: theology and methodology with an emphasis on Wesleyan biblical hermeneutics, canonical perspectives, and the implications of these approaches for church life and work and biblical texts. Themes especially with a view to the relationship of the study of Scripture to the life of the Christian. In both of these areas, the contributions bear in mind Wall's conviction that academic study and spiritual life need not in fact should not be kept apart. The contributors to this volume include Frank Anthony Spina, Andrew Knapp, Shannon Nicole Smythe, Daniel Castelo, Anthony B. Robinson, Eugene E. Lemcio, Sara M. Koenig, Jack Levison, Laura C. S. Holmes, John Painter, and Stephen E. Fowl.

Religion and Social Development in Post-apartheid South Africa Ignatius Swart, Hermann Rocher, Sulina Green, Johannes Erasmus, 2010-10-01 It reflects original research and contributes to new developments in the field of theology and religion with regard to its developmental role within a transformation context. The book may easily stand out in future as seminal in the way that it promoted the social development debate of the church and its organisational structures from an interdisciplinary focus. Prof. Antoinette Lombard, Department of Social Work and Criminology, University of Pretoria.
